WE do not suppose we could keep many votes away from Dr. Acker if we proved conclusively that he was one of the most devoted and persistent rebels, during the war, that inf sted the North. He was no copper-thead—his utterances were undisguised. But we hope the Republicans of Lehigh who stood up so nobly for the Union during the war, against an overpowering opposition, will show on the 11th of next October that they have not forgotten their duty to their country. The Democracy, in this District, have not made such a bold nomination since the rebell on for block out. It will require work and the re-sult promises no official patronage in return, but we can ent down their majority and show the opposition that they have a powerful foe to contend with and make them careful of the exercise of their power. VERMONT.

Splendid Republican Victory. MONTPELIER, Vt., Sept. 6.-The doings of this the first blennial election day in Vermont may be stated, is a word, as follows : The Republican State ticket, headed by the Hon. John Stewart for Governor, is elected by over 20,000 majority in a vote of 45,000. All the Republican candidates for Congress-Messrs. Willard, Poland, and Smith- are reelected by handsome majorities. The endeavor to divide the Republican strength in the Ist. District and defeat Mr. Willard has availed nothing. He has a handsome majority in nearly every town in the district. The Senate is probably unanimously Republican, and the House will scarcely show more than one Democrat in ten of its members. The total vote, though small, will stand about 45,000,
