

The Lehigh Register.

ALLEN TOWN, PA., NOV. 2, 1870.

It is said the report of Senator Cameron's illness was gotten up to raise the hopes of some aspirants for Senatorial honors.

NEW YORK ELECTION.

The arrangements for enforcing the new election law in New York have been completed. The government is determined that it shall be strictly enforced, without detriment to the rights of any voters.

The population of the city of New York is 627,420, an increase of 113,707 in ten years. The returns from the Census Marshal for Philadelphia show a population of 657,170, an increase of only 110,000 in ten years.

Chicago wishes to have it understood that its foreign shipping interests, over which it has a very large influence, are not to be affected by the proposed tariff.

The monthly reports now published by the Sinking Fund Commissioners afford frequent opportunity for the public to see how well the Commonwealth's financial condition.

As the term between the friends of Metcalf and Lincoln is very little more than a year, these factions are likely to destroy the power of the Republican party.

Nearly every portion of news from the seat of the great European conflict has been given to the public through the Lehigh Register.

After a series of only ten weeks, says the Post, the great fortress of Metz is surrounded. At an early hour yesterday morning it was seen that the new works were being thrown up.

It has generally been supposed, says the Bulletin, that a very heavy increase in the population of the oil-producing counties of Pennsylvania would be shown by the census.

The increase in these three counties is less than forty-nine per cent, while the increase in the whole State is only twenty per cent.

It is not surprising that the census of Pennsylvania in 1870 shows an increase in population of 1,233,630, or 12.3 per cent.

HEAVY BANK ROBBERY.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 26.—The First National Bank at Warren, in this county, was robbed last night by a gang of burglars, of a large amount of treasure and valuables.

The bank officers were taken to the city, and the whole amount taken is estimated at $200,000 to $300,000. The robbers attacked, gagged, and bound the watchman, and fastened him to the ceiling.

Out of the thousand of native-born citizens, since 1850 only two have been found incompetent to meet the test of the law which limits suffrage to those who can read the constitution in English, and write the signature.

One of these was a Cape Cod boy, who from his childhood had been consuetudinary at sea, and had been deprived of a school education.

The other was a journeyman painter, born and living in Boston, who could read indifferently well, but in writing could only sign his initials.
