In our German congregation stablished by the side of every church, in which the children were instructed in the Bible, the Catechism of their church and in church music

Therefore, the Sunday School teacher, especially in our German congregations, should not only be a member of some church, but of that particular church with which his school is connected ; and a non-professor of religion should not teach in a chool whose object it is to instruct and prepare the children to become members of the church. low can one person prepare another person for a thing which he has himself not attained, or how can the " blind lead the blind," Mr. Wink thought that a teacher need not be a member of an burch but he should be a Christian. Gen. Me Allister said that there are many good and cfli cient Sunday School teachers who are not mem bers of the church or professors of religion. Rev Mr. Wood would not exclude any non-Christian from teaching, although a Christian would be far better. He would allow a non-professor of religion to teach if he had no others, hoping that he ould study himself into it. Rev. Mr. Little, of Hokendauqua, would let any one teach who wishes to teach, Christian or not. Rev. Mr. Renninge said that the decision of this question is the decision between faith and infidelity. The ground taken by Mr. Rhoads was the right one. If we wish to build up the church, we must not tear it down; if we lay it down as a rule that non-professors shall teach, we tear it down. No unbe-
