ceident occurred at the furniture manufactory of Berkemeyer, Lutz & Co., in the rear of their store on Hamilton street above Eighth, which might have been very serious in its consequences. The men were working in the shop at time, the and a coal oil lamp in the hands of James Seizlove fell to the floor, exploding and setting fire to the shavings strewn about. Mr. Seizlove in endeavoring to extinguish the flames was badly burned about the face and hands. Fortunately the workmen subdued the fire and prevented it from extending, and thus saved a serious conflagration.

SUDDEN DEATH.-John P. Cox, Superinendent of the Pennsylvania & New York Canal and Railroad, the upper division of the Lehigh Valley road, diéd very suddenly at Waverly, N. Y., on Wednesday. He was out on a business trip, and s reported to have died just as he stepped from is carriage. Heart disease caused his death. Mr. Cox has lately resided at Towanda, Bradford county. NEW TURNPIKE .- We understand that efforts are being made to organize a company to construct a turnpike on the old Philadelphia road. If the project is successful, we shall probably have a high iron bridge across the Little Lehigh. The turnpike will start at the foot of Sixth street, thence by Locust street and making a direct line with the of food, and we hope that the prices will soon re-Philadelphia road. A NARROW ESCAPE .- On Saturday last, the of it." Catawissa Express, due here at 2.17 P. M., ran off the track a short distance this side of Catawissa and did not pass here until after 8 P. M. It seems that there had been some coals drawn from an engine upon the track, which set fire to the ties, burning some five of them off. The Express coming on at its usual rate, caused the track to spread, breaking the axle on the tank. One of the enger cars was thrown up the mountain sevral yards, and another was swung over the embankment and held by the coupling until the passengers were taken out. Had the coupling of this car broke, every passenger would have perished, as the car would have fallen about fifty feet. One thing seems almost miraculous, that no one was aurt .- Valley Record.

THE CONCERT THURSDAY NIGHT.-The concert of the Ringgold Cornet Band, Thursday was, as we heard a boy say, a thundering good concert. THE ALLENTOWN IRON WORKS TROUBLE -A WOULD-BE PROPRIETOR PUTS IN HIS CLAIMS. -HIS HOPES BLASTED. -James Magee resides on Alien street, in the Sixth Ward. He is poor but honest, and is temperate in his habits, and is a member of the order of the Sons of Temperane

James is attacked with temporary fits of insanity, which, though they put him in the imaginary pos-session of vast wealth, must cause him much more trouble than his comfortable life in his own lowly nome. As a general thing he is sensible enough, but about twice a month his insanity takes shape, and is especially demonstrative about the full of the moon. At such times he has been in the habit of visiting the residence of Samuel Lewis, Esq., and the servant opening the door in response to his ring at the bell, it has been his practice to enter his house and remain there until ejected by force. His theory is that his mother's money built the works of the Allentown Iron Company the residence of Mr. Lewis and all the other buildings owned by the Company, and that, when she died, she bequeathed the vast estate to him. Mr. Magee has recognized the fact that other parties have been using and enjoying the emoluments of charm to the house, and if once he effected an entrance into a certain room in Mr. Lewis' residence earthly power could keep him from possessing his fortune and keeping it until his death, when, in case he should have lived a sober life, the will of his mother provided that it should go to his day in the Hyde Park, Bellevue and Keiser's Valeirs. Mr. Lewis has been much annoyed by his by districts, and the result was a \mathbf{Y} ite to suspend frequent and persistent visits, and from the lanentirely.
