

The Lehigh Register.

No paper discontinued until all arrearages are paid, except at the option of the publishers.

Our subscribers who do not receive their papers regularly will confer a great favor upon us by sending word to this office.

Subscribers about removing will please send their old address as well as the new.

NOTICE.—Within a short time we have sent out a large number of bills for subscription.

The Republican County Committee will meet at the Eagle Hotel, Wednesday, the 27th, at 10 o'clock, P. M.

SLAUGHTER.—Farragut Post, G. A. R., will meet on the 23d of October, when the new ritual will be brought before the Post for adoption.

The St. Cloud Hotel, in Philadelphia, is one of the best managed hotels in that city, with the rates at only $2.50 a day.

Mr. LA RUE visited the Jersey State Fair Friday, where he received a diploma for the best heading stove.

The Philadelphia and Reading railroad company, on Thursday, purchased 100 acres of land adjoining Reading, for $42,500.

TRAGEDY.—Heron says he don't care to be so near any military party which Gen. Butler and Wendell Phillips are out.

The workmen of Carbon county have called a meeting for the purpose of nominating a county clerk.

The assessor has an authority to question your right to register if you apply in person.

The centenary celebration of the Stone Church, at Kridelville, took place Tuesday, and the exercises were said to have been of a very interesting character.

We notice that many towns in the interior of the State are supplying themselves with the apparatus formerly used by the volunteer fire department of Philadelphia.

An exchange tells of a man whose leg was broken in two places, and that immediately after it had been set, "he was conveyed to his residence on the Run."

NATURALIZATION COURT.—On Friday next there will be held a special session of the Court for matriculation of those desiring to become citizens.

The rumor of the proposed lease of the North Penn. Railroad to the Lehigh Valley Company has set the stock of the former company up for par.

ACCIDENT.—Friday afternoon a young boy named Smith, residing with his father, on Schwenker's farm, near the Reading road, while working around the horse power, was caught in the threshing machine and had his foot crushed.

The Philadelphia Press locates our Allentown in New Jersey. A few Jersey's Allentown is a little village of a few hundred population.

Press reports that everything emanates from Jersey.

This Reading Eagle is pitching into one of the delegates elected by the Berks county Republican convention, because he was a rebel during the war.

It would have been better for the Eagle's credit if it had pitched into the rebels some eight years ago.

In the Lehigh land case to be tried next week in the Court of Common Pleas of Berks county, the Miner's Journal says one hundred and fifty witnesses are being summoned in Pottsville.

A formidable prospect for the Court is this prospect.

ALL'S WILLIAMS' EXHAUSTIVE.—We have received the manuscript of a story with the above title, written by Estelle Du Nord, author of a number of novels in Kansas.

We hope it will be received with the same favor as we have had for former productions.

BRADFORD COUNTY.—Hon. J. P. Wickes, sheriff, will visit on the 25th inst., and Hon. George Landolt on the 28th.

The lightning rod frauds are permeating the county and swindling the farmers.

A SUNDAY SCHOOL FESTIVAL will be held by the Germanic Sunday School on the 29th inst., near Germantown, in a beautiful and attractive grove.

The New Jersey Westline Railroad Company has just awarded the contract for the grading and mason work of their road, from Easton, to Newark, to John H. Beck, of Easton, to be finished by the first of January next.

CHARLES M. TOWN, ESQ., for several years associated with Messrs. D. S. Conover, H. C. Quarry at an advanced professional rank.

FRANKS OF AN EFFICIENT.—The Harrisburg Journal says: "The Harrisburg office was re-elected in Handranger's managerly yesterday afternoon."

NOVEL SYSTEM.—A writer in the Golden Age says that the present system of choosing officers is found that the public does not know just how the candidates are chosen, but takes the hypocrite and liar sooner than the honest man.

PENNSYLVANIA has 14,212 public schools. The star gazers are on the lookout for Benke's comet, which is expected to appear early this fall.

COL. POINTE'S speeches in Northern Pennsylvania, in favor of Stanton and Death, are well read and enthusiastic.

GENERAL GRANT never had a more cordial reception than that accorded to him during his late visit to this State.

A YOUNG SON of Rev. Thomas S. Yoern, formerly rector of Swedes church, near Norristown, fell a distance of forty-one feet, in Cincinnati, the other day, and was killed.

LEHIGH COUNTY, which has a number of flourishing Temperance organizations, will give a vote for the Temperance ticket, but are too indolgent to be caught by such a matter their prompt attention.

The Republican County Committee will meet at the Eagle Hotel, Wednesday, the 27th, at 10 o'clock, P. M.

SLAUGHTER.—Farragut Post, G. A. R., will meet on the 23d of October, when the new ritual will be brought before the Post for adoption.

The St. Cloud Hotel, in Philadelphia, is one of the best managed hotels in that city, with the rates at only $2.50 a day.

Mr. LA RUE visited the Jersey State Fair Friday, where he received a diploma for the best heading stove.

The Philadelphia and Reading railroad company, on Thursday, purchased 100 acres of land adjoining Reading, for $42,500.

TRAGEDY.—Heron says he don't care to be so near any military party which Gen. Butler and Wendell Phillips are out.

The workmen of Carbon county have called a meeting for the purpose of nominating a county clerk.

The assessor has an authority to question your right to register if you apply in person.

The centenary celebration of the Stone Church, at Kridelville, took place Tuesday, and the exercises were said to have been of a very interesting character.

We notice that many towns in the interior of the State are supplying themselves with the apparatus formerly used by the volunteer fire department of Philadelphia.

An exchange tells of a man whose leg was broken in two places, and that immediately after it had been set, "he was conveyed to his residence on the Run."

NATURALIZATION COURT.—On Friday next there will be held a special session of the Court for matriculation of those desiring to become citizens.

The rumor of the proposed lease of the North Penn. Railroad to the Lehigh Valley Company has set the stock of the former company up for par.

ACCIDENT.—Friday afternoon a young boy named Smith, residing with his father, on Schwenker's farm, near the Reading road, while working around the horse power, was caught in the threshing machine and had his foot crushed.

The Philadelphia Press locates our Allentown in New Jersey. A few Jersey's Allentown is a little village of a few hundred population.

Press reports that everything emanates from Jersey.

This Reading Eagle is pitching into one of the delegates elected by the Berks county Republican convention, because he was a rebel during the war.

It would have been better for the Eagle's credit if it had pitched into the rebels some eight years ago.

In the Lehigh land case to be tried next week in the Court of Common Pleas of Berks county, the Miner's Journal says one hundred and fifty witnesses are being summoned in Pottsville.

A formidable prospect for the Court is this prospect.

ALL'S WILLIAMS' EXHAUSTIVE.—We have received the manuscript of a story with the above title, written by Estelle Du Nord, author of a number of novels in Kansas.

We hope it will be received with the same favor as we have had for former productions.

BRADFORD COUNTY.—Hon. J. P. Wickes, sheriff, will visit on the 25th inst., and Hon. George Landolt on the 28th.

The lightning rod frauds are permeating the county and swindling the farmers.

A SUNDAY SCHOOL FESTIVAL will be held by the Germanic Sunday School on the 29th inst., near Germantown, in a beautiful and attractive grove.

The New Jersey Westline Railroad Company has just awarded the contract for the grading and mason work of their road, from Easton, to Newark, to John H. Beck, of Easton, to be finished by the first of January next.

CHARLES M. TOWN, ESQ., for several years associated with Messrs. D. S. Conover, H. C. Quarry at an advanced professional rank.

FRANKS OF AN EFFICIENT.—The Harrisburg Journal says: "The Harrisburg office was re-elected in Handranger's managerly yesterday afternoon."

NOVEL SYSTEM.—A writer in the Golden Age says that the present system of choosing officers is found that the public does not know just how the candidates are chosen, but takes the hypocrite and liar sooner than the honest man.

A NEW way of hanging oil paintings is to have large blocks of wood at the neck of the frame to prevent their touching the wall, so that the oil can circulate through the back and prevent the painting being injured by dampness and blighted by the heat from the chimney or stove.

COAL LAW.—Some of our readers may not be aware that a new law, relative to the delivery of coal by the State, is now in operation.

PHARMIC DIOS.—Mr. S. S. Giering, of Enniss, has been presented with a pair of prairie dogs, captured near the line of Texas in Kansas, by Dr. G. S. Christ and Henry Fritz.

BAQUET.—Wednesday afternoon a grand banquet was given to the members of the old South-west Fire Company of Philadelphia by the lady friends of the Allen Hose Company.

DISCUSSION.—The newly erected public school house at Rockdale, in North Whitehall, will be dedicated Sunday, October 1, in the afternoon.

IN twenty years, the Pennsylvania railroad and Northern Central, gathering a population of five hundred to a thousand people in each locality thus favored.

THERE is a young lady at Elizabeth, N. J., named Miss "Elizabeth Herald," and she often gets the letters intended for the Daily Herald of that place. The Herald man ought either to marry her or persuade her to leave the town.

THE America Hose Company have again received their carriage. It is very handsomely painted and is equal to a new one in appearance.

JUDICIAL.—Richard Watson, Esq., of Doylestown, has received the Republican nomination for the office of County Judge in the fall.

HE is still living—that oldest man, we mean. He is in Minnesota now, aged 111. A. S. is customary with these old men, he gets up at 4 a. m., and takes a good half with seven languages without the aid of spectacles.

THE funeral of C. L. Longnecker took place Tuesday work from his late residence at two o'clock, and was attended by a large concourse of acquaintances, in the City of Philadelphia.

An exchange tells of a man whose leg was broken in two places, and that immediately after it had been set, "he was conveyed to his residence on the Run."

NATURALIZATION COURT.—On Friday next there will be held a special session of the Court for matriculation of those desiring to become citizens.

The rumor of the proposed lease of the North Penn. Railroad to the Lehigh Valley Company has set the stock of the former company up for par.

ACCIDENT.—Friday afternoon a young boy named Smith, residing with his father, on Schwenker's farm, near the Reading road, while working around the horse power, was caught in the threshing machine and had his foot crushed.

The Philadelphia Press locates our Allentown in New Jersey. A few Jersey's Allentown is a little village of a few hundred population.

Press reports that everything emanates from Jersey.

This Reading Eagle is pitching into one of the delegates elected by the Berks county Republican convention, because he was a rebel during the war.

It would have been better for the Eagle's credit if it had pitched into the rebels some eight years ago.

In the Lehigh land case to be tried next week in the Court of Common Pleas of Berks county, the Miner's Journal says one hundred and fifty witnesses are being summoned in Pottsville.

A formidable prospect for the Court is this prospect.

ALL'S WILLIAMS' EXHAUSTIVE.—We have received the manuscript of a story with the above title, written by Estelle Du Nord, author of a number of novels in Kansas.

We hope it will be received with the same favor as we have had for former productions.

BRADFORD COUNTY.—Hon. J. P. Wickes, sheriff, will visit on the 25th inst., and Hon. George Landolt on the 28th.

The lightning rod frauds are permeating the county and swindling the farmers.

A SUNDAY SCHOOL FESTIVAL will be held by the Germanic Sunday School on the 29th inst., near Germantown, in a beautiful and attractive grove.

The New Jersey Westline Railroad Company has just awarded the contract for the grading and mason work of their road, from Easton, to Newark, to John H. Beck, of Easton, to be finished by the first of January next.

CHARLES M. TOWN, ESQ., for several years associated with Messrs. D. S. Conover, H. C. Quarry at an advanced professional rank.

FRANKS OF AN EFFICIENT.—The Harrisburg Journal says: "The Harrisburg office was re-elected in Handranger's managerly yesterday afternoon."

NOVEL SYSTEM.—A writer in the Golden Age says that the present system of choosing officers is found that the public does not know just how the candidates are chosen, but takes the hypocrite and liar sooner than the honest man.

REAL ESTATE.—Henry T. Klecker has sold a two-story frame house and its adjacent lot on the North side of Tenth street, 15 feet front by 120 feet in depth, to William Reinhard, for $200, property of James H. Bush.

ALSO, a vacant lot situate on the east side of Grand street, between Gordon and Liberty streets, owned by John D. and Edward Harvey, Esq., attempted to entertain the audience. Mr. Harvey was the first speaker, and those citizens who had assembled with the expectation of hearing this talented gentleman were disappointed.

THE DEMOCRATIC FILLER.—A member of the Board of Health, Dr. J. W. Demarest, on the Square Thursday evening, to hear the Democratic orators speak their stereotyped pieces.

PHARMIC DIOS.—Mr. S. S. Giering, of Enniss, has been presented with a pair of prairie dogs, captured near the line of Texas in Kansas, by Dr. G. S. Christ and Henry Fritz.

BAQUET.—Wednesday afternoon a grand banquet was given to the members of the old South-west Fire Company of Philadelphia by the lady friends of the Allen Hose Company.

DISCUSSION.—The newly erected public school house at Rockdale, in North Whitehall, will be dedicated Sunday, October 1, in the afternoon.

IN twenty years, the Pennsylvania railroad and Northern Central, gathering a population of five hundred to a thousand people in each locality thus favored.

THERE is a young lady at Elizabeth, N. J., named Miss "Elizabeth Herald," and she often gets the letters intended for the Daily Herald of that place. The Herald man ought either to marry her or persuade her to leave the town.

THE America Hose Company have again received their carriage. It is very handsomely painted and is equal to a new one in appearance.

JUDICIAL.—Richard Watson, Esq., of Doylestown, has received the Republican nomination for the office of County Judge in the fall.

HE is still living—that oldest man, we mean. He is in Minnesota now, aged 111. A. S. is customary with these old men, he gets up at 4 a. m., and takes a good half with seven languages without the aid of spectacles.

THE funeral of C. L. Longnecker took place Tuesday work from his late residence at two o'clock, and was attended by a large concourse of acquaintances, in the City of Philadelphia.

An exchange tells of a man whose leg was broken in two places, and that immediately after it had been set, "he was conveyed to his residence on the Run."

NATURALIZATION COURT.—On Friday next there will be held a special session of the Court for matriculation of those desiring to become citizens.

The rumor of the proposed lease of the North Penn. Railroad to the Lehigh Valley Company has set the stock of the former company up for par.

ACCIDENT.—Friday afternoon a young boy named Smith, residing with his father, on Schwenker's farm, near the Reading road, while working around the horse power, was caught in the threshing machine and had his foot crushed.

The Philadelphia Press locates our Allentown in New Jersey. A few Jersey's Allentown is a little village of a few hundred population.

Press reports that everything emanates from Jersey.

This Reading Eagle is pitching into one of the delegates elected by the Berks county Republican convention, because he was a rebel during the war.

It would have been better for the Eagle's credit if it had pitched into the rebels some eight years ago.

In the Lehigh land case to be tried next week in the Court of Common Pleas of Berks county, the Miner's Journal says one hundred and fifty witnesses are being summoned in Pottsville.

A formidable prospect for the Court is this prospect.

ALL'S WILLIAMS' EXHAUSTIVE.—We have received the manuscript of a story with the above title, written by Estelle Du Nord, author of a number of novels in Kansas.

We hope it will be received with the same favor as we have had for former productions.

BRADFORD COUNTY.—Hon. J. P. Wickes, sheriff, will visit on the 25th inst., and Hon. George Landolt on the 28th.

The lightning rod frauds are permeating the county and swindling the farmers.

A SUNDAY SCHOOL FESTIVAL will be held by the Germanic Sunday School on the 29th inst., near Germantown, in a beautiful and attractive grove.

The New Jersey Westline Railroad Company has just awarded the contract for the grading and mason work of their road, from Easton, to Newark, to John H. Beck, of Easton, to be finished by the first of January next.

CHARLES M. TOWN, ESQ., for several years associated with Messrs. D. S. Conover, H. C. Quarry at an advanced professional rank.

FRANKS OF AN EFFICIENT.—The Harrisburg Journal says: "The Harrisburg office was re-elected in Handranger's managerly yesterday afternoon."

NOVEL SYSTEM.—A writer in the Golden Age says that the present system of choosing officers is found that the public does not know just how the candidates are chosen, but takes the hypocrite and liar sooner than the honest man.

As the Lehigh County Fair will attract thousands of people, it is not probable that it is possible that professional thieves will take opportunity to prey their trades.

HOSE COMPANIES.—The fire companies in Allentown, there being between five and six thousand people at the Cemetery. The remains of the late John D. and Edward Harvey, Esq., were taken to the City of Philadelphia.

PHARMIC DIOS.—Mr. S. S. Giering, of Enniss, has been presented with a pair of prairie dogs, captured near the line of Texas in Kansas, by Dr. G. S. Christ and Henry Fritz.

BAQUET.—Wednesday afternoon a grand banquet was given to the members of the old South-west Fire Company of Philadelphia by the lady friends of the Allen Hose Company.

DISCUSSION.—The newly erected public school house at Rockdale, in North Whitehall, will be dedicated Sunday, October 1, in the afternoon.

IN twenty years, the Pennsylvania railroad and Northern Central, gathering a population of five hundred to a thousand people in each locality thus favored.

THERE is a young lady at Elizabeth, N. J., named Miss "Elizabeth Herald," and she often gets the letters intended for the Daily Herald of that place. The Herald man ought either to marry her or persuade her to leave the town.

THE America Hose Company have again received their carriage. It is very handsomely painted and is equal to a new one in appearance.

JUDICIAL.—Richard Watson, Esq., of Doylestown, has received the Republican nomination for the office of County Judge in the fall.

HE is still living—that oldest man, we mean. He is in Minnesota now, aged 111. A. S. is customary with these old men, he gets up at 4 a. m., and takes a good half with seven languages without the aid of spectacles.

THE funeral of C. L. Longnecker took place Tuesday work from his late residence at two o'clock, and was attended by a large concourse of acquaintances, in the City of Philadelphia.

An exchange tells of a man whose leg was broken in two places, and that immediately after it had been set, "he was conveyed to his residence on the Run."

NATURALIZATION COURT.—On Friday next there will be held a special session of the Court for matriculation of those desiring to become citizens.

The rumor of the proposed lease of the North Penn. Railroad to the Lehigh Valley Company has set the stock of the former company up for par.

ACCIDENT.—Friday afternoon a young boy named Smith, residing with his father, on Schwenker's farm, near the Reading road, while working around the horse power, was caught in the threshing machine and had his foot crushed.

The Philadelphia Press locates our Allentown in New Jersey. A few Jersey's Allentown is a little village of a few hundred population.

Press reports that everything emanates from Jersey.

This Reading Eagle is pitching into one of the delegates elected by the Berks county Republican convention, because he was a rebel during the war.

It would have been better for the Eagle's credit if it had pitched into the rebels some eight years ago.

In the Lehigh land case to be tried next week in the Court of Common Pleas of Berks county, the Miner's Journal says one hundred and fifty witnesses are being summoned in Pottsville.

A formidable prospect for the Court is this prospect.

ALL'S WILLIAMS' EXHAUSTIVE.—We have received the manuscript of a story with the above title, written by Estelle Du Nord, author of a number of novels in Kansas.

We hope it will be received with the same favor as we have had for former productions.

BRADFORD COUNTY.—Hon. J. P. Wickes, sheriff, will visit on the 25th inst., and Hon. George Landolt on the 28th.

The lightning rod frauds are permeating the county and swindling the farmers.

A SUNDAY SCHOOL FESTIVAL will be held by the Germanic Sunday School on the 29th inst., near Germantown, in a beautiful and attractive grove.

The New Jersey Westline Railroad Company has just awarded the contract for the grading and mason work of their road, from Easton, to Newark, to John H. Beck, of Easton, to be finished by the first of January next.

CHARLES M. TOWN, ESQ., for several years associated with Messrs. D. S. Conover, H. C. Quarry at an advanced professional rank.

FRANKS OF AN EFFICIENT.—The Harrisburg Journal says: "The Harrisburg office was re-elected in Handranger's managerly yesterday afternoon."

NOVEL SYSTEM.—A writer in the Golden Age says that the present system of choosing officers is found that the public does not know just how the candidates are chosen, but takes the hypocrite and liar sooner than the honest man.

THE DEDICATION of the Rockdale school house has been postponed until the 8th of October.

THE America Hose Company, with the City Hose Band, will hold a grand parade on Monday, the 4th of October, in honor of the late John D. and Edward Harvey, Esq.

PHARMIC DIOS.—Mr. S. S. Giering, of Enniss, has been presented with a pair of prairie dogs, captured near the line of Texas in Kansas, by Dr. G. S. Christ and Henry Fritz.

BAQUET.—Wednesday afternoon a grand banquet was given to the members of the old South-west Fire Company of Philadelphia by the lady friends of the Allen Hose Company.

DISCUSSION.—The newly erected public school house at Rockdale, in North Whitehall, will be dedicated Sunday, October 1, in the afternoon.

IN twenty years, the Pennsylvania railroad and Northern Central, gathering a population of five hundred to a thousand people in each locality thus favored.

THERE is a young lady at Elizabeth, N. J., named Miss "Elizabeth Herald," and she often gets the letters intended for the Daily Herald of that place. The Herald man ought either to marry her or persuade her to leave the town.

THE America Hose Company have again received their carriage. It is very handsomely painted and is equal to a new one in appearance.

JUDICIAL.—Richard Watson, Esq., of Doylestown, has received the Republican nomination for the office of County Judge in the fall.

HE is still living—that oldest man, we mean. He is in Minnesota now, aged 111. A. S. is customary with these old men, he gets up at 4 a. m., and takes a good half with seven languages without the aid of spectacles.

THE funeral of C. L. Longnecker took place Tuesday work from his late residence at two o'clock, and was attended by a large concourse of acquaintances, in the City of Philadelphia.

An exchange tells of a man whose leg was broken in two places, and that immediately after it had been set, "he was conveyed to his residence on the Run."

NATURALIZATION COURT.—On Friday next there will be held a special session of the Court for matriculation of those desiring to become citizens.

The rumor of the proposed lease of the North Penn. Railroad to the Lehigh Valley Company has set the stock of the former company up for par.

ACCIDENT.—Friday afternoon a young boy named Smith, residing with his father, on Schwenker's farm, near the Reading road, while working around the horse power, was caught in the threshing machine and had his foot crushed.

The Philadelphia Press locates our Allentown in New Jersey. A few Jersey's Allentown is a little village of a few hundred population.

Press reports that everything emanates from Jersey.

This Reading Eagle is pitching into one of the delegates elected by the Berks county Republican convention, because he was a rebel during the war.

It would have been better for the Eagle's credit if it had pitched into the rebels some eight years ago.

In the Lehigh land case to be tried next week in the Court of Common Pleas of Berks county, the Miner's Journal says one hundred and fifty witnesses are being summoned in Pottsville.

A formidable prospect for the Court is this prospect.

ALL'S WILLIAMS' EXHAUSTIVE.—We have received the manuscript of a story with the above title, written by Estelle Du Nord, author of a number of novels in Kansas.

We hope it will be received with the same favor as we have had for former productions.

BRADFORD COUNTY.—Hon. J. P. Wickes, sheriff, will visit on the 25th inst., and Hon. George Landolt on the 28th.

The lightning rod frauds are permeating the county and swindling the farmers.

A SUNDAY SCHOOL FESTIVAL will be held by the Germanic Sunday School on the 29th inst., near Germantown, in a beautiful and attractive grove.

The New Jersey Westline Railroad Company has just awarded the contract for the grading and mason work of their road, from Easton, to Newark, to John H. Beck, of Easton, to be finished by the first of January next.

CHARLES M. TOWN, ESQ., for several years associated with Messrs. D. S. Conover, H. C. Quarry at an advanced professional rank.

FRANKS OF AN EFFICIENT.—The Harrisburg Journal says: "The Harrisburg office was re-elected in Handranger's managerly yesterday afternoon."

NOVEL SYSTEM.—A writer in the Golden Age says that the present system of choosing officers is found that the public does not know just how the candidates are chosen, but takes the hypocrite and liar sooner than the honest man.