Not a few were the boquets and smiles given by fair ladies. We heard many say "What fine fellows they are." Truly, Allentown can be proud of such stalwart men, who so effectually protect her from the ravages of fire. We thought ve heard many a "college widow" sigh, "Oh, for such a beau." The march through our streets foreibly reminded us of the stirring days of '63, when these rugged bills were shaken by the heavy tread of war. In conclusion allow me to congratulate you that you can boast of such a fire coupany and such a band.

The President of the Society for the Relief of Disabled Ministers, and Widows of Ministers submitted the following statement, which was received and ordered to be entered on the minutes :

The Society possesses all the necessary legal powers to meet the wants of the church in whatsoever form that we may deem most judicious. We can give annuity to the widow of any minister, whether he was ever a member of the Society or not. We can give an annual support to any disabled minister himself, who is a member. At a matter of course we ald the widows and famille of our members, but there is no limit to the exten bers, but there is no limit to the exten of our members, but there is no limit to the extent of our benefactions, so far as our charter and by-laws are concerned. We have power also to es-tablish a Wildows' Home or a Disabled Mulsters' Home. The only limit to our operations is the want of means, and in connection with this the want of sufficient interest on the part of the church
