A TRUCE TO SCANDAL!

m the Harrisburg State Journal

It is now some months since it became evident that the sentiment of the Republican party in Pennsylvania was chrystalizing upon John F. Hartranft as the next Governor of the Commonwealth. So unmistakable were the indications that the contest before the people was practically abandoned by his competitors, who were getting ready to acquiesce gracefully in the result. LITERARY NEWS. The long-expected companion to "Ten Nights in the Bar Room" is nearly ready, and will shortly appear. The popularity and great sefulness of this standard temperance book is vinced by the immense sales that have been much greater, it is believed, than that of any book of its class ever published. Who as not read this remarkable book, so true to ature, so intense in effect, and so terrible in its moral, and who that has read it has not vished for a companion. To satisfy this widely-expressed desire, the author has under taken and just completed a new volume, that puts down the liquor-seller in a way to startle nd arouse the public. The new book is entitled "Three years in a Man-Trap." It gives an inside view of the liquor trade, and portrays the terrible effects of that traffic in a series of life pictures, full of the intensest interest, with the skill and fidelity to nature so eminently characteristic of the uthor. The book cannot fail to make a strong impression, and, as a new auxiliary in the cause of temperance, will have a wide and powerful influence. Nothing could be more timely than its appearance now. We learn by the publishers' circular, that it is to be sold exclusively by agents, and as it is a good opportunity to secure a book which will sell easily, and at the same time do a vast amount of good, we advise anyone seeking profitable employment to apply to the publish Stoddart & Co., No. 733 Samson Street, Philadelphia, for an agency, and enter into this
