So it will be in this campaign. All the thunder and lightning the Democracy can command will not make John Hartranft flinch. He will fight his way through their calumnies and misrepresentations as gallantly as he did through the shot and shell of Rebel batteries at Roanoke Island, at Newbern, at Bull Run, at South Mountain, at Antietam Bridge, at Fredericksburg, at Vicksburg, at Knoxville, through the Wilderness, at Coal Harbor, at Fort Steadman and at Petersburg, ULYSSES MERCUR was born at Towanda in 1817. He is a grad uate of Jefferson College. He was Presiden Judge of the Thirteenth Judicial District from March, 1861, uptil he resigned to accept a seat in the Thirty-ninth Congress, from Bradford, Columbia, Montour and Wyoming. He was re-elected to the Fortieth, Forty first and Forty-second Congresses. In Congress he has taken a very prominent part and did eminent service as a member of the Judiciary Commit tee. GEN. HARRISON ALLEN. our candidate for Auditor General, is a lawyer by profession. He entered the war against the rebellion as captain in the 10th Reserves was promoted to Major, was elected Colonel of the 151st and was brevetted Brigadier General for meritorious services. He served with conspicuous ability in the Legislature and in the State Senate.

WHEN Dana, of the New York Sun, was before Alderman Hagey, of Philadelphia charged with publishing a libel on ex-State Treasurer Kemble, he claimed that he was no responsible, but that the Philadelphia news boys who sold his paper, and his paid corres pondent who wrote the libel, were the parties who should be held to answer. Such cowardly pleas have excited the indignation of a great many journalists, but the Philadelphia Transcript does not mince words when it says Now, there are decencies in life, and there is manliness in journalism. None of these qualities belong to Dana. He is simply a ribald cur that snaps at every turn and slinks at the approach of danger. Were he a journalist he would speak the truth and take all the responsibilities of his acts. He is nothing of the kind; and he therefore, with the cow ardice of a craven, crouches before the law; and, to save his own person from imprisonment, would send to the cell not only his cor respondent, who acted under his orders, but the poor little boys who keep him in luxury by dealing out daily his malignant trash. rely there is no lower scale than this, and we look for Dana's imprisonment as a protec tion to the profession."

The reason is that the time before adjournment is too short to consider the matter properly. If we have our Tariff unimpaired we can stand the internal taxes, and if we pay off another hundred milflons the coming year nothing will be lost, The only tax talked about as odious is the Income tax. We suppose it is odious to Horace Greeley and other rich men, but as far as we are concerned we would willingly pay an income tax if the fates, or whoever else provides those things, would only give us an income to pay the tax on. new party which is really founded upon patents stolen from the Democracy.

Senator Trumbull pretends that he sees wisdom in universal amnesty, but though lenient towards the unrepentant rebels—he has not enough leniency towards the Administration Republicans to give them the credit of an honest difference of opinion on this subject. A Republican who does not see as he sees is much worse than the bloodiest rebel. In his eyes the Administration opposes universal amnesty for two causes—one mercenary, and the other political. Starting out with such strong language and continuing in the same is sufficiently and an administration party. The people divide themselves into two great camps, and in their watching, and jealousies, and criticisms, and antagonisms, the government is safe and the public policy is kept pure and untarnished more than in any other way. It may be that the Convention at Cincinnati will result in the uprising of a new party. Gentlemen, a new party is very much like a new-corn child. It is a charming thing to lave in the house, but we have to wait to strong language and continuing in the same lave in the house, but we have to wait too reckless strain, he would be a poor lawver in reckless strain, he would be a poor lawyer in-leed who could not make out a good case for himself. He had no judge to confine him to himself. He had no judge to confine him to the truth and, encouraged by the cheers of the Democracy, he felt licensed to say anything no matter how bad, how devoid of truth, so that it stirred up the people and helped him on to Cincinnati. While he had no judge to check him on Friday night, and the All wise Ruler was too far off from him to evercise any testraint upon his conscience, he will find that the people of the United States of to-day are too well read upon the affairs of the Nation to convention will be controlled entirely by office holders and that nobody but the literal and the committee; idelphia convention will be controlled entirely by office holders and that nobody but the office-holders favor the renomination of President Grant. This point should never have been made by the Liberals (?) and showed a recklessness that is a characteristic of their recklessness that is a characteristic of whole movement. The people are compelled to rely upon newspapers for their information of affairs at Washington and they might be made to believe they had never been supplied there ever has been an officer at the head of the rely was the release of the people and always shall." Gentlemen, there never has been an officer at the head of with truth from that point, and would listen the Government that has been more sensitive with attention to Senators whom they used to respect. But when these bolting Republicans misrepresent facts about which the people know as much as they do, they presume a great deal too much upon the ignorance and want of judgment of the people. The people of of judgment of the people. The people of Lehigh for instance, know that Grant is the choice of the Republicans of this county. The Republicans of Berks, Chester, Lancaster and the other counties of the State know the same thing of their respective counties, and know the same thing of their respective counties, and know. of judgment of the people. The people of

The True Ground of Confidence .-- Whence com The True Ground of Confidence.—Whence comes that firm reliance, that abouts, undoubting faith in the efficiety of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a r. medy for indignation, biltous disorders, intermittent and remittent fevers, which notoriously prevail in all parts of the United States? This confidence has been growing for twenty years, and it is still extending. It is not the result of creduilty; it has not been engandered by any human device, but is the spontaneous and natural consequence of experience. What proplemes daily going on un set their way neves they cannot question. own eyes they cannot question. When families in un healthy districts that resort to this wholesome vegetabl tonic. as a proventitive, escape periodical fevers, and their immediate neighbors, who neglect this procauti u, are prostrated by the disease, how is it possible that the pneuomenon should be without its lesson? In like maner when it is seen that obstituate cases of dyapspile, of liver complaid, of constipation, of nervous weakness, and of general debility, yield to the operation of the famous remedy, how can even incredulity itself withold its endorsement? Eye-witnesses of the salutary effects of the Bitters are to be found in every civilized settlement on this continent. The thousands upon thousands who owe their restoration to health and strength, or their preservation from sickness, to its extraordinary medicinal properties, are enthusiastic in its praise. The moltionie, as a proventitive, escape periodical fevers, and al properties, are enthusiastic in its praise. The mult nai properties, are enumerated in its praise.
