THE new Tariff Bill, which is to be reported in the House, reduces the duty on tea to ten cents per pound and on coffee to two cents a 66 per ton. If the Committee of Ways and Means were not wrapped up in its own congoing on in the commercial world. Having, then, seen the effect of the reduction to $7 We are afraid the Free Traders are not actuated so much by a desire to meet the demands for cheap iron as they are to place more money in the pockets of British manutacturers. SENATOR TRUMBULL, it has lately been dis covered by the New York Tribune, is a great man, of mighty influence. We don't think so, Eleven years ago he was elected United States Senator from Illinois. He did not give satis faction to his constituents and was only reelected after giving pledges that he would be true to Republican principles in the future He has been true, over the left. He is a Free Trader; he sustained Andy Johnson's admin istration, though it was the most corrupt we ever had; he aided Andy in endeavoring to subsidize Republican office holders and thus secure their support to "my policy;" he was one of the immortal seven who voted agains Andy's impeachment; and now he oppose Grant for the purpose of starting the Libera movement, hoping thereby to keep himself it a high position. His aims are unholy and he will use the devil's weapons to insure success

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENTS.

On the seventh of May the School Direc tors of the counties of Pennsylvania will be called upon to elect County Superintendents The event will be an important one, affecting the prosperity of the school system favorably or unfavorably, just as the Directors select capable or incapable men for the position Our State is extremely liberal in its provisions for the education for the children of the Commonwealth, but much of the good effects of the expenditures for this purpose will be thrown away if the Directors fail to give the subject that careful consideration which its importance demands. Capability should be the chief qualification required of the appli cant for the position. Next, honesty and pu rity of character, and, the last are no less im portant than the first. In some counties the present incumbents are aspirants to a re-election. In such cases, if the Directors have been attentive to their duties, they cannot fail have sufficient knowledg of the incumben to enable them to judge of their fitness for the position. They may possess the necessary qualifications to make them efficient and serviceable Superintendents, but the question should present itself, how have they exercised those qualities? Have they granted certifi cates to unworthy persons? Have their ac tions being governed by favoritism? Have they made improper promises merely for the purpose of securing their re-election? W say to the Directors throughout the State that unless these questions can be answered in the negative it is your duty to reject the applican for re-election. If you again place such mer at the head of our school system, you will be responsible for a great wrong to the children of the common Schools. With such men, who do not fulfil the duties of their importan trusts, you never can expect that advancement which we have a right to expect as a return for the liberal expenditure made in behalf of the cause of popular education.

Nor all that the anti-Grant Republicansfew leaders without followers-can say will suffice to convince the public mind that they are acting less from personal feeling that principle. No doubt General Grant has been unfortunate in this respect so far as they, or the most of them, are concerned. Had be done certain things-mostly regarding appointments to office-according to their no tion, they would no doubt be among his supmen of their standing before the country; but there is sufficient reason for saying it. Less than one year ago Mr. Greeley nimself wrote of Gen. Grant as follows :

"He (Mr. Greeley) deems it too soon by a year to discuss the claims or chances of Gen. Grant or any one else. So far as he can judge the Republicans are generally satisfied with Gen. Grant's administration, and inclined to renew his lease of power. If there is not much enthusiasm in his behalf, there is a very general conviction that he is not gen. general conviction that he is a safe and pru dent Executive. Not nearing of any for midable or serious effort to prevent his renomination, it seems to us unwise in those who favor it to agitate the matter. The meeting of Converse are the prevent here is not convent of the matter. ing of Congress next December is quite soon enough for that. Gen. Grant has been not quite two years in power. During those two years many war clouds have loomed on the years many war-clouds have loomed on the horizon, yet peace with foreign nations and with Indian tribes has been happily preserved. The taxes have been largely reduced, yet two hundred millions of the national debt have been paid off and canceled, though we are awaying one hun trade and there well as the same and the same are the same and the same are the same and the same are th paying one hun red and twenty millions per annum for interest and thirty millions per annum for pensions to widows and orphans of our great struggle. We doubt whether any government ever before devoted so large a proportion of its annual income to the payment of dely. He migundestends human as nent of debt. He misunderstands human ne ture who fancies that these facts will not tell in a Presidential campaign."

Since the above was written Gen. Grant has done nothing deserving the hostility now manifested toward him. Some of his earliest acts-for instance, the appointment of his original cabinet, and some subsequent appointments-no doubt tried the temper of Republicans; but these things were all over when the above was printed. These acts at no time contributed a reason for hostility such as is now manifested-they do not amount to a reason now. The country then and now-a did Mr. Greeley when he wrote the abovetake Gen. Grant's acts as a whole. It has no forgotten, it never will forget, his services as the leader of our armies at a time when it was a question of life or death. The great body of the people have not such short memories as some politicians have. - Pittsburgh Commer-

Anti Grant correspondents of "liberal" papers announce John Hickman, of West Chester, as one of the "influential" Republicans who contemplate going to Cincinnati. THE ENEMIES of President Grant take great pleasure in calling him the office-holder's can didate. A trait that we greatly admire about spondent of the Golden Age, says the assumpis not sustained by h'story, and is an unjust redection upon the intelligence of the people sure to follow the currents of public opinion. They know, as soon as any class of men if no earlier, in what direction the political tide flows, and they always instinctively turn their backs upon the setting sun. Tyler, Polk, Filmore, Pierce, Buchanan, and Johnson, discovered each in his turn what a barren thing patronage was and how universally the men in office recognized the definition of gratitude to be "a lively sense of favors yet to come." If the people were not emphatically for Grant you might be sure the office-holders would be the ost non committal and opinionless of all the voters in the land. They would wait patiently till the Philadelphia convention had named the oming man, and then they would make mends for their previous cautious silence by illing the air with shouts over his virtues.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Sixteen Years of Success .- In 1856 the now fa-Sizeen Fears of Success.—In 1856 the now famous Mexana Lishman was made known to the public by an expensive yield of advertising. From that time to the resent the down and for it has been stead its neresting, until thus taken the lead of all embracations, lottons, on some its, and other external remed es, imported to domes be, even introduced into the American merket. In the most cell-brated rating and traiting and the establishments of states and city circ companies, and in the stables of private gentlemen, it is the unity recognized once for much descent of the terminal training and the stables of private gentlemen, it is the nly recognized cure for such d senses of the borse as office outward treatment. Nor is it, less valuable as a scal applies for for some of the most distressing com laints to "the man it subject. Rhommatism, tiffness f the joints, neuralgis, sore throat, immer, wers, exrche, to shache, yield to its pala-subduing construired willing to go to the Cincinnati Convention. tant properties, and b ras, scales and cuts are healed th incredible rapidity under its operation

The True Ground of confidence.—Whence comes that frun-rilence, that absolute, undupbting faith in the effice cy of Hostoter's Stometh Bitters as a remody for I digestion, below disorders, intermittent and remuttent fevers, which not remaily prevail is all parts of the United States? This confidence has been growing for twenty years, and its still extending. It is not there in the creduity; it has not been engendered by any haumands vice, but is the speakness and natural consequence of xperiouse. What pople see daily going on our er their own cyce they cannot question. When families in unhealthy districts that recort to this wholesome vegetable healthy districts that resort to this wholesome vegetable tonic, as a provenitive, excaps periodical fevers, and their immediate neighbors, who neglect this precauting. iton, and declared that he went to Cincinnati to surrender no Republican principle or prejudices. There will be many incongruous elements, which can only be reconciled by an endorsement of the broad and catholic platform of the Republican purty. That being so, why not take Grant, who has been true, instead of another who has not been tried?—

CHEAP TRANSPORTATION FOR THOSE Moving West .- The New York Tribune advises those moving West to associate in companies of twenty to one hundred families, as they may thereby make special contracta for transportation that will save nearly half the expenses in fares and freights. Good advice, but the trouble is to find a hundred or even a dozen tamilies who are going along at the same time. Just here comes in the advantage of joining the Red River Colony of Minnesota. Any one can go on alone and getthe full reduction. And then he need nor. settle on the colony lands unless he chooses. All the colony privileges are secured by the payment of small membership fee. There are no other assessments, no restrictions on colonists, and no conditions of membership except the single one of good character and temperance principles. For full particulars address L. H. Tenney & Co., at Chicago or Duselling the saw e class of graph.

He has also a great variety of low-priced work, which be is selling at ceduced prices, either at whoreale or retail, lighteding all styles of Cottage Paralture.
