Great Fire in New York.

Niblo's Theatra Destroyed and Metropolitan Hotel Damaged.

NEW YORK, May 7th. At eight o'clock yesterday morning a fire broke out in Niblo's Theatre, which resulted in the entire destruction of that famous establishment. The fire first broke out in the dome of the theatre and communicated by falling sparks to the orchestra and the body of the theatre. This circumstance and the evidence in possession of the Fire Commissioners proves that the disaster was of incendiary origin, Commissioner Hennessy states emphatically that the theatre was set on fire by a designing person. The hook and ladder companies had knocked in several doors and vindows, and the flames burst out with great violence. There must have been a leak of

It has a power to subdue irritability, refresh the spirits, and renew the energies, such as is possessed by no other agent. When the system of man is exhausted by labor or study, a cup of tea reinvigorates and restores as no other form of focd or beverage can.

Dann's Downfall.

The cowardly course of Dana, editor of the Sun, in refusing to stand trial for libel in l'hiladelphia, on Saturday, can excite no other feeling than contempt. Henceforth het dare not cross the soil of Pennsylvania; and when he has occasion to visit Washington, either to testify against Cabinet officers, or to take a seat in Mr. Greeley's Cabinet, he will either have to charter a steamer and go by the water route, or else go by the air line—up in a bailcon.

Up in Vermont (says the Hearth and Home) there lived a reprobate family named Ransom. Once, however, they were induced to attend a meeting during a revival. They came late, and had hardly taken their seats, when the preacher gave out the hymn, "Return ye ransom' sinners home." "All right," said the old man, getting up in a rage and clapping on his hat. "Come along, ole woman and gale, are the oboug fest enough, and everybody in
