2. HOW TO SELECT GLASSES.—It requires professional guidance, even when a good article is offered. Doctor Bernhardt, not only has the best Glasses that can be found in the market, but carefully examines the eyes, and gives indispensable advice as to the proper selection of them.

TESTIMONY OF RECOMMENDATIONS:

FROM MEDICAL GENTLEMEN, PROFESSORS OF THE HIGHEST OPTHALMIC TALENT IN ALLENTOWN, PA., POTTSVILLE, READING, LANCASTER, EASTON, SCRANTON, CARLISLE, HARRISBURG, PA., AND FROM ALL THE PRINCIPAL CITIES OF THE UNITED STATES.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Jan. 22, 1872.

IT AFFORDS ME PLEASURE TO STATE that I have carefully examined Doctor Bernhardt's collection of Glasses for the eyes, and from this explanation of the manner in which he adapts them to imperfect vision, I am fully satisfied that he thoroughly comprehends the science of Optics, and that he is practically eminently skillful in the adaptation of instruments for the relief of all forms of imperfect vision within the scope of relief without an operation.

I am confirmed, in my own opinion of the Doctor's merits by the testimony of the most reliable and prominent medical men in various cities in the United States, I most cheerfully commend him to all with whom my opinion may have any weight.

C. J. MARTIN, M.D.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Jan. 22, 1872.

AFTER A THOROUGH EXAMINATION of the principles upon which you adapt your Glasses to defective or impaired vision, and a close investigation that your claims to thoroughness in the application of those principles to the eye, it gives us pleasure to bear testimony to the fact of your pretensions in the science of Optics and the remarkable skill and facility with which you practically demonstrate yourself in this branch of scientific investigations. It is a matter of the greatest moment to those using glasses for the eye to avail themselves of the rare opportunity offered them by your presence in our city to have Glasses properly adapted to their particular cases.

JNO. ROMIG & SONS, M. D.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Jan. 23, 1872.

I HAVE EXAMINED A LARGE VARIETY of Glasses manufactured by Dr. M. Bernhardt, of Berlin, Prussia, and take much pleasure in recommending him to all those who are in need of his services. From the number of testimonials that I have seen I am convinced that he will be able to give satisfaction to all who may apply to him. Yours, etc.,

E. G. MARTIN, M. D.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Jan. 24, 1872.

IT GIVES ME GREAT PLEASURE TO inform my friends that I became acquainted with Dr. Morris Bernhardt, in Reading, Pa., in June, 1869, and there bought of him a pair of his excellent Glasses which rendered excellent service until he over since and I joyfully recommend him to all who may stand in need of his services.

WM. S. MENNIG,
Pastor of Evan. Lutheran St. Paul's Church of Allentown, Pa.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Jan. 23, 1872.

DR. M. BERNHARDT—DEAR SIR:—I beg to express to you the deep sense of obligation I feel for the professional kindness extended to me by which with eye-sight impaired by years of application and study, I am now enabled to read and write with clearness of vision equal to the days of youth. May your honorable and useful life long be spared that humanity may enjoy the scientific skill of one so eminently qualified in mind and heart to do good to his fellow-men.

With best wishes for your success I remain
Yours Truly,
J. F. FAHS,
Pastor of St. John's Ev. Lutheran Church.

DR. M. BERNHARDT, BY EXHIBITING his instruments and especially the Glasses of his own preparation, gave satisfactory proof of his knowledge and skill as an Oculist and Optician. This judgment is confirmed by numerous testimonials in his possession from scientific, intelligent and influential men residing in different States and Territories of our country. I, therefore, recommend him to all who may be afflicted with weak eyes or impaired sight as a person well qualified to afford relief by furnishing them with a suitable pair of Glasses.

N. S. STRASSBURGER,
Pastor of Zion's Reformed Congregation.
ALLENTOWN, Pa., January 21, 1872.

DR. MORRIS BERNHARDT HAS FURnished me with a pair of Brazilian Pebble Glasses which suit my eyes exactly. From personal experience I can cordially advise all persons whose natural vision requires the supplement of art to avail themselves of the Doctor's skill. He has exhibited to me credentials from eminent Physicians and Professors, with many of whom I am personally acquainted. He is evidently an Optician who understands his profession most thoroughly.

J. W. WOOD,
Pastor Presbyterian Church
ALLENTOWN, Pa., January 24, 1872.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Jan. 25, 1872.

DR. BERNHARDT'S CRYSTALS ARE UNdoubtedly very clear and perfect, and his system of adjusting them to various conditions of the eye seems to fully justify the very flattering testimonials he has received from leading Physicians and others in various parts of the United States.

WM. R. GRIES,
Rector of Grace Church,

POTTSVILLE, Sept. 19, 1872.

HAVING HAD A PERSONAL INTERVIEW with Dr. Bernhardt, and being fully convinced of his eminent skill as an Optician and Oculist, I take pleasure in commending him in his professional capacity to all who may need his services.

VINEGAR BITTERS

VEGETABLE FREE FROM ALCOHOL

PURELY CALIFORNIA

DR. WALKER'S

EUREKA

VINEGAR BITTERS

Vinegar Bitters are not a vile Fancy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced, and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the Great Blood Purifier and a Life-giving Principle, a Perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter, and restoring the blood to a healthy condition, enriching it, refreshing and invigorating both mind and body. They are easy of administration, prompt in their action, certain in their results, safe and reliable in all forms of disease.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion. Headaches, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. In these complaints it has no equal, and one bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, and in Bilious Diseases.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Grateful thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Such a distinguished physiologist: There is scarcely an individual upon the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No system of Medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

Mechanical Diseases. Persons engaged in Paint and Mineral's, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are liable to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. There are always more or less obstructions of the liver, a weakness and irritable state of the stomach, and great torpor of the bowels, being clogged up with vitiated accumulations. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for this purpose equal to Dr. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goiter, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc., etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters act on all these cases in a similar manner. By purifying the Blood they remove the cause, and by resolving away the effects of the inflammation, the tubercular deposits in the affected parts are healed, and a permanent cure is effected.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic and Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

The Aperient and mild Laxative properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are the best safeguard in all cases of eruptions and malignant fevers, their balsamic, healing, and soothing properties protect the humors of the fauces. Their Sedative properties allay pain in the nervous system, stomach, and bowels, either from inflammation, wind, or cramps, etc. Their Counter-Irritant influence extends throughout the system. Their Diuretic properties act on the Kidneys, correcting and regulating the flow of urine. Their Anti-Bilious properties stimulate the liver, in the secretion of bile, and its discharges through the biliary ducts, and are superior to all remedial agents, for the cure of Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, etc.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus prepared. The liver, the stomach, the bowels, the kidneys, and the nerves are rendered disease-proof by this great Invigorant.

The Efficacy of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, in Chronic Dyspepsia, Fevers, Nervous Disorders, Constipation, deficiency of vital power, and all maladies affecting the stomach, liver, bowels, pulmonary organs, or muscular system, has been experienced by hundreds of thousands, and hundreds of thousands more are asking for the same relief.

Directions.—Take of the Bitters on going to bed at night from a half to one and one-half wine-glassful. Eat good nourishing food, such as beefsteak, mutton chop, venison, roast beef, and vegetables, and take out-door exercise. They are composed of purely vegetable ingredients, and cannot possibly Break in the Democratic Ranks.

WHY VOORHEES IS HIMSELF OPPOSED TO GREELEY, AND WHY HE THINKS THE DEMOCRACY SHOULD REPUDIATE HIM.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—Mr. Voorhees, Democrat, of Indiana, in the House of Representatives to day, rising to a personal explanation, sent to the clerk's desk and had read a newspaper paragraph from the Washington Republican, to the effect that he was halting and hesitating as to the position he should take on the question of supporting Mr. Greeley, and that as his Democratic colleagues were all said to be in favor of Mr. Greeley, he was likely to lose the favor of the district where his voice had so long been potential.

He declared that he did not halt or hesitate. He had not halted or hesitated when he had not more than fourteen Democratic colleagues in the House, nor did he now. If he could ever be tempted to abandon the principles of his political life it might have been then. As to the nominee of the Cincinnati Convention, whoever believed in the high protective tariff principles of its chief man might support him. But he [Mr. Voorhees] would not. Was he expected to support Mr. Greeley because he had been the life-long champion of doctrines which he [Mr. Voorhees] opposed? Was he expected as a Western man, representing a Western laboring constituency that was ground down by a high protective tariff monopoly, to support the great champion of protection?

Was he expected to support a man who had been the most clamorous advocate in all the land for that Kuklux legislation which had desolated the homes of the Southern people? If Mr. Greeley's nomination promised relief to that bloated and downtrodden section, there was not much which he [Voorhees] would not forego to subserve so holy and so benign a purpose. But Mr. Greeley had been the earnest advocate of the legislation which had paralyzed the South, and was that the reason why he should get his support?

He was told that the present Administration had been cruel and unkind to the South, but the Administration had simply executed a law which the Cincinnati nominee had dictated to Congress. That was all the difference between them. One was the executive officer acting under his oath of office to execute the law, and the other was a man who had no oath on his conscience in regard to the matter, but who had urged the passage of that legislation.

Was he expected to support Mr. Greeley because within a year date he had made a still further extension of the President's power to suspend the habeas corpus all over the South? Was he expected to support him because he was the earnest and urgent advocate of the present force bayonet election law that subjected every voting precinct of twenty thousand people to the supervision, and, in certain contingencies to the control of the military? Was he expected to support him because two months ago this very man had clamored and raged in his great organ in favor of a law to place the local elections in the State of New York under Federal control, and also in certain contingencies under military control? Was such a man fit to receive his vote for the Presidency? Was such a man fit to be in that high place? Was that the voice of statesmanship which was called for at this hour?

Was that the reform to go before the Union sentiment of the country, and appeal to it in favor of a man who stood on the record for the "inalienable right" of a State or of a community to dissolve this Union? Was he, as a friend of the Southern people, called upon to vote for a man who, during the entire fall and winter of 1860, wrote with all his acknowledged power in favor of the inalienable right of any dissatisfied portion of the country to break up the Union and form another government for themselves? Mr. Greeley had not recanted those opinions, but, on the contrary in his book on the "American Conflict," published in 1864, he had analyzed them and defined them to this effect, that if in consultation, convention, and the like, the South still desired, with any considerable approach to unanimity, to separate, it should be allowed to do so.

Mr. Speer (Dem.), of Pennsylvania, objected that Mr. Voorhees' remarks were not in the nature of a personal explanation, but the Speaker overruled the objection, and Mr. Voorhees proceeded with his speech amid great excitement and confusion, which rendered much of what he said inaudible at the reporters' desk. He repeated that Mr. Greeley, after three years' war, had still held and published the same sentiments, and they still stood unreserved. Was a man fit to be elevated to the Presidency who stood committed to the doctrine that whoever desired to dissolve their connection with the Government had the inalienable right to do so?

That might commend him to some people, but it would not when his subsequent course was called to mind. Some of the highest men of the South had told him [Voorhees], with tears in their eyes, that more than any one thing which satisfied them that they could have a separate system and form of government to suit themselves was the voice of the then victorious Republican party speaking through its acknowledged organ; and yet when the Southern people did what this man had told them they had the inalienable right to do, no wild beast, hungry for blood, ever screamed over its prey as he [Greeley] had shouted "On to Richmond," to killevery one of them for doing what he told them they had the right to do. That was a solemn page of history which could not be reversed. Waters of ocean could not wash it out; mortal man could not gainsay it. A red sea of blood had not been enough to satisfy this man, but he had also insisted upon the confiscation of the homes and property of the women and children of the South.

Others might do as they pleased, but for him [Voorhees] and his household he would not do this thing. Parties to be successful must be banded together on a common principle. No other combination of men was worthy of success. He was told that his party desired success. Against this Administration no one desired it more than himself, but there was something which was better than success and sweeter to the heart than success. A great man had said that it was better to be right than to be President, and so he said that it was better to be right than to succeed. He entered his protest against the attempt to transfer the Democrats of the country to a camp where there was nothing belonging to them.

Mr. Roosevelt (Dem.), of New York, asked whether Mr. Voorhees would support the nominee of the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore, whoever that candidate might be?

Mr. Voorhees replied that he was not in the habit of voting against Democratic nominations. He believed that the gentleman himself would have some difficulty in answering his own question. [Laughter.] But he did not dispair of success. His position was in favor of standing by the principles of his party, and he would vote for the man who represented those principles. He had no fears, however, of what the Baltimore Convention would do, but he could not vote for a man who spoke of the Democratic party as that to which all the haunts of debauchery gave nine-tenths of their support.

It had been sometimes said that this nominee had gone bail for Jefferson Davis when he was in prison, but that was too narrow a platform for any party to stand upon. [Laughter.] It would be a most dangerous thing to raise an issue as between the man who put Mr. Davis in jail and the man who bailed him out. It would not be a safe issue, and he implored his Southern friends not to make it. It might provoke a comparison which would not be favorable to the nominee of the Cincinnati Convention. Mr. Davis had not been helpless. A hundred millions of property at the South had been ready to bail him out.

It sometimes seemed to him [Voorhees] that it was merely a piece of restless impertinence on the part of the nominee of the Cincinnati Convention to offer himself as bail for Mr. Davis. When Andrew Johnson and Edwin M. Stanton, Secretary of War, desired and proposed (as he knew to be the fact) the arrest of Robert E. Lee, Joseph E. Johnston, and other prominent Confederate officers, there was but one man who could prevent that being done, and that man was the present incumbent of the President's office. General Grant had stepped forward and told them that these men had given him their parole as soldiers, and that that parole should be respected. [Applause from the Republican side of the house.] If he should be driven to take the stump and press the claims of Mr. Greeley, he would find a candidate opposing him who had done more and kinder things for the South than his nominee had done.

Mr. Roosevelt (Dem.), of New York, suggested that Mr. Voorhees had been recently in consultation with President Grant.

Mr. Voorhees said he had not crossed the threshold of the White House for three years, and whoever made such a statement had uttered a vile calumny.

Mr. Roosevelt said he made that statement on information given to him. He had heard two or three days ago that such an interview had taken place.

Mr. Voorhees. Then the gentleman associates with men who do not tell the truth.

Mr. Randall (Dem.), of Pennsylvania, asked Mr. Voorhees whether he would have voted for Judge Davis and advocated his election if he had received the nomination at Cincinnati.

Mr. Voorhees. Judge Davis represents many things in common with my own views.

Mr. Randall. He is a Republican.

Mr. Voorhees. That is not the point. I cannot join a combination which
