

The Lehigh Register.

No paper discontinued until all arrears are paid, except at the option of the publisher. Our subscribers who do not receive their papers regularly will confer a great favor upon us by sending word to this office.

Subscribers not removing will please send no old address as well as the new.

COPIES have suffered severely from the small-pox.

CATAWAUGA has concluded to turn out the sprinkler.

See advertisement of Odd Fellows' Parade in another column.

A BRANCH of the Emerald Benevolent Society has been organized in Po.sville.

The Allentown Cornet Band was highly complimented by the Boston papers.

EASTON wants to have the State Fair held at that place this year. Allentown don't want it.

VISITING ORDS printed neatly, promptly, and at any size or style, at the Register's office.

REPUBLICAN is annoyed by the expressions of the corner loafing brigades, which should be stopped.

WILLIAMSON has elected a Republican Mayor by 150 majority, a Republican gain over last year's 50.

The Perseverance Fire Company of Bethlehem is endeavoring to raise money to purchase horses for their steamer.

JEFF DAVIS is going to move to New York and will make that city his permanent residence, so as to be near his old friends, H. G.

The American Hotel register is filled daily with names from all sections, indicating a popular success.

Business changes—Morris Guth has purchased the lively stable of John S. Yeager, on East Hamilton and Walnut, and took possession yesterday.

The tribute from the East Bay Independent, a non-political paper, published by the Republican candidate for Auditor-General, General Harrison Allen.

PERSONAL—We are pleased to see E. F. Samuel, Esq., the popular cashier of the Second National Bank, able to be out again after a long and severe illness.

LIBERAL—The Easton Board of Control has resolved to pay the Easton Express and Free Press one dollar per annum for publishing the minutes of the Board.

APPOINTMENT—John H. Fugel, Esq., of Fogelsville, has been chosen Secretary of the Lehigh County Mutual Fire Insurance Company, in place of William Fogel, decd.

A FATAL FALL—Samuel Adams, a laborer, fell from a scaffold at the site one mile west of Fogelsville, Thursday afternoon, and was instantly killed.

GEN. BUMBY intends visiting Norristown on Friday, June 1, and will be the guest of Gen. Straatman. The Sixteenth regiment, Col. W. J. Botwin, will parade in honor of the occasion.

PROPERTY SALES—Reported by Alderman Morris, James Hunsicker sold three one-story frame houses and lots of ground on Second and Third streets, to Nathan Gackenbach, for $3,500.

MONSTER SNAKE KILLED—One day last week, a party of young men killed a black snake on the farm of Mr. Peter Newhard, near Trebleville, which measured six feet long and three inches thick.

COUNCIL has elected Charles H. Knous Assessor for the First Ward, in place of John G. Schimpf, resigned; and have confirmed John Miller as engineer of the Allen, appointed in place of Joseph Barber, resigned.

INDUSTRIAL PROGRESS—The two new additional factories under process of erection by the Thomas Iron Company at Hokendauqua, are being constructed thoroughly, and are steadily advancing towards completion.

We assure the Express that we have a high appreciation of the activity and efficiency of the Express Fire Department. It is undoubtedly one of the best in the county. In no case compared with our own, which extricates us without delay.

HEAVY RAIN—On Saturday last, Adam Strussler, a net at Mill Spring, near Leary's station, which contained among a number of fish an eel measuring three feet four inches long and weighing six and a half pounds.

RELIGIOUS—Rev. James A. Little, of Hokendauqua, preached Sabbath afternoon week at Bethlehem. Mr. Little is expected to preach in Allentown on the fourth Sunday afternoon of this month (May 26th), at half-past two o'clock.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION—We know of no Republican in the county who would represent Lehigh in the Constitutional Convention than Owen L. Schreiber, of Coplay, and we know of no one more worthy of the honor of the position.

PROPERTY SALES—Reported by Alderman Morris—William Jacoby sold a two-story frame house and lot of ground, situated in the Borough of Bethlehem, to Samuel Jacoby, for $3,000.

Frederick Zippert sold a lot of ground, 20 by 100 feet, on Ninth street, between Lehigh and Allen, to Henry Klotz, for $425.

CHURCHY STOCK is at a discount. Found to be a second order thought the Democrats do not see anything desirable in him as a candidate and the few Republicans who supported him see that it is to the interest of the country that the Republican party should not be defeated in the next Presidential election.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS—At a stated meeting of the American Home Company, held last evening, the following officers were elected—President, John Lewis; Vice President, D. Mickey; Secretary, A. W. Feltner; Treasurer, George W. Warner; Financial Secretary, Henry Koenig; Assistant Foreman, James Coffey; Trustees, Geo. Wagner, Henry Heist.

INCREASE IN THE SCHOOL TERM—At the last session of the legislature, an amendment to the school law was passed increasing the school term from four to five months in the year. Hereafter, therefore, no district will be allowed to keep its schools open for a shorter period than five months in the year. In about one-fourth of the districts of the State the schools are now kept open less than five months in the year.

A GOOD SUGGESTION—In a circular issued from the headquarters of the Grand Army of the Republic, at New York, by order of General Burdick, which announces that the 50th of May will be observed as Decoration day, the following beautiful suggestion is made which is well worthy of consideration: "In addition to the strewing the graves with flowers, it is suggested that they be planted with flowers and shrubs, so that, when we are gone, the seasons in their ceaseless round may, in our stead, attend the sleeping places of our comrades."

HANDSOME PRESENT—A. E. Moyer, of Highland Center, Bucks county, on Friday presented two handsome sets of tables to the Liberty Fire Company, with which to ornament their Fire Carriage. One represents Washington crossing the Delaware, and the other is a representation of Washington's camp at Valley Forge. Both the shields are handsome pieces of work and rest credit upon the artist.

NEW ORDERS—Spartan Council, No. 14, Mystic Band of Lehigh, has been notified by the First Ward, with the following officers—G. K. Reeder, W. C. Charles Rose, C. J. B. Whitney, Secretary; James C. Moore, Treasurer; Elias Ferry, Conducter; Andrew J. Eberle, Warden; Charles W. Weber, Tyler. Meetings will be held every Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, Hall, Second and Hamilton streets.

The State Journal states that there are seven banks doing business in Harrisburg, with an aggregate capital of $100,000. One of them the Harrisburg National Bank, has a capital of $50,000, and the State Bank with $100,000, is privileged by its charter to increase its capital to $250,000.

The banks of Allentown have a united capital of about $1,200,000.

One day last week a Greeley man visited a large carriage manufactory in Williamsport, and, after prating up the wonderful qualifications of Horace Greeley for the Presidency, requested that a vote might be taken among the workmen. It was promptly taken, with the following result: Greeley..... 28 Democrat..... 20

The purchase of the buildings and lots, Nos. 1 and 3 of Hamilton street, by M. B. Yarn & Co., is an important business move. The two lots are together thirty feet front and two hundred and thirty feet deep, and cost $22,000. Probably during next spring and summer, a store will be erected thereon, which will be one of the most extensive in the city and will be a grand improvement to that portion of Hamilton street.

LABOR STATE—The estate of the late Dr. William Wetherill, who resided at Fairland, near Fort Conestoga, Montgomery county, said to have been worth a half million of dollars, has a large portion of this, says the Ledger, was realized recently from the sale of valuable coal lands in Schuylkill county to the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company. Dr. Wetherill leaves no children. We understand that he made no will, or that none has been found as yet.

TIMBER DESTROYED BY FIRE—About six acres of timber were destroyed on Monday last week on the farm of Mr. Jonas Herber, in Welsch township, by fire. Mr. Herber was engaged in cutting up the timber, and the fire broke out high wind prevailing at the time, carried some sparks into the woods on the dry leaves, which caused the fire. The timber is burned to such an extent that it will grow more, and if used as fuel for iron works and used up as it is—Stoughton News.

THE ALLENTOWN FEMALE COLLEGE—The annual commencement of this institution will be held on Friday evening, June 29. The annual address will be delivered on the Thursday evening previous by Rev. Joseph H. Dubs, of Philadelphia. The College returns thanks to Dr. McDowell, Esq., of Stratford, for valuable presents of school plates; also, to Wm. R. Lawler, of Allentown, for framing the same.

SOMETHING ABOUT OPTICS—While Dr. Dubs' address was being given, a gentleman in the audience inquired for their perfect adaptability to every eye, the merit does not all belong to the material alone, which, of course, is of the best, but to the skill of the celebrated optician Dr. Bernhard himself, who manufactures and prepares the material, giving it the proper shape, convexity or concavity which each individual eye requires. In his room may be seen the various crystals in their crude shape, from which his lenses are made. It is for his peculiar skill in accomplishing this, that he is justly, in detecting the condition of every eye that he is called upon to fit, that he is so highly and justly praised should be in the report of all who have been benefited by his skill. Dr. Bernhard is at the Allentown Hotel, where he will be found for a short time longer.

We caution the public against unscrupulous persons who are selling cheap, representing themselves to be connected with Dr. Bernhard. The Doctor has no one connected with him, and his only place of business in this city is at the American Hotel.

FIRE INSURANCE—LOCAL BOARD OF UNDERWRITERS—At the Sixth Annual Meeting of the Board of Fire Underwriters held in the city of New York on the 17th and 18th of April, the vital importance of insuring property in the city of New York was the point principally debated, and the debate resulted in the unanimous adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Companies forming this Board should insure their property in the city of New York, and that they should be held to the same standard as the companies of other cities.

In pursuance of this resolution a meeting of the Fire Insurance Agents of this city was held on Friday morning in the office of the Mayor. The Board was organized by the election of T. H. Good, President; Charles Eckert, Vice President; R. Clay Hamerly, Secretary; Thos. E. Lelander, Treasurer. The following gentlemen compose the Executive Committee: Charles Eckert, Thos. B. Lelander and R. Clay Hamerly.

The object of the Local Board will be to establish uniform rates of insurance throughout the city and to have a cooperative supervision over all matters relating to Fire Insurance in this vicinity.

THE INVESTIGATION—A Committee designated by the Grand Jury appointed by the Court to investigate and inquire into an alleged report of Dr. Bentley in the report of the Commission on the Trustee of the City of New York, met at the Court House, on Tuesday, May 14, 1872, at 10 o'clock, a. m. Present—Wm. C. Cooper, A. R. W. Alney, and J. O. Taylor.

On motion of Mr. Alney, Mr. Reinger was appointed Chairman. On motion of Mr. Cooper, Dr. O. Sawyer was appointed Secretary.

On motion of Mr. Cooper, Dr. Weller was appointed a committee to inform the Commissioners and Clerk of the Court that the committee is organized and ready to proceed in the discharge of its duties under its appointment, and request them to convene at the necessary hour.

Mr. Engleman, Clerk of the Commissioners, appeared and stated that any books, papers, &c., that the committee desired in reference to the matter before them, are at the service of the committee.

A Journal, showing the Auditors' reports of the different county accounts, including the financial statements, was produced and examined. On motion of Mr. Alney, a. m. p. m. the Committee met at 4 o'clock, a. m. Present—Weller, Cooper, Reinger, Alney, Sawyer and G. B. Grand.

On motion of Mr. Alney, adjourned to meet on May 22, 1872, at 10 o'clock, a. m.

ONTHOLOGICAL—It may not generally be known that Mr. D. H. Kline, of Coplay, has captured the most magnificent specimen of the 1919 commonly known as the loon or great northern diver. Upon an analysis it was ascertained that it was no less than a royal specimen of the Colymbus septentrionalis or Colymbus polydora, which is the largest and most valuable of the species in our waters.

The chief element of the success for which it is sought is the strength of the purpose, when the cement is of good quality, to secure uniformity of the dry materials, to secure uniform strength, and the process is very simple, but laboring being required except for the carpenter.

DEATH OF THE CANINEAL DWARF—GAMMANSIA IN OUR MINDS—Baronum's Museum, Meigsburg and Hippodrome met with quite a loss Tuesday in the death of the notorious Canineal Dwarf, which occurred at the Pennsylvania Hotel, Allentown, on Tuesday last.

The death of this animal, which was a small dog, was a great loss to the museum, and the manager, Mr. W. C. Cooper, sent the "General" as he is called, to New York, to be cared for by Mr. Baronum's family physician. But the little savage, becoming restless in the absence of his master, was returned to the company. Like all of his race he had a native border of shoes and clothing, and even in the cold days that came upon the company he was not without his shoes and clothing.

He was a small dog, and his dress with his usual warmth. Yesterday the man in charge noticed that his fingers were constantly wet, and that he was dripping with water. He referred everything like food or nourishment, and apparently thought of nothing but his native land. Dancing and violent gesturing of any kind was always a source of great amusement to the company, and he was never without a good story.

A HORRIBLE SCENE—The death of this dwarf was a great loss to the museum, and the manager, Mr. W. C. Cooper, sent the "General" as he is called, to New York, to be cared for by Mr. Baronum's family physician. But the little savage, becoming restless in the absence of his master, was returned to the company. Like all of his race he had a native border of shoes and clothing, and even in the cold days that came upon the company he was not without his shoes and clothing.

He was a small dog, and his dress with his usual warmth. Yesterday the man in charge noticed that his fingers were constantly wet, and that he was dripping with water. He referred everything like food or nourishment, and apparently thought of nothing but his native land. Dancing and violent gesturing of any kind was always a source of great amusement to the company, and he was never without a good story.

A HORRIBLE SCENE—The death of this dwarf was a great loss to the museum, and the manager, Mr. W. C. Cooper, sent the "General" as he is called, to New York, to be cared for by Mr. Baronum's family physician. But the little savage, becoming restless in the absence of his master, was returned to the company. Like all of his race he had a native border of shoes and clothing, and even in the cold days that came upon the company he was not without his shoes and clothing.

He was a small dog, and his dress with his usual warmth. Yesterday the man in charge noticed that his fingers were constantly wet, and that he was dripping with water. He referred everything like food or nourishment, and apparently thought of nothing but his native land. Dancing and violent gesturing of any kind was always a source of great amusement to the company, and he was never without a good story.

A HORRIBLE SCENE—The death of this dwarf was a great loss to the museum, and the manager, Mr. W. C. Cooper, sent the "General" as he is called, to New York, to be cared for by Mr. Baronum's family physician. But the little savage, becoming restless in the absence of his master, was returned to the company. Like all of his race he had a native border of shoes and clothing, and even in the cold days that came upon the company he was not without his shoes and clothing.

He was a small dog, and his dress with his usual warmth. Yesterday the man in charge noticed that his fingers were constantly wet, and that he was dripping with water. He referred everything like food or nourishment, and apparently thought of nothing but his native land. Dancing and violent gesturing of any kind was always a source of great amusement to the company, and he was never without a good story.

A HORRIBLE SCENE—The death of this dwarf was a great loss to the museum, and the manager, Mr. W. C. Cooper, sent the "General" as he is called, to New York, to be cared for by Mr. Baronum's family physician. But the little savage, becoming restless in the absence of his master, was returned to the company. Like all of his race he had a native border of shoes and clothing, and even in the cold days that came upon the company he was not without his shoes and clothing.

He was a small dog, and his dress with his usual warmth. Yesterday the man in charge noticed that his fingers were constantly wet, and that he was dripping with water. He referred everything like food or nourishment, and apparently thought of nothing but his native land. Dancing and violent gesturing of any kind was always a source of great amusement to the company, and he was never without a good story.

THE scholars of the German Catholic Sunday School went out on a picnic Monday morning. They made a street parade, headed by the Allentown Cornet Band, which played delightful music.

INSURANCE—The troops of this Northampton county made a fine appearance on Saturday night. The Excelsior band, led by the Allen Zouaves, thirty three; the Allen Rifles twenty-nine; and the Selfridge Guards thirty-five.

INFANT BAPTISM—Six infants were received into the Episcopal Church, at Grace Church, last evening, Rev. W. R. Gries acting as the officiating minister. The occasion was one of solemnity and interest.

BITUMENVILLE DIVING PARTY—The stockholders of the Bitumenville Park Association held a meeting at Rittville on Saturday and elected the following officers: President, Dr. G. B. Linde; Vice President, George Edman; Secretary, George B. Schaefer; Treasurer, Dr. W. R. Gries; and Directors, Samuel M. Jones, J. S. Dillinger, Samuel Adams, Herman M. Fetter, George H. Miller, and J. R. Reicher.

THE stock of the company is very rapidly being taken, and as soon as the stock can be put in proper order and the necessary buildings erected, the park will be inaugurated, which will be no distant day. It is the intention of the company to enlarge the present track, and also to erect a number of new buildings and stands for hotels, restaurants, and other proper enclosures to give to this association it will be able in a short time to offer such premiums as will attract the best horses in the country. Among the most prominent and influential citizens of this and Lehigh counties, which, taken in connection with the excellent location of the grounds, warrant the expectation of a brilliant future for this enterprise.—Bethlehem Times.

SOMETHING ABOUT OPTICS—While Dr. Dubs' address was being given, a gentleman in the audience inquired for their perfect adaptability to every eye, the merit does not all belong to the material alone, which, of course, is of the best, but to the skill of the celebrated optician Dr. Bernhard himself, who manufactures and prepares the material, giving it the proper shape, convexity or concavity which each individual eye requires. In his room may be seen the various crystals in their crude shape, from which his lenses are made. It is for his peculiar skill in accomplishing this, that he is justly, in detecting the condition of every eye that he is called upon to fit, that he is so highly and justly praised should be in the report of all who have been benefited by his skill. Dr. Bernhard is at the Allentown Hotel, where he will be found for a short time longer.

We caution the public against unscrupulous persons who are selling cheap, representing themselves to be connected with Dr. Bernhard. The Doctor has no one connected with him, and his only place of business in this city is at the American Hotel.

FIRE INSURANCE—LOCAL BOARD OF UNDERWRITERS—At the Sixth Annual Meeting of the Board of Fire Underwriters held in the city of New York on the 17th and 18th of April, the vital importance of insuring property in the city of New York was the point principally debated, and the debate resulted in the unanimous adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Companies forming this Board should insure their property in the city of New York, and that they should be held to the same standard as the companies of other cities.

In pursuance of this resolution a meeting of the Fire Insurance Agents of this city was held on Friday morning in the office of the Mayor. The Board was organized by the election of T. H. Good, President; Charles Eckert, Vice President; R. Clay Hamerly, Secretary; Thos. E. Lelander, Treasurer. The following gentlemen compose the Executive Committee: Charles Eckert, Thos. B. Lelander and R. Clay Hamerly.

The object of the Local Board will be to establish uniform rates of insurance throughout the city and to have a cooperative supervision over all matters relating to Fire Insurance in this vicinity.

THE INVESTIGATION—A Committee designated by the Grand Jury appointed by the Court to investigate and inquire into an alleged report of Dr. Bentley in the report of the Commission on the Trustee of the City of New York, met at the Court House, on Tuesday, May 14, 1872, at 10 o'clock, a. m. Present—Wm. C. Cooper, A. R. W. Alney, and J. O. Taylor.

On motion of Mr. Alney, Mr. Reinger was appointed Chairman. On motion of Mr. Cooper, Dr. O. Sawyer was appointed Secretary.

On motion of Mr. Cooper, Dr. Weller was appointed a committee to inform the Commissioners and Clerk of the Court that the committee is organized and ready to proceed in the discharge of its duties under its appointment, and request them to convene at the necessary hour.

Mr. Engleman, Clerk of the Commissioners, appeared and stated that any books, papers, &c., that the committee desired in reference to the matter before them, are at the service of the committee.

A Journal, showing the Auditors' reports of the different county accounts, including the financial statements, was produced and examined. On motion of Mr. Alney, a. m. p. m. the Committee met at 4 o'clock, a. m. Present—Weller, Cooper, Reinger, Alney, Sawyer and G. B. Grand.

On motion of Mr. Alney, adjourned to meet on May 22, 1872, at 10 o'clock, a. m.

ONTHOLOGICAL—It may not generally be known that Mr. D. H. Kline, of Coplay, has captured the most magnificent specimen of the 1919 commonly known as the loon or great northern diver. Upon an analysis it was ascertained that it was no less than a royal specimen of the Colymbus septentrionalis or Colymbus polydora, which is the largest and most valuable of the species in our waters.

The chief element of the success for which it is sought is the strength of the purpose, when the cement is of good quality, to secure uniformity of the dry materials, to secure uniform strength, and the process is very simple, but laboring being required except for the carpenter.

DEATH OF THE CANINEAL DWARF—GAMMANSIA IN OUR MINDS—Baronum's Museum, Meigsburg and Hippodrome met with quite a loss Tuesday in the death of the notorious Canineal Dwarf, which occurred at the Pennsylvania Hotel, Allentown, on Tuesday last.

The death of this animal, which was a small dog, was a great loss to the museum, and the manager, Mr. W. C. Cooper, sent the "General" as he is called, to New York, to be cared for by Mr. Baronum's family physician. But the little savage, becoming restless in the absence of his master, was returned to the company. Like all of his race he had a native border of shoes and clothing, and even in the cold days that came upon the company he was not without his shoes and clothing.

He was a small dog, and his dress with his usual warmth. Yesterday the man in charge noticed that his fingers were constantly wet, and that he was dripping with water. He referred everything like food or nourishment, and apparently thought of nothing but his native land. Dancing and violent gesturing of any kind was always a source of great amusement to the company, and he was never without a good story.

A HORRIBLE SCENE—The death of this dwarf was a great loss to the museum, and the manager, Mr. W. C. Cooper, sent the "General" as he is called, to New York, to be cared for by Mr. Baronum's family physician. But the little savage, becoming restless in the absence of his master, was returned to the company. Like all of his race he had a native border of shoes and clothing, and even in the cold days that came upon the company he was not without his shoes and clothing.

He was a small dog, and his dress with his usual warmth. Yesterday the man in charge noticed that his fingers were constantly wet, and that he was dripping with water. He referred everything like food or nourishment, and apparently thought of nothing but his native land. Dancing and violent gesturing of any kind was always a source of great amusement to the company, and he was never without a good story.

A HORRIBLE SCENE—The death of this dwarf was a great loss to the museum, and the manager, Mr. W. C. Cooper, sent the "General" as he is called, to New York, to be cared for by Mr. Baronum's family physician. But the little savage, becoming restless in the absence of his master, was returned to the company. Like all of his race he had a native border of shoes and clothing, and even in the cold days that came upon the company he was not without his shoes and clothing.

He was a small dog, and his dress with his usual warmth. Yesterday the man in charge noticed that his fingers were constantly wet, and that he was dripping with water. He referred everything like food or nourishment, and apparently thought of nothing but his native land. Dancing and violent gesturing of any kind was always a source of great amusement to the company, and he was never without a good story.

A HORRIBLE SCENE—The death of this dwarf was a great loss to the museum, and the manager, Mr. W. C. Cooper, sent the "General" as he is called, to New York, to be cared for by Mr. Baronum's family physician. But the little savage, becoming restless in the absence of his master, was returned to the company. Like all of his race he had a native border of shoes and clothing, and even in the cold days that came upon the company he was not without his shoes and clothing.

He was a small dog, and his dress with his usual warmth. Yesterday the man in charge noticed that his fingers were constantly wet, and that he was dripping with water. He referred everything like food or nourishment, and apparently thought of nothing but his native land. Dancing and violent gesturing of any kind was always a source of great amusement to the company, and he was never without a good story.

A HORRIBLE SCENE—The death of this dwarf was a great loss to the museum, and the manager, Mr. W. C. Cooper, sent the "General" as he is called, to New York, to be cared for by Mr. Baronum's family physician. But the little savage, becoming restless in the absence of his master, was returned to the company. Like all of his race he had a native border of shoes and clothing, and even in the cold days that came upon the company he was not without his shoes and clothing.

He was a small dog, and his dress with his usual warmth. Yesterday the man in charge noticed that his fingers were constantly wet, and that he was dripping with water. He referred everything like food or nourishment, and apparently thought of nothing but his native land. Dancing and violent gesturing of any kind was always a source of great amusement to the company, and he was never without a good story.

A HORRIBLE SCENE—The death of this dwarf was a great loss to the museum, and the manager, Mr. W. C. Cooper, sent the "General" as he is called, to New York, to be cared for by Mr. Baronum's family physician. But the little savage, becoming restless in the absence of his master, was returned to the company. Like all of his race he had a native border of shoes and clothing, and even in the cold days that came upon the company he was not without his shoes and clothing.

BARONUM'S Canineal chew tobacco. Did they learn the filthy practice in their native country? A friend says they did—in New York.

TONY PARSON, the comedian with a world-wide reputation, will be heard with his magnificent troupe on Friday evening next. Quarters have been engaged for them at the American Hotel, the troupe making it a point to stop at the leading hotels in every city which they perform. The troupe is composed of some of the best talent and they should have a crowded house.

SHOULDER DISLOCATED—On Saturday afternoon the female Aze, at Barnum's, had her shoulder dislocated. Dr. E. G. Martin was called in and succeeded in reducing it. Some time ago the girl met with a similar accident and the physician was a half or three quarters of an hour in putting the joint in its place. On Saturday Dr. Martin accomplished it in a few seconds, by the process of manipulation, to the great surprise of the onlookers, who regarded it as a great feat on the part of the Doctor, but to show the advancement in surgical science.

A MUSICAL TREAT IN PROSPECT—In a few weeks the Seagraves-Richards Oratorio Troupe will give a concert in this city. The Director and Managers of the Troupe have engaged the well-known firm of Isaac S. Williams & Co. There need be no fear of not being thoroughly suited, as the circulars containing a full and accurate description of the Refrigerators sold by the well known firm of Isaac S. Williams & Co. There need be no fear of not being thoroughly suited, as the circulars containing a full and accurate description of the Refrigerators sold by the well known firm of Isaac S. Williams & Co.

A HEAVY HURRICANE—Barum took in $2,800 on Saturday. His express average about $2,800 a day, which, at that rate, would set him and his partners about a million dollars during the traveling season. The agent paid $240 for the express on Saturday. His express average about $2,800 a day, which, at that rate, would set him and his partners about a million dollars during the traveling season. The agent paid $240 for the express on Saturday.

GOING TO THE HUN—St. John's Commandery, Knights Templar, Philadelphia, will go on a visit to Boston next week. The Commandery will be received with all the pomp and ceremony that the Boston brethren can get up, and will return on the evening of the 27th, and will be accompanied by Dr. D. W. Martin, of this city, who will probably accompany them, as standard bearer, of the Grand Commandery of Pennsylvania.

BROKE HIS BACK—On Sunday afternoon, about four o'clock, a German named William Schindler, who has been in this country only six or eight weeks, was coming to the city on the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, and was struck by the train. He was thrown from the train and broke his back. He was taken to the Poor House this morning.

HANNOY may be a grand building, but if it is to be a grand building, it must be a grand building. Never, upon the appearance of a similar establishment in this city, have the streets been so densely crowded with people from all sections of the county, who were especially anxious to see the elephant. The elephant was brought from the East Penn. Railroad, being conveyed by a special train. The elephant was brought from the East Penn. Railroad, being conveyed by a special train.

ROD AT ENDS—On Monday a large pole was held at Enns, which was attended by people from various sections of the county, Allen town included. In the afternoon a fight occurred between an Allentown and a man from Trebleville. The fight was a rough one, and the Allentown man was badly hurt. The fight was a rough one, and the Allentown man was badly hurt.

WHAT WE SAW AT THE SHOW—Barum's, in the morning, was thronged with an immense number of people. Everybody went to get a good view of the elephant, and the result was a tremendous jam. The managers have strict arrangements and as soon as the crowds strike the ground they are put under discipline. This is a privilege in order that all may have a chance to see.

The first tent containing the horrid looking Canineal, the "What is it," which was written with her toes, Admiral Duff, the automaton bear, the "What is it," which was written with her toes, Admiral Duff, the automaton bear, the "What is it," which was written with her toes, Admiral Duff, the automaton bear.

Next is a tent containing the elephants, dromedaries and camel. These attract a great deal of attention. The menagerie occupies another tent and comprises many rare animals that have never before been exhibited in this country. The giraffe is about to be introduced. They have also a sea lion, wonderful things—seals, Bengal tigers, Asiatic lions, the rhinoceros, and a number of other beasts, which we have not time to enumerate.

The circus performance takes place in the largest tent we ever saw, capable of seating a great many thousands of people. The grand entrance into the arena, the dramatics, elephants and actors, is a gorgeous and magnificent spectacle. The circus performance takes place in the largest tent we ever saw, capable of seating a great many thousands of people. The grand entrance into the arena, the dramatics, elephants and actors, is a gorgeous and magnificent spectacle.

LIQUORIC RODS—A Philadelphia paper says the lecture of Professor John Wise on the subject of "Thunder bolts and lightning," which was delivered at the Institute on Thursday evening, brought together a large and appreciative audience.

After reviewing twenty-nine cases of lightning rods that occurred in that city last summer, and showing that the greatest loss of property took place under the supposed protection of the lightning rods, he concluded that the best plan was to place rods in other places. The destruction of the extensive pattern shop of P. L. Morris & Co., and the Kirk Woolen Mills, of Manassas, both in Virginia, caused a loss of over a hundred thousand dollars, and both these establishments were defended by lightning rods. He stated that small bolts of iron, when struck by a thunderbolt, will penetrate the lightning rods, and thus ignite the buildings.

He also reviewed three cases of lightning rods that occurred in Iowa City, Terra Haute and Indianapolis, where the lightning was communicated to the buildings by the lightning rods, and set fire to the gas, and then passed on to the city, but the lead packed joints bore and in the other two leaving nothing but a little drizzle in the streets.

The lecture was concluded by announcing the following as the conclusions derived from an examination of many cases during the last three years, among which were the building at the corner of Tenth and Chestnut streets, the Zion Baptist Church, the Columbia College house on Market street, a school building on 2nd and 3rd streets, a school building on 4th and 5th streets, a school building on 6th and 7th streets, a school building on 8th and 9th streets, a school building on 10th and 11th streets, a school building on 12th and 13th streets, a school building on 14th and 15th streets, a school building on 16th and 17th streets, a school building on 18th and 19th streets, a school building on 20th and 21st streets, a school building on 22nd and 23rd streets, a school building on 24th and 25th streets, a school building on 26th and 27th streets, a school building on 28th and 29th streets, a school building on 30th and 31st streets, a school building on 32nd and 33rd streets, a school building on 34th and 35th streets, a school building on 36th and 37th streets, a school building on 38th and 39th streets, a school