

The Lehigh Register.

ALLENTOWN, PA., JUNE 12, 1872.

FOR PRESIDENT, Gen. ULYSSES S. GRANT, OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, Hon. HENRY WILSON, OF MASSACHUSETTS.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR, Major General JOHN F. HARRIS, OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY.

FOR SUPREME JUDGE, Hon. ULYSSES MERCUR, OF BRADFORD COUNTY.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, Brigadier General HARRISON ALLEN, OF WARREN COUNTY.

FOR CONGRESS A LARGE, Hon. Lemuel Todd, of Cumberland, Hon. Henry White, of Indiana.

FOR DELEGATES TO CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION, Wm. M. Meredith, Philadelphia, G. Gilliam, Philadelphia, Gen. Harry White, Indiana, Gen. William Lilly, Carbon, Lin Bartholme, Philadelphia, H. N. McAllister, Centre, William Davis, Monroe, James S. Reynolds, Lancaster, Samuel E. Dimnick, Wayne, George V. Lawrence, Washington, William H. Armstrong, Lehigh, David N. White, Allentown, William H. Amey, Lehigh, John H. Walker, Erie.

GRANT, WILSON AND VICTORY.

We fling from our mast-head to-day the name of our National standard bearer, Ulysses S. Grant for President and Henry Wilson for Vice President.

The unanimous nomination of President Grant for a second term is the strongest endorsement of his successful administration and the best reply of the people to the slanders and vilifications of a few ambitious and disreputable men.

We all know President Grant. His name is a household word in every loyal home. In peace, as in war, he has fought for the perpetuity of our free institutions.

As he brought us to the Nation in the dark days of the rebellion and turned defeat into glorious victory, so he led the Nation from the cloud of uncertainty in which it was enveloped by the machinations of a bad man, and has restored confidence in our finances, raised the National credit, given peace and prosperity to the whole country, and made America a happy people.

We need not recapitulate the good that has been done by this Administration. It is felt by every man of business, by every farmer, by every laborer.

The prosperity of the country is recognized as the result of sound, practical, economical management of the Government and the careful, systematic and inflexible conduct of the finances.

The wise and unprejudiced acknowledgment of the importance of maintaining the present policy of the Administration. It has secured to the country innumerable blessings and no one who values his property more highly than his personal prejudices, will care to risk the consequences of a change and the introduction of untried theories.

This is one of the reasons that the merchants and capitalists of the country rally to the support of U. S. Grant, who saved the Nation in its hour of peril and has shown wisdom in the councils of the Nation and devotion to the interests of all the people.

Our candidate for Vice President is one of the few who have been fighting for the principles for over a quarter of a century.

Finally took the Union by storm and placed the immortal Lincoln in the Presidential chair. His name is written in letters of gold upon the pages of history as one of the fathers of the movement which rescued our country from the grasp of the slave power and made the Declaration of Independence something more than a mere form.

Like his chief, a strong Tariff man, he will be peculiarly acceptable to Pennsylvanians. Not a Tariff man who would leave the question entirely to the Congressional District and whose opinions upon that subject are to be changed as the Congressmen shift direct—but one who believes firmly in the doctrines of Henry Clay as the only means of safety to our country.

Mr. Wilson is a man of principle and what he believes to be right he will battle for, though he should stand alone and unaided.

He will be called upon to give the casting vote in the Senate on the Tariff question he will be found ready to stand between the country and financial ruin. No statesman enjoys a higher reputation for morality than Henry Wilson and his conduct has always proved to be wise.

With such a man for Vice President the country will always be secure from the danger of the elevation of an unfit man to the Presidential chair through the death of the President. Unlike our opponents we have a candidate for Vice President who will speak with pride in every corner of the country.

We can point to him as a National man, unencumbered by sectional prejudices, and who believes that his State has no interest in being put forward to the detriment of the whole people.

His name is written in letters of gold upon the pages of history as one of the fathers of the movement which rescued our country from the grasp of the slave power and made the Declaration of Independence something more than a mere form.

Like his chief, a strong Tariff man, he will be peculiarly acceptable to Pennsylvanians. Not a Tariff man who would leave the question entirely to the Congressional District and whose opinions upon that subject are to be changed as the Congressmen shift direct—but one who believes firmly in the doctrines of Henry Clay as the only means of safety to our country.

Mr. Wilson is a man of principle and what he believes to be right he will battle for, though he should stand alone and unaided.

He will be called upon to give the casting vote in the Senate on the Tariff question he will be found ready to stand between the country and financial ruin. No statesman enjoys a higher reputation for morality than Henry Wilson and his conduct has always proved to be wise.

With such a man for Vice President the country will always be secure from the danger of the elevation of an unfit man to the Presidential chair through the death of the President. Unlike our opponents we have a candidate for Vice President who will speak with pride in every corner of the country.

We can point to him as a National man, unencumbered by sectional prejudices, and who believes that his State has no interest in being put forward to the detriment of the whole people.

His name is written in letters of gold upon the pages of history as one of the fathers of the movement which rescued our country from the grasp of the slave power and made the Declaration of Independence something more than a mere form.

Like his chief, a strong Tariff man, he will be peculiarly acceptable to Pennsylvanians. Not a Tariff man who would leave the question entirely to the Congressional District and whose opinions upon that subject are to be changed as the Congressmen shift direct—but one who believes firmly in the doctrines of Henry Clay as the only means of safety to our country.

Mr. Wilson is a man of principle and what he believes to be right he will battle for, though he should stand alone and unaided.

He will be called upon to give the casting vote in the Senate on the Tariff question he will be found ready to stand between the country and financial ruin. No statesman enjoys a higher reputation for morality than Henry Wilson and his conduct has always proved to be wise.

With such a man for Vice President the country will always be secure from the danger of the elevation of an unfit man to the Presidential chair through the death of the President. Unlike our opponents we have a candidate for Vice President who will speak with pride in every corner of the country.

We can point to him as a National man, unencumbered by sectional prejudices, and who believes that his State has no interest in being put forward to the detriment of the whole people.

His name is written in letters of gold upon the pages of history as one of the fathers of the movement which rescued our country from the grasp of the slave power and made the Declaration of Independence something more than a mere form.

Like his chief, a strong Tariff man, he will be peculiarly acceptable to Pennsylvanians. Not a Tariff man who would leave the question entirely to the Congressional District and whose opinions upon that subject are to be changed as the Congressmen shift direct—but one who believes firmly in the doctrines of Henry Clay as the only means of safety to our country.

Mr. Wilson is a man of principle and what he believes to be right he will battle for, though he should stand alone and unaided.

He will be called upon to give the casting vote in the Senate on the Tariff question he will be found ready to stand between the country and financial ruin. No statesman enjoys a higher reputation for morality than Henry Wilson and his conduct has always proved to be wise.

With such a man for Vice President the country will always be secure from the danger of the elevation of an unfit man to the Presidential chair through the death of the President. Unlike our opponents we have a candidate for Vice President who will speak with pride in every corner of the country.

We can point to him as a National man, unencumbered by sectional prejudices, and who believes that his State has no interest in being put forward to the detriment of the whole people.

THE NEXT GOVERNOR.

The Democrat claim that they have the candidate for excellence for Governor. Well, he is a good candidate, but he will not make much of a Governor. He has some talent, is honest in advocacy of his hobbies, and all that, but he is not able to be Governor.

The next Governor will be a plain, substantial, honest, unassuming man, a gentleman representing the sturdy, Pennsylvania German element, and his name is Hartnett.

His unassuming political opponents throw out some very mean, cowardly insinuations against his honesty, while he has been performing the duties of Auditor General, but vague generalities will not deceive the people when they have the report of the Evans Investigation Committee, composed of leading Democrats as well as Republicans, which concurred in Hartnett's nomination for the office.

Then they have the fact that Hartnett has been elected by a majority of the people to fill the vacancy in the Auditor General's office, caused by the death of Dr. Stuebel, whose resignation Democrats did not know him to be an honest man they would not have voted to continue him in a position where, if he were a villain, he could steal more than he could in the Auditor General's office.

It will become the duty of the party now to cry out about Hartnett's dishonesty when they give him the strongest endorsement for integrity that any man has ever received. They know as much concerning his character then as they do now, and if they believed him to be dishonest they are responsible to their constituents for doing a great wrong.

But they do not believe in better hands and they mean to pay a deserved tribute to a conscientious official when they say so or forcibly than they could do in mere words.

Hartnett has another class of enemies who will set a lone straggler to defeat him. Democrats do not believe in an honest man, but the class we refer to would prefer him to Hartnett. It will be remembered that after the General assumed the duties of Auditor General he looked around to see what had been done and, unfortunately for his standing, he found that the late Auditor General had looked over his shoulder and discovered that some of them had not been paying up the taxes they owed the Commonwealth.

Why they were permitted to slip through we are not prepared to say, and Hartnett could not see any reason why they should go untaxed any more than any other corporations. He therefore sent in the Commonwealth's bills and the corporations growled eternal vengeance. They hounded and hawed, and even swore, but Hartnett wasn't a bit scared. The Rebels said he should not take Antietam Bridge, but he did take it; and these corporations, he did collect them, and the corporations haven't forgiven him to this day.

If Hartnett had not been an official that performed his duties without fear or favor, he would have let them slide and would have been, in their estimation, an honest man. Just the man they could use as Governor; but he did his duty and they denounce him as a rascal for doing it. They have had experience enough with him. They know he will make a Governor who will be incorruptible, whom they can use as they please, and whom they have not been tried. But it appears to the people will not be any the less in his favor because, by doing his duty, he has incurred the enmity of these corporations.

Our opponents will use every pretext they can scrape up against Hartnett. They can say that he is a leading Republican paper of Philadelphia, opposes him, but even the Press admits that Hartnett is an honest man. If Farney believed that his election to the United States Senate could be secured by Hartnett's election we have no doubt the Press would give him a hearty support. It does not oppose him because he is dishonest. It has admitted that he is honest. The people of Montgomery county, Hartnett's home, are enthusiastic in his favor. They have the best means of judging of his character, and if they did not support him he would be a poor man, but they do support him enthusiastically. Even prominent, honorable Democrats, who have known Hartnett from infancy, admit that nothing can be said against his parity of character. The Press knows this and confesses that he is honest, and therefore it is hard, indeed, to understand why the Press would oppose its candidate for Governor. But there is no use in discussing the merits of these prejudices. The people understand the matter and they will elect him Governor by thirty thousand majority.

We will be called upon to elect three Congressmen and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third. Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

THE PRINCE OF DEMAGOGUES.

The Mirror's Journal says: We consider the Hon. Hendrick B. Wright, of Wilkesbarre, the Prince of Demagogues in this State. He was elected to Congress from Luzerne by the Democracy after a number of struggles to secure a nomination. They got tired of his very soon and discarded him. He then turned up a Union man at the commencement of the rebellion, and the friends of the Union took him up and elected him to Congress, thinking he would do better—but they got tired of him and discarded him also; and then he turned up a Sambo, full-blown working man's lawyer-candidate, but after a great struggle he failed to receive a workingman's nomination for Governor or Congress, as the people of Luzerne county know his antecedents. Now he has abandoned the workingman and joined the old party in distress and is seeking a nomination for Congress, as the Democratic Free Trade Ticket. He has thus betrayed them also, and now he turns up as the workingman's greatest enemy, and a traitor to home and home industry. As the Democracy are ready to do anything to obtain power, they suppose he could catch some working men's votes, but the Convention that nominated him ignored the question of Protection in their platform, and therefore have ignored the most vital question, which secured good wages to the working classes in competition with the low wages of Europe; therefore, no workingman who cares more for his direct interests than mere party and office, can vote for Hendrick B. Wright for Congress, and the Democracy are responsible for doing a great wrong.

But they do not believe in better hands and they mean to pay a deserved tribute to a conscientious official when they say so or forcibly than they could do in mere words.

Hartnett has another class of enemies who will set a lone straggler to defeat him. Democrats do not believe in an honest man, but the class we refer to would prefer him to Hartnett. It will be remembered that after the General assumed the duties of Auditor General he looked around to see what had been done and, unfortunately for his standing, he found that the late Auditor General had looked over his shoulder and discovered that some of them had not been paying up the taxes they owed the Commonwealth.

Why they were permitted to slip through we are not prepared to say, and Hartnett could not see any reason why they should go untaxed any more than any other corporations. He therefore sent in the Commonwealth's bills and the corporations growled eternal vengeance. They hounded and hawed, and even swore, but Hartnett wasn't a bit scared. The Rebels said he should not take Antietam Bridge, but he did take it; and these corporations, he did collect them, and the corporations haven't forgiven him to this day.

If Hartnett had not been an official that performed his duties without fear or favor, he would have let them slide and would have been, in their estimation, an honest man. Just the man they could use as Governor; but he did his duty and they denounce him as a rascal for doing it. They have had experience enough with him. They know he will make a Governor who will be incorruptible, whom they can use as they please, and whom they have not been tried. But it appears to the people will not be any the less in his favor because, by doing his duty, he has incurred the enmity of these corporations.

Our opponents will use every pretext they can scrape up against Hartnett. They can say that he is a leading Republican paper of Philadelphia, opposes him, but even the Press admits that Hartnett is an honest man. If Farney believed that his election to the United States Senate could be secured by Hartnett's election we have no doubt the Press would give him a hearty support. It does not oppose him because he is dishonest. It has admitted that he is honest. The people of Montgomery county, Hartnett's home, are enthusiastic in his favor. They have the best means of judging of his character, and if they did not support him he would be a poor man, but they do support him enthusiastically. Even prominent, honorable Democrats, who have known Hartnett from infancy, admit that nothing can be said against his parity of character. The Press knows this and confesses that he is honest, and therefore it is hard, indeed, to understand why the Press would oppose its candidate for Governor. But there is no use in discussing the merits of these prejudices. The people understand the matter and they will elect him Governor by thirty thousand majority.

We will be called upon to elect three Congressmen and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third. Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the East, and we have, therefore, only two nominees; therefore the State Committee will be under the necessity of nominating a third.

Harry White is from the West and General Todd is from the Central portion of the State and the third candidate should come from the East. In justice to the candidate we selected from a minority Congressional District. The sixth, one of the heaviest iron, cotton and wool manufacturing Districts of the country, is badly in need of a Congressman at Washington who will represent the interests of the West and the