ENDORSED. Between Six and Seven Thousand People in Mass Meeting

As embled.

The largest demonstration known to have o curred in the political history of this Valley, took place at Easton Friday night under the au-pices of the friends and supporters of Grant, Wilson, and Hartranft. A delegation of 207 Republicans from Allentown and another of 208 Wideawakes from Bethlehem were in attendance and helped to well the numbers of a meeting numbering nearly 7,000 persons determined and enthus antic to ac cept the election of the entire Radical Republican ticket in October and November. The speakervere Hon. Glenni W. Scolleld and Gen. Chas. Albright candidate for Congressman at large, and ex-Gov. Poliock of Philadelphia, whom we had the pleasure of hearing in Allentown a few weeks ago ere listened to with absorbing attention through three hours and a quarter, being frequently applauded. On motion of Mr. Howell, Hon. Judge Maxwell was chosen Chairman of the meeting the houses in the vicinity where he could have and a long list of Vice Presidents and Secretaries read off. After a brief speech the Chairman ictroduced Hon. Glenni Scoffeld who said substantially as follows:

The Republican party has been in power for eleven years, during all which time it had originated every movement that was of benefit to the ountry, while the Domocrats held themselves in onstant opposition to every measure that was adranced. The speaker did not object to that, but low that some set of men had come forward and and endorsed all that had been done up to date but which, until accomplished by the Republican party, they had always uttorly denounced, instancing the war for the preservation of the Union, emancipation, and reconstruction. They now accept the restored Union, though they declared the var unconstitutional. They accept emancipation, hough they decided that we had no right to take he blacks away from their Southern masters and give them freedom, as it was depriving citizens of heir private property. They accept the recontruction of the States, though they declared that itter the war ended, Federal authority could not interpose in behalf of negroes or any one else liv ing under the local governments of the South. At the breaking out of the war the Democratic party had been instructed in the doctrine of State rights by Calhoun, the same thing being often covered up under the name of decentralization, and to which doctrine they still adhere in their learts, though by endorsing the Clucinnati platform they pretend to have mod fled their views somewhat on that subject. As a whole, it was one of the most disgraceful and boisterous meetings that the Democracy was ever blessed with in this part of the country Around the stand of course were quite a number of respectable citizens, en deavoring to listen to poor speeches; while in other parts you would see many congregated, swearing and drinking to such an extent, that a respectable man would have to look upon them with a " holy horror," and set them down in the worst set of political bummers" and Democratic hordes that the world ever saw. We sincerely believe that there were not less than two dozen lying about "dend drunk" in the fullest sense. Yes, they were so intoxicated that some of them were lying on the broad of their backs, with mouths open nostrils distended and the sun's hot rays plercing their bloated faces, causing a sight most borrible Their inveterate desire for drink and riot increased to such an extent that they commenced to fight among themselves in the most barbarous style—such as striking each other with fence-ralls and caner, and tearing the clothing from each other, as if so many dogs were fighting. It floally became so alarming that the cutire stand was deserted, speakers and all being out on the battle-ground witnessing the most disgraceful fight and the biggest "damper" on their otherwise "hyfalutin" meting. We say again that the fight was among them-'selves and not caused by "Republican rowdies," as one of their flock had the impude And no doubt if it would not have been for the almost super-human efforts of that one distinguished ndividual, there would have been such a shedding of blood and such a loss of life, that future ages would have to record it as Buckalew's Bloody
