Ayer's Hair Vigor,

decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the forma-tion of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Among the great discoveries of modern science, few are of more real value to mankind than this effectual remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. A vast trial of its virtues, throughout this and other countries, has shown that it does surely and effectually zens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERITY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Fulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publically known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attack of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often futal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of childhood, CHERITY PECTORAL is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts specially and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cared. ful Bronchius, when they according to the cared.

Originally the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, no cost or toll is spared in making every bottle in the utmost possible perfection. It may be confidently rolled upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever exhibited, and capable of producing cures as memorable as the greatest it has over effected.

The following circular address has been usued by the Democratic Executive Commit-

Louisville, August 6, 1872. DEAR SIR: Will you be kind enough to place this circular in the hands of a ctive Demperats in your county, who will at once com-nence an organization for the purpose of supmence an organization for the purpose of sup-porting the principles of our party as they will be proclaimed by the convention at Louisville September 3? The utter abandonment of principles as evinced by the coalition between the spoilsmen and place hunters in their at-tempt to elevate Horace Greeley to the Presi dency is a sad evidence of the demoralization and corruption now existing in our midst; and based as that bargain is, upon fraud and hypocrisy, the utterance of one set of senti-ments in the North, and another in the South, it must be repudiated and spurned by every man who has a spark of honesty in his heart.

There are hundreds of thousands who already proclaim their purposes of maintaining the Democratic organization at all hazards. The disintegration of the Radical party into two factions rengiers it self-evident that the Democratic masses can elect one of their own aith, instead of a lic-long enemy like Gree-ey, who still loudly asserts that he has never abandoned his principles, and points proudly ret to his record!

And such a record!

Can Democrats who have boasted that they support "principles, no men," agree to labsily their past life by clasping hands with the worst men of the Rauical party—Sumner, Schurz, Trumbull, Fenton, and the thousand other leaders who rally around Greeley, and would control his administration if his election—can e secured? Who are the men that thus se k country, and who have obtained the support of the trading politicians of the Tanmany school by a promise of dividing the sports? Without exception they are the sigots whose bitterness has been evinced for the past twenthe war which true Democrats denounce as ubversive of liberty and against the spirit of our institutions.

They are the men who have riveted the South in its chains, and burdened it with its inc. eased debts, the proceeds of which have gone into the pockets of the select few who have fattened upon the misfortunes of the people, and who turn to the new ring and the Buckalew, the Democratic candidate for Governor, served as a United States Senator from Pennsylvania from 1863 to 1869. It is well known-in fact, notorious-that all through the war his sympathies were with the rebels. He was a leader among the copperhead Democracy, that wing of the party which kept up a constant fire in the rear of the Union armies, by giving aid and comfort to the enemy He was not an open enemy, like Vallanding ham; but a crafty, politic adversary, who, whenever it was possible, would move in disguise and cover up his tracks. He was, to all intents and purposes, a rebel in the ranks of the brave men who were fighting against trea son. He was therefore a fit and trusted emis sary of the Confederacy-one who could be or the highest honors and emoluments of this relied on to impart any information that might damage the Union cause and help the rebels; one who was willing to consult with the rebel agents in Canada, and encourage them to persevere in their efforts to overthrow They are the men who have uttered the most unchristian, the most feroclous, the most villatinous sentiments about and agricultations the Southern people (women and children as well as men) during the war, and who have done combination whose acts were as treasonable most better the draft, and was the head and front of a powerful opposition in his own county—a combination whose acts were as treasonable nost to develop and pass that legislation since as was the firing on Fort Sumter. When men were most needed to fill decimated ranks, and conscription had to be resorted to, Buckalew not only tacitly counseled resistance to the process of the law, but aided and encouraged it by welcoming deserters and fugitives from forced to act he was always found helping the enemy, whether as a private citizen or a public officer. His record as a United States Senator is in complete harmony with his other acts. That the people of Pennsylvania may

Luck in the Oil Regions. Although we hear comparatively little, now adays, of sudden accessions to wealth by needy farmers, owing to oil discoveries on their farms, such as were common in the height of the oil excitement new developments height of the oil excitement new developments are continually making in the oil regions of Pennsylvania, and incidents occasionally occur which are as remarkable as any of those which created so much comment a few years ago. New oil territory is constantly added to the productive districts, and many vicissitudes continue to mark the fortunes of those programs in its development. The Titusville tudes continue to mark the fortunes of those engaged in its development. The Titusville Herald tells a story of a well lately bored on a farm which had been considered outside the bounds of oil territory. The experiment was described by the experienced oil men of that region, as "the wildest kind of wild-catting." But the men who had charge of the undertaking bored on with undiminished confidence until on comparing its denth with other wells. until, on comparing its depth with other wells, the surveyor pronounced it already too deep, and the old experienced driller who superin-tended the job declared there was no use in boring any deeper. Thereupon the proprietors sold out the well as "a dry hole" to a tors some time went as a kiny note to be party of operators who had a theory, and were willing to pay something for an opportunity of testing it. The well and thirty acres of land were bought at five o'clock in the afterand were bought at two o'clock in the after-poon, operations were immediately resumed, and the new owners proved the correctness of their theory by striking oil at eight o'clock on the same day. Before the tubing could be not in 700 barrels flowed. In an inconceiva-bly short time the news had unaccountably spread, and the fields around the well were filled with an eager, excited crowd surrounding country calling the supefied farmers from their beds, and paying them sums for their farms that they had never dreamed of possessing. Since this event the dreamed of possessing. Since this event the farmers in that region have become demoralized, and think nothing of asking $100,000 purposes would be dear at $1 000.

Salishony, N. C., Angust. 13.—In the Senate district comprising the counties of Iredell and Alexander, where the Republicans have gained 1,600 votes since the previous State election, the excitement is still at fever State election, the excitement is still at lever heat, and acts of violence are quite frequent. The residents are chiefly whites, and a thorough canvass of the district was made by James H. Foote and Thomas N. Cooper, the Republican Senatorial candidate. On Sundry lest, while Mr. Cooper was in church at Hol. by Springs, Iredell county, a mob of Greeley-i'es from Olin, armed with Clubs and platols, assembled at the place for the avowed purpose of killing him. He was escorted from church by his triends, and convoyed in safety to his residence, two m42s off.

Two days before that E. B. Drake, of Iredell, editor of the State sville American, who recently pronounced for Grant, was attacked near his office by a crowed of rufflans, headed by John Houston, and brutally beaten, in the sidence, two miles off.

At Bever Creek Township, in Wilkes At Bever Creek Township, in Wilkes County, a shocking affair occured at the close of the campaign. D. M. Furches, Republican, and "XX" Robbits, a Democrat, had made engagements to speak there—the latter in the evening. By 9 o'clock most of the Greeleyites of the township were in front of McNeil's store, armed with revolvers and knives. Among them was a man named Vanoy, who began to quarrel with Jonathan Stout, a Republican. Vanoy, maddened by the cooland passive behavlor of Stout, loudly swore that he would either kill him or eat his swore that he would either kill him or eat his breakfast in hell. He attacked Stout with a pole, striking him with it several times, and pole, striking him with it several times, and Stout retreated, facing his assailant as he did so. Vanoy then threw down the pole, and, kuife in hand, sprang at Stout, who, quick as a flash, drew his own knife, and as the two met, thrust it into Vanoy's breast. "The d——d rascal has killed me," Vanoy gasped out, and instantly expired. The blade had pierced his heart. Stout has disappeared, but it is believed that he will give himself up Tkere was no public speaking in Bever Creek after that.

This is practical work, the statement of which may not occupy as much space as some of Buckalew's speeches discussing points in Stuart Mills' theories of political economy, yet it is more satisfactory and comprehensive to the people than any long buncomb harangue. The effect of the work on the securities of Pennsylvania, is shown by the rate at which econom Pennsylvania, is shown by the rate at White State securities were and are now quoted in The Washington Republican is perm forward for Governor. THE WORK THAT HARTRANFT HANFTRANFT HANFERFORMED INNIX YEARS.

Gen. Hartranft, like the great party which he represents, rests his claims to public consideration and confidence, not on what he says, or what other people may say for or against him, but upon what he has done—what he has accomplished in the public service. He is to be judged by acts, not words.

During the first three years as Auditor General, by the direct sole good management of John F. Hartranft, guarding the public resources, and closely scrutialzing all expenditures of public money, the indebtedness of Pennsylvania was reduced $4,334,055.78.

During his second term, the reduction aggregated $4,771,388.52; making a total of debt reduction accomplished by Auditor General election would be a Democratic triumph. The copperheads already boasted that they "had a ring in his nose," and expected the Liberals to help steer him by his tail. If elected by Democrats, he would justly be controlled by Democrats. When General Hartranft took charge of the Auditor General's office, the debt of Pennsylvania aggregated $37,495,45.541!

At the close of General Hartranft's six years as Auditor General, he reduced this debt to $28,380,011.11; having, as already stated, is six years, without any increase of taxation, and with the tax on real estate removed by a Republican Legislature, paid NINE MILLIONS, NINTY FIVE THOUSAND, FOUR HUNDRED AND FORTY FOUR DOLL LARS AND ELEVEN CENTS.

Such are the results produced by the labors of a fai'bful and competent official, and such the merit on which we rest John F. Hartranft's claim as a candidate for Governor.—
