OUR LEADERS.

The Tribune, after giving a list of former Republicans who now support Greeley, says "The people are asked to believe all these men traitors to Republicanism of which they have been prophets, and to the Republicanpar which they founded and led. They are ask to accept instead of these traitons, as the only true men nów, and the rightful Republican leaders, Roscos Cockling, Simon Cameron, O. P. Morton, Zachariah Chandler, and Matthew H. Carpenter."

We will examine into the history of a few samples of the men the Tribune has put up to lead us out of the Republican party. There is Charles Sumner, the great hater, who was not appointed Secretary of State, and for this reason did everything in his power to clog the wheels of the State Department and render our Foreign policy a failure. Nathaniel P Banks, one of the greatest failures of the war William Sprague, who was a Johnson man John Hickman, who has not had the confidence of Chester county Republicans for many years; a Forney Democrat, and now unde call for assaulting a colored servant with a knife-of course he's for Greeley and Rebel restoration. Salmon P. Chase, who died r olitical death six years ago when he arrayed himself with Andrew Johnson against the Republican party-a man who was a candidate before the Democratic National Convention in 1868, and whom the Tribune has denounced for his apostacy time and again. Is he the kind of man to tell us when it is time to leave the Republican party ? If he is, why did not the Tribune discover it in 1866 and fol low him out of the party then ?

The Tribune also says that of the four surviving members of Abraham Lincoln's Cabi net, three ardently support the Liberal cause. POLITICAL CAMPAIGN 1

The conspiracy between Southern seccession-ists and Nothern copperbeads, of which very naturally Mr. Greeley is the tool and unfor-tunately, Mr. Summer is the endorser, and, I who are against it. The South has often announced—in the last Instance by the lips of Jefferson Davis—that the cause was not lost, and must be won by

On arriving at this point I had the pleasure of meeting General Lilly, one of the caudi-dates for the G-vern-rship, who was defeated by the Harrisburg Convention which nomi-mated General Hartranft. Believing that a gentleman of such high standing and worth would be apt to give a fair statement concern-ing the causes and effects of the nomination of Hartranft, I proceeded to interview the General, with the following result : Reporter-General, you were a candidate before the Harrisburg Convention, weren't you?

Yours, inquiringly, ALLENTOWN, August 12, 1872.

A Vite Stander. 9 Mr. Edutor: — In this week's issue of the Allentown Democrat I see an article so full of the Editor towards one of our best and most respected citizens, that I cannot withhold a few remarks. In order to advance political ques-tions is a necessary that an Editor publish all conversations indulged on in hotel stoops, corners, & ? I hold that even in a most ated political campaign no man or set of ren should lay aside their respectability or riendship as neighbors, or honor as men.

is it absolute to abuse, slander and injure a neighbor? Office holders expect their share of vilification, but what good does Mr. Haines seek by slandering Mr. J. L. Hoffman, who is from whom you are receiving your bread and Col. John F. Hartranft. EASTON, Aug. 14th. 1872.

CONSPIRACY IN THE SOUTH.

CONSPIRACY IN THE STOTE. Every impartial man who comes to us from the South bears witness that the mass of Southern whites are who ly unchanged in opinion, and ready for another revolt when ever the way opens. To put the slightest hill in protestations of copperheads and se-considurity much only to get office is build cessionists, made only to get office, is build ing on a qu'cksand. With the exception of Mr. Summer no leading lib ral republican ing on a qu'cksand. With the exception Mr. Summer no leading libral reput does really put any faith in these pro-tions. they know well the plot and for the suke of office they are willing to help it and risk the consequences. They know that Mr. Greeley's election means the negro surrendered to the pale of the Southern States, with no interfer-ence from the nation in his behalf; that it means the constitutional amendments neutralized by a copperhead Co gress, our debt tampered with and our bonds falling twenty per cent in every market. The Democrati millionnaire who is willing to risk this has already "hedged;" he holds millions of Con federate bonds and is plotting to make on them more than enough to pay four times over all he loses on the national securities, and then safely laugh at the small bondholders he has DECENCY.

Us in his place? HORACE ORBELEY. I need not tell you, my friends, what Hor-ace Greeley is. We abolitonists knew him only too well. In the weary years of our struggle he had enough of clear moral vision i had courage enough to confess his faith. If events had ever given him the courage he never would have had principle enough to risk anything for an idea. A trimmer by na ture and purpose, he has abused even an a American politician's privilege of trading prin-a ciples for success. But for hack of ability he would have been the chief time-server of his age. In ever knew 'ill now any of his euloi. A "LIPETIME ABOLITIONIST."
This is certainly news to you and me; you and I know well when abolitionist was term that the certain to net the wide distance between himself and us. You will find few truches from 1840 to 1840, willing to trust the negro race to Horace Greeley. Men laugh when some stirring and loyal sentence us duot from the Tribune of 1862 or 1863, and Horace Greeley immediately proves that he caudafters of the loyalty of the Tribune was smuggled into it in his absence or in spite of him. If his letters and communications to Lincoln during the dark years of 1803 and 1803 are ever published the confeder acy more unless he had enlisted in its ranks or taken a seat in its Cabinet.

Current data and the most prominent men of the state have hastened to congratulate him on his services, and honor him with compili. Every man of common sense sees that, of course, if copperheads and secessionists was there to meet "im, and instead of the dis-LIFT MR. GREELEY INTO THE WHITE HOUSE tinguished gentlemen who have been wont to crowd his quarters only a teggarily crowd of Greeleyites were on hand. The sudden realization of the terrible change which has come over his relations with the people of Massachusetts and their leaders was too much for his which and the plant has in protototic they will claim, and it is now understood that they shall have, their full share of shaping the policy and filling the offices of the administra-tion. They are no burglare, but shrewd at a bargain and sure to get good security for a promise. The corner stone of their policy is for his spirits, and to night he is prostrated and unable to receive any one at his apart-ments. It is the severest shock which he has to repuciate our debt or assume their own. We shall surely hear that advocated. We ever experienced, and it is exceedingly doubt shall probably BRE JEFFERSON DAVIS IN THE SENATE and certainly have his agents in the Cabinet. No doubt he will be consulted in the construct constituency.
