REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET. The Republicans of Lehigh county have done well in the selection of their County Ticket. Their opponents seemed to take especial pains to combine the obnoxious elements of the Ring upon their ticket and to select all the officers from Allentown, as though any one living outside our city did not possess the capacity required to conduct the affairs of the offices now under the control of the Ring. It looks like an insult to the 1200 Democratic majority of the country, but we must remember that "God made the country and man the city," and it is therefore a great compliment to the country people, it being a virtual acknowledgment that it was not safe to depend upon any representative man of the "Godmade" country to join with the Ring in the accomplishment of its purposes.

When we examine the Republican County Ticket what a contrast with the ticket of its opponents appears. In C. M. Runk, Esq., as delegate to the Constitutional Convention, the Republicans have a gentleman whose private character is an ornament to the ticket, and whose ability and learning will reflect the greatest honor upon our county in the Conetitutional Convention.

For the Assembly they nominated Dennis McGee, of Hokendauqua, and Edwin Camp, of Allentown. We do not know Mr. McGee,

For Prothonotary Wm. T. Breinig has been men in Upper Macungie and has had such ex perience as peculiarly fits him for the position. He will give Mr. Dillinger a hard run, and proted one another correst, by their uncertainty we advise the latter gentleman to handle his forces cerefully.

For Clerk of the Orphans' Court the Republicans have nominated Paul Balliet, Esq., of North Whitehall, in opposition to A. L. Rube. Let every good citizen compare the two men Ruhe's side of the scales far up into the air, vote for him.

good and efficient officer, and there are many Democrats who will be glad of the opportunity to vote for such a gentleman in opposition to Joseph Hunter.

For Register J. T. Hertzog, of Upper Macungle, received the nomination. Mr. Hertzog, if elected, will make a good officer, and we know the high esteem in which he is held by men of both parties will cause him to poll a large vote.

For Commissioner, Ephraim Sieger, of South Whitehall, was chosen, and we do not hesitate to say that the Convention might have searched through every corner of the county and could not have found a man whose experience, peculiar ability and popularity, were more fitted for the position.

For Director of the Poor, we have David Schuler, of Upper Milford, a gentleman of fine character, benevolent disposition and concalentious desire to do justice to all.

For Coroner, Daniel B. Wood is named. For the duties of that position he has had an experience that will enable him to view dead bodies without flinching and he knows what the requirements of the office demand. For Auditor, the Convention made an excellent selection in the person of Daniel II. Bastian, of South Whitehall, whose reputation office is undoubted, and whose popularity is wide spread. The people of the county, by this time, should see the importance of selecting a good man for this position, and we know of none better than Daniel H. Bastian. For Trustees of the Academy the Convention has done well in selecting Wm. S. Young, Esq., of Allentown, and R. Clay Hamersly, Esq., of Catasauqua. Both are made known before and active measures taken good men and well fitted to discharge the dutles of the position.

The vote cast in Maine this year is about 9,000 less than in 1868, at which time the heaviest vote ever polled in the State was cast. Therefore we must make comparisons with 1870 or 1871, on which we have a gain of 6,-000. The Republican gain over the vote of 1871 is twenty per cent., while the Democrat ic gain in vote is only sixteen per cent. This ratio of increase applied to the last Governor's election in Pennsylvania, would give us a majority of over 16,000 for Hartranft, which would be enough to elect him. The victory in Maine is overwhelming and shows the drift of political opinion sufficiently to base definite estimates of the result of the coming Presiden-

Nothing demonstrates the vanity of the Liberals more forcibly than the result in the Congressional Districts. Hale's majority at he last election was 1200.
