ALLENTOWN, PA., WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 16, 1872. SECOND ANNUAL EXCURSION TO SALT RIVER!

The managers, flattered with the unprecedented success of their excursion of last Wednesday, take pleasure in announcing to a confiding public that they are making extensive preparations to repeat their pleasure trip to the Saline Pond, which will positively take place on WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 6th.

Some of the gentlemen who went up last Wednesday, have gone into the show business, and on account of the large number of Democrats who were unable to see Buffalew previous to his departure from Pennsylvania, they announce that he will be exhibited on the above date, when the rest of the Liberals can have an opportunity of beholding him in a long list of the most wonderful political tricks.

"Whoever says this isn't Buffalew is a villain, a scoundrel and a liar!"

BUFFALEW Stands on His WAR RECORD

This remarkable animal, imported in 1861 from Ecuador, trained under Jake Thompson in Canada in 1864, and Re-formed by the Liberals and Copperheads in 1872, is one of the greatest curiosities of modern times. This is positively the only one of his species now in America, and as the climate was found distressingly unhealthy for such animals, the managers reluctantly and with tears in their eyes express their deep-scated disappointment that they were not able to exhibit him to the people of Pennsylvania for three years more, as faithfully promised. The managers offer as an excuse for the abrupt termination of his engagement there, that the unhealthy state of that climate admonished them that a delay might prove fatal, and they therefore were influenced by overpowering appeals from Salt River to exhibit in that salubrious land, where Liberals are Reformed and Democrats are at peace. This wonderful animal, so long worshiped by the Democracy of the Keystone State, has been secured at great expense, having cost the people $75,000 just for In addition to this rare attraction they have also secured the celebrated Minstrel Troupe, known as the Lehigh Congressional Delegates, who performed to crowded houses at Allentown and Norristown, and rightfully earned the reputation of

THE WITTE-EST MEN IN THE STATE.

They will be assisted by Carl Schurz, in his favorite song, "Where is that Deutscher vote!"

Complimentaries have been tendered to Horace Greeley, Andrew G. Curtin, Gen. Banks, David A. Welles, Mr. Halstead, and other prominent gentlemen, in Mr. Brown W.
