THE BURIAL OF WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17, 1907.

On Wednesday last, the mortal part of Washington, the Great—The Father of his country, and the Friend of man was consigned to the tomb, with solemn honors and funeral pomp.

A multitude of persons assembled, from many miles around, at Mount Vernon, the choice abode and last residence of the illustrious chief.

Between three and four o'clock, the sound of artillery from a vessel at the time, firing merrily, took the place of the band of music.

When the procession had arrived at the bottom of the elevated lawn, on the left of the Potomac, where the family plot is placed, the cortege halted, the music ceased, and the casket was lowered into the tomb.
