

LOCAL NEWS.

Circulation 2,800.

Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad.
Arrival and Departure of Mails.

The attention of the public directed to the following New Advertisements...

County Committee Meeting.
The Republican County Committee will meet at the Court House, in Beaver, on Wednesday, October 1st, at 1 o'clock P. M.

Cheapest Place to buy Goods in the County.
Hibbard's Rochester.

The county reunion is what the people generally called our fair last week.

Best Assortment of Goods at Hibbard's, Rochester.
Sept 24-2w

Go to Bence's Millinery and Trimming Store, Third Street, Beaver, for new goods.

Millinery Goods in large variety at Hibbard's, Rochester, very cheap.
Sept 24-2w

Rev. T. M. Reed and lady, of the Southville Female Seminary, were among the many visitors who attended the Beaver Fair last Friday.

Full Millinery. Hats, Bonnets, Ribbons, &c., at Bence's Beaver.
Sept 24-2w

Two extra new two horse wagons, for sale at Hibbard's, Rochester.
Sept 24-2w

Largest Stock to select from at Hibbard's, Rochester.
Sept 24-2w

A Specialty of ladies and gents woolen wear at Mrs. Beacom's.
Sept 17-3w

The number of officers employed to earn the belligerents and carry off the drunken ones were very few at the fair last week, as compared with former years, for which the local optionists deserve credit.

New Fall Hats, Bonnets, Ribbons, Feathers, Plumes, &c., all the new styles at Bence's, Beaver.
Sept 24-2w

To Save Money, buy goods of Hibbard, Rochester.
Sept 24-2w

Clothing, cheapest in the county at Hibbard's, Rochester.
Sept 24-2w

The school directors of Industry township, Beaver county, have elected Mr. R. Cassidy, of Washington county, principal of the Industry schools.

Men's and Boys' Hats and Caps, a splendid assortment at Hibbard's, Rochester.
Sept 24-2w

We are indebted to Mr. James T. Conlin and Bros., dealers in books and stationery, for a box of beautiful initial ruled paper and envelopes to match.

Mrs. E. H. Beacom has just received and now offers for sale the cheapest and most select assortment of millinery ever brought to this market.

Sudden Death. Mr. William Wagner, a former merchant in Freedom township, died very suddenly at his residence in New Sawmills township on Tuesday last week.

One Pair Merino Drawers and one undershirt for 75 cents at Hibbard's, Rochester.
Sept 24-2w

Mrs. E. H. Beacom has just received and now offers for sale the cheapest and most select assortment of millinery ever brought to this market.

Heartiest Muslim, yard wide only at Hibbard's, Rochester.
Sept 24-2w

Pure hair switches, only $1.00 at Hibbard's, Rochester.
Sept 24-2w

We were sorry to hear last Saturday, that Capt. J. Williams of New Brighton, had died of the day previous.

Mr. J. E. Welsh, of Chippewa township, left a hen's egg at our office a few days ago which measured 8 inches around the ends and 6 inches in circumference.

The Fair held in this place last week, was one of the most successful, financially considered, that we have ever had...

A Full line of hosiery at Mrs. Beacom's.
Sept 17-3w
Among the numerous products of home industry to be seen on the fair grounds last week we noticed nothing that was more deserving of praise than a number of parlor and cooking stoves...

Something for the Ladies. Ladies are hereby informed that they will find at Bence's store, Third street, Beaver, one of the largest, finest, and most fashionable stock of Hats, Bonnets and general Millinery Goods ever offered at this place...

Fathers and mothers, look out for your boys when the shadows of evening have gathered around you. Where are they then? Are they at home? at the pleasant, social fireside, or are they running the streets? Are they receiving a street education? If so, take care!

Pay Your Little Debts. A gentleman in whose good sense we have unlimited confidence, said in our hearing not long ago that the ability of nearly every man to pay his debts depends upon his ability to discharge a small liability often embarrassing a line of a dozen dollars and more.

Mormon Emigrants. The emigrant train on the Pennsylvania Railroad yesterday was four hours behind schedule, owing to the fact of its having left New York out of schedule time.

Joseph P. Johnston. Mr. Johnston was once a highly esteemed citizen among us, should not be considered as a stranger...

Mr. Johnston was fortunate in his choice, finding in his wife a woman of good sense, judgment, and energy of character. The great financial and commercial crash of 1837, followed by the disastrous years of 1841, '42 and '43, found him among the unfortunate...

People of all creeds are holding conventions these times. That may be expected as long as personal free thinking is indulged in to any great extent; but who would have supposed that a "Fat Man's Convention" would have been held in these "piping times of peace"?

Death of a Well-Known Former Citizen of Beaver. The types made as they last week that Capt. P. Johnston died at Fallston on the evening of September 21st.

Mr. Mattie McC. Brown, editor of the Alliance Monitor, who has been absent several months in Europe, arrived safely at home last Friday, one week ago.

Mr. Mattie McC. Brown, editor of the Alliance Monitor, who has been absent several months in Europe, arrived safely at home last Friday, one week ago.

Keep a special lookout for hall thieves, now that overcoats are in demand. The trotting race at the Fair last Saturday was won by the Magaw mare, and the pacing race by Copper Bottom.

Burglars about. Cold lead in demand. Keep your six shooters in a convenient place, and let the scoundrels have the full benefit of them.

Eleven sisters in Iowa are waiting for an eligible opportunity to change the name of Bullgreen, the only thing they have inherited from their father.

Mr. John Wilhelm, a former resident of Beaver county, but now of Allegheny City, ornamented the streets of Beaver with his genial countenance on last Thursday.

David Ewing, Esq., of Racoon township, has our thanks for a couple of squashes exhibited by him at the fair last week. If they did not take a premium, they deserved to. We are clear on that point.

Mr. Alexander Quay, who has been doing business in Mt. Jackson, Lawrence county, as a merchant, is about to close up there and come to Beaver Falls, where he will engage in a similar pursuit.

P. B. Conn, Esq., of the Steubenville, Ohio News, has purchased the Daily Herald of the same town, and consolidated the papers. The price paid for the Herald was $24,000.

Hon. Wm. McClelland, and John J. Henderson, Esq., the former a citizen of Lawrence county and the latter a resident of Meadville, Pa., have formed a partnership and opened a law office in Pittsburgh.

The New Brighton Band, under the leadership of Prof. Winter, discoursed excellent music last week in the fair grounds. This is one of the best musical organizations in Western Pennsylvania.

Mr. Lee Archer, of Washington county, one of the Democratic candidates for Assembly in this District, has a buck named Gold Drop, which cost him $5,000.

J. H. Odell, Esq., has sold the Youngtown Vindicator to O. P. Wharton, Esq. Both of the gentlemen here referred to are well known in this county.

What a Large Cash Prize Will Do. The $100,000 prize in the last drawing of the Kentucky Library Concert was drawn by a poor man in an interior village in Massachusetts.

The "Back Pay" Question. Here is a "back pay" item which is rather pleasant reading: A Mr. Elmore is one of the "old school" subscribers of the Kingston, (Vt.) Journal.

Splendid Dress Goods at Hibbard's, Rochester.
Sept 24-2w

Remnants of best prints at 8 cents at Hibbard's Rochester.
Sept 24-2w

Here is a little man with a long reach. A dwarf comedian known as "Little Mack," just 36 inches high, got into an altercation with a six footer in San Francisco, lately, and actually cut the top of his antagonist's head.

Advertisement Your Business. The man who advertises shows not only a business talent above his neighbors, but he may at once be reckoned among the independent, generous and public-spirited of the community.

Free of Charge. Call at Hugo Andriessen's Beaver Drug Store, Beaver, Pa. and get a sample bottle of Dr. A. Beck's German Syrup.

As soon as the financial crash of last Thursday and Friday was fully realized, the President and Secretary Richardson went to New York, and after a conference with the leading bankers there, they resolved to instruct the Assistant United States Treasurer at that place, to buy up all the Government bonds offered for sale in the city.

Gen. G. T. Benneford was considerably injured recently while visiting the famous battle-field at Manassas. His horse stumbled and fell catching the General's leg under him and bruising it severely.

Mountain Cake. To the yolks of six eggs, well beaten, add two cups of white sugar, three-quarters cup butter, one cup sweet milk, three and a-half cups flour.

Each can of the Banner Baking Powder contains a small measure to be used, even full, according to the directions.

Agricultural Implements. The competitors for the premiums, for this class of implements were quite numerous at the fair last week.

Mr. J. H. Christy, of Holt, Pa., has just returned from the East, where he has purchased a large assortment of goods.

A Forgiving Cook. A gang of 20 men, one of whom had lost $160, in Amity, Oregon, accused the cook of the party of stealing it.

Valuable Property Sold. A friend just from the Butler oil fields informs us that a 300 acre tract of land, located between Buena Vista and Fairview, was sold last week to Messrs. Vandergift and Foreman of Oil City for $30,000 cash.

MARRIED. JONES-JUDY. On Wednesday, September 24, at the residence of the bride's parents, 36 Locust street, by Rev. W. H. Gill, Mr. John Jones of Baden, Beaver county, to Mrs. Irene A. Judy, of Allegheny City.

PAYNE-BERNESON. In Brilgewater, September 22, 1873, by Rev. James M. Shields, Mr. Charles M. Payne of Allegheny City, Pa. and Miss Jane Berneson of Brilgewater, Pa.

LINK-GROVE. In Brilgewater, September 24, 1873, by Rev. James M. Shields, Mr. John Link and Miss Nancy Grove, both of Vanport, Pa.

HERE AND THERE.

Mr. J. W. Hankins, the genial boot and shoe dealer of Rochester, left for the East on last Wednesday morning for a new stock of goods.

Quite a number of "Cheetham Hines" men put in appearance at the Fair grounds on last Thursday, wearing their usual costumes, and a smile that was child like and bland.

A runaway horse attached to an open buggy caused quite an excitement on the Fair grounds last week. A young son of Mr. H. Dood's, of Beaver, was knocked down and run over by the horse and buggy, receiving some severe bruises about the head and face.

Pensions and Bounties. Soldiers and widows who fell in the service of the United States will save themselves much annoyance, loss of time and money by placing their claims in the hands of an attorney that is respected in the pension and bounty business.

Cash, Whisky and a Divorce. A lady in Salineville, Ohio, has brought suits in the Court of Common Pleas, under the Adair Law, against four liquor sellers of that place, for selling liquor to her husband, contrary to law.

Tina. Ohio, is slightly ahead of other towns of its size. It has two lawyers who belong to the female persuasion. They are named Florence and Nettie Croine, and are sisters.

Be Respectful to the Aged. Politeness to the aged, it appears, pays. In Bennington, Vt., there is a young man named Carr, who has been "uniformly kind and respectful" to an old gentleman named Cunningham.

Prominent Men on the Pension Rolls. We have some prominent, old, and wealthy men in this country who are drawing pensions from the General Government.

Mr. J. H. Christy, of Holt, Pa., has just returned from the East, where he has purchased a large assortment of goods.

Valuable Property Sold. A friend just from the Butler oil fields informs us that a 300 acre tract of land, located between Buena Vista and Fairview, was sold last week to Messrs. Vandergift and Foreman of Oil City for $30,000 cash.

MARRIED. JONES-JUDY. On Wednesday, September 24, at the residence of the bride's parents, 36 Locust street, by Rev. W. H. Gill, Mr. John Jones of Baden, Beaver county, to Mrs. Irene A. Judy, of Allegheny City.

PAYNE-BERNESON. In Brilgewater, September 22, 1873, by Rev. James M. Shields, Mr. Charles M. Payne of Allegheny City, Pa. and Miss Jane Berneson of Brilgewater, Pa.

LINK-GROVE. In Brilgewater, September 24, 1873, by Rev. James M. Shields, Mr. John Link and Miss Nancy Grove, both of Vanport, Pa.

SCOTT-REES. On the evening of the 21st of September, at the residence of the bride's parents, Brilgewater, Beaver County, Pa., by her grandfather, Rev. Jacob C. Miller, Mr. James P. Scott of Pittsburgh, to Miss Fannie M. Rees.

DIED. BRUNSON. On Tuesday morning, September 9th, 1873, Mrs. Lizzie Brunston, wife of Wm. Brunston, aged 35 years.