

THE BEAVER ARGUS AND RADICAL.

BEAVER, PA.

Wednesday Morning Oct. 15th 1873

ONE of the working members of the Constitutional Convention, writes us that it is almost impossible any more to get a quorum with which to do business; that the convention will not complete its labors for weeks yet, and he is disgusted with the Convention and much of its work.

THE Harrisburgh Telegraph well says that if the decision of Judge Acheson in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Mueller is right, and the Local Option law is practically a nullity. Men who want to sell liquor can set up a distillery and brewery in every town and sell at pleasure.

WHEN the members of the Constitutional Convention get through their labors at Philadelphia, if they ever do, they propose to go out two and two together into all the counties of the commonwealth in the capacity of missionaries instructing the people in knowledge and duty.

THERE is an earnest desire on the part of the people generally to see these gentlemen, and we hope the pilgrimage will be undertaken. The two that come to this county won't be neglected, and won't forget their visit soon either.

TWO members of Gen. Grant's Cabinet, Delano of Ohio, Secretary of Interior, and Robeson of New Jersey, Secretary of the Navy are anxious to obtain seats in the Senate of the United States as successors of Thurman and Stockton, Democrats.

IT is officially announced that four of the Republican members of Congress from Ohio are drawing salary at the rate of five thousand dollars a year. They are in a position to work for the repeal of the "grab" law consistently.

THE failure of Jay Cooke & Co., was entirely owing to the advancement made to the Northern Pacific Railroad, and the inability of the firm to dispose of the bonds of the Railroad Company. If sufficient money could have been secured to complete the road, Jay Cooke would have realized millions from this investment.

IT is time the government would dispense with the services of spies and informers or special detectives, as they are now termed. Hiring men to betray their fellows, to commit crime for the purpose of detecting it is wrong in theory, demoralizing in practice and contrary to the genius of our institutions.

THE execution of Capt. Jack and three other Modoc chiefs, for the murder of Gen. Canby, will convince the Indians that so far as they are concerned, murderers cannot escape the full penalty of the law.

THERE seems to be a very general impression that Hon. Roscoe Conkling of New York, will receive the appointment of Chief Justice of the United States at the opening of Congress.

DONALDSON started on his much talked of voyage across the Atlantic in a balloon last week, and there was a general feeling of relief.

out passengers, when there are no more that should have gone. If Donaldson had only taken a few members of the Constitutional Convention aboard, and left them when he jumped out, we could forgive him for the disappointment caused by falling to go himself.

HAVING robbed the Indians of everything they held dear or we considered worth taking, our policy now is to exterminate them. Their constant complaints are unpleasant and dead men tell no tales.

HON. B. F. MYERS and John W. Brown have severed their connexion with the Harrisburgh Patriot, and that paper will hereafter be published by the Patriot Publishing Company.

THE press of the entire country, says the Boston Journal, with singular unanimity approve the prudence and wisdom of President Grant in the recent financial excitement.

THE startling intelligence that three hundred and fifty deputies of the French Assembly have pledged themselves to support the motion for the restoration of the monarchy puts a far more serious face upon French affairs than was generally supposed to be immediately impending.

THE officials concerned are much troubled about the responsibility of hanging Mrs. Surratt and each is endeavoring to throw the blame on some one else.

UNITED STATES Senator Ingalls, of Kansas who has just returned home denies the reports telegraphed from Washington that he, while in that city, made strenuous efforts to have certain Federal office holders removed and his own particular friends appointed instead.

THE ELECTIONS! VERDICT OF THE PEOPLE!

Pennsylvania Elects Gordon & Mackey by 25,000 Majority.

IOWA WHEELS INTO LINE WITH 80,000 MAJORITY.

Ohio is Close, With the Chances in Favor of the Republican State Ticket, but the Legislature Probably Democratic.

The election yesterday passed off very quietly, not only in our own county but throughout the whole State. Gordon for Supreme Judge and Mackey for State Treasurer are both elected by majorities varying from 20 to 30,000.

In our own county success has crowned our efforts. This being the "off year" in politics, we were lead to fear an unusual amount of "slashing," but we are glad to be able to state that the whole ticket has probably gone through.

The Republicans of Beaver county may congratulate themselves on the victory just achieved, and the Democracy may make up their minds that hereafter their occupation in this county is gone.

POLITICAL.

General N. P. Banks is a probable member of the Massachusetts Legislature.

The Richmond State Journal says that many of the best white people in the State are in the Republican party.

The proposition to insert a theological clause in the constitution of Michigan has been rejected by the constitutional convention.

Hon. James W. Wadsworth, Governor of Utah during Buchanan's administration, died yesterday at his residence near Augusta, Ga.

The Republicans of the Third Massachusetts District have nominated Mayor Pierce of Boston, for Congress, to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Whiting's death.

The Constitutional Convention of Michigan has declined to admit the eligibility of women to any public office whatever excluding them even from the School Boards.

A strong effort is being made in Massachusetts to induce Governor Washburn to pledge himself, in case of re-election, not to sign any bill modifying the existing prohibitory law.

Alexander H. Stephens and Herschel V. Johnson propose starting a new daily paper in Washington on the first of December, to advocate the refunding of the cotton tax. Don't they wish they may get it?

At the Republican State Convention recently held at Dallas Judge M' Cowan introduced himself as follows: I am Judge M' Cowan the old bar of the Brazos bottom, the father of twenty four children born in lawful wedlock, and the grand father of forty-six grandchildren.

The New York Democratic State Convention met on Wednesday last, and Horatio Seymour was chosen permanent President. In taking the chair he made a speech recommending affiliation with the Liberals.

The people of California, in order to have the election of judges removed as far as possible from political influence, have agreed upon a constitutional amendment providing that a special election shall be held for Judges of the Supreme Court.

It does not seem to be generally known that the national banking act contains a section by which every stockholder is responsible at law for double the amount of stock owned by him.

It seems difficult to keep the members of the Constitutional Convention up to their work of Constitution-making. They persist in running away to attend to other matters.

Gen. Butler is not dead, nor yet is he sleeping. He is already announced by the newspapers in his interest as a candidate for Governor of Massachusetts, at the next election for that office.

Governor C. C. Washburn, who is again a candidate for re-election in Wisconsin, opened the State campaign by an able speech in Fond du Lac on last Friday night.
