

-Nothing seems to "pay" these times, hereabouts, unless we except our county fair. That brought in cash both swift and plenty.

John C. Christy, Esq., of Racoon township, has just done up Philadelphia and Washington City. He reports both of them as thriving villages, and represents them as having sights worth looking at.

The Miss Delia Collins, whose marriage was announced in last week's ARGUS AND RADICAL, was not as stated, the daughter of the late John Collins, esq., formerly of this county.

-Squirrels are said to be very plenty in the woods in the vicinity of Hookstown. Some of our hunters went down there a week or so ago and returned with about as many squirrels as they could carry.

Beaver county stands third in the list of the wool producing counties in the State. Washington county taking the lead with 1,872,782 pounds, Greene following with 444,489 pounds and Beaver third with 421,905 pounds.

Mr. Charles E. Johnston, a former resident of this place, has moved to St. Augustine, Florida, where he intends growing oranges, and other fine fruits adapted to that climate.

-If any of our readers wish to know where "Brady's Leap" occurred, and when they can ascertain the facts by reference to another page in the ARGUS AND RADICAL. Judge Hampton, of Pittsburgh, tells the story.

Persons knowing themselves indebted to either the Argus or the Radical, or to both, on subscription, are earnestly requested to call at this office and settle up until September 10, 1873 at least.

-It is said that Beaver county has a scribe member of one of our Orthodox churches who "not long since" recommended the Christian religion to a neighbor on the ground that he had been a church member himself "for fifteen years and it hadn't cost him but 124 cents."

-Oregon Wilson, a son of the late Dr. R. A. Wilson of Pittsburgh, died in California a couple of weeks ago. The deceased was an artist of fine reputation. His father, we believe, was a native of this county, and a student at one time in the office of the late Dr. Milo Adams of Beaver.

-We hear of a colored woman in Beaver who maintains herself and child by washing, and puts $10 per month, regularly into one of our banks besides. Her example ought to be followed by other colored people hereabouts, and those who are not colored might do as she is doing with no detriment at all to themselves and families.

Comparatively few are aware of the magnitude and beauty of the new buildings just erected at this institution, its complete appointments for educational purposes, and the superior facilities for imparting thorough instruction and home comforts to the pupils.

The College year opens auspiciously, the attendance being much larger than ever before, with prospects of many more students. Parents and guardians who intend to send their children or wards, will do well to have them enter classes at once.

Free of charge, - call Tugo Andriessen's Beaver Drug Store, Beaver, Pa. and get a sample bottle of Dr. A. Bock's German Syrup. It is said he will be introduced in this country from Germany, and for persons suffering with a severe cough, heavy cold settled on the breast, consumption or any disease of the throat and lungs it has no equal in the world.

A mere outline of its proportions and excellencies, is all that is possible now to give some idea of its superior claims, for imparting an education equal to other institutions before the public.

The editor tried to make an apology and explain patent insides, but the countrymen don't understand patent insides, and won't. All they understand is that the above paragraph was in the Bucyrus Forum, and that the Bucyrus Forum is recommending Bill Allen for a fog-horn on the picyanish coast of Rhode Island.

Receiving every day by express from the east to be sold below Pittsburgh prices. Lap robes, horse blankets, from $50 to 20, Zinc pads for sore necks, wood combs, Hazard hampes, and everything in my line that you can ask for I have.

Well, that's important, you will say. Health and life are, consequently, of great value, but the cost money, well, what's it supposed to be? are they not worth the outlay? If life and health were of no value it might be well enough to slip the case to run to the end is a hurry, and try, suffer on and take care of the other.

Another Article Suppressed. - Associated with the earlier recollections of a great many men and women is the memory of the bath brick and emery stone wherewith the knives and forks, and pans and kettles and other kitchen articles were so often "scoured up." That primitive mode prevails to-day in thousands of families who have never used Sapolio.
