

A JOB OF WOOD SAWING.

"It's no joking matter, Mr. Allaire," said Miss Jemima Pendexter. "Of course it isn't, Jemima," said Mr. Allaire, rather more soberly than he had spoken before. "But if you come to that, isn't it a deal jollier, and just as cheap, to laugh as to cry?"

"Let her go," said Mr. Allaire to himself, "what do I care?" But as an open barouche rolled by, and a stick of viciously minded wood spurs from the rindling stroke of the axe directly into the velvet cushioned seat, opposite a tall, white-haired old man, who sat there in dignified state, our hero looked up apologetically.
