

THE NATIONAL

Published every Friday morning, except on public holidays, at the office of the National, No. 100 North Second Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

LOCAL NEWS.

The south side of Spring street is looking up. Dr. Mitchell's new house is under foot and fast approaching completion.

Mr. Bush's new brick tenement houses are going up rapidly. Mrs. Livingston has a small, neat brick house up to the second story, and the Presbyterian church here is nearly ready in all places.

The notices of new books and papers received will appear in our next issue.

The office of Judge Shiloh is still offered for sale. A fine bargain can be secured by applying early.

With our friends throughout the country and State send short communications of local interest.

Prof. Saxton, the musician and slight of hand performer, has been very seriously ill in the Brookerhoff house, in this place, for the past week.

Chas. & Malin's provision stand in the Diamond, is a great convenience in our community, and should be well patronized. Fresh fish, oysters, &c., on hand constantly.

Paper bag and tallow candle carriers take notice! The highest cash price will be paid by any of our butchers for tallow, and by any of our merchants for damaged paper.

Col. Theodore Gregg has been appointed travelling agent of the NATIONAL in this county. He is authorized to solicit subscribers, and receipts for all monies received.

A friend from Milesburg informs us that the "cops" and paper bag men of Boggs, are terribly demoralized.

Boggs promises three hundred majority for Grant.

Mr. Thomas Roberts, a celebrated lecturer will deliver a Temperance lecture in the Court House, this evening. Let all friends of Temperance attend. It is free to all.

It is understood that Mr. Shively, dairyman, intends quitting the business. Here, now, is an opening for some energetic farmer. It is a good paying business, and some person should take it in hand.

A Board walk has been erected on Bishop Street, along side of W. Brown's residence which faces the Academy building office of access.

This is an improvement long needed.

The first snow of the season fell last Friday morning. At Hannah Furnace the ground was covered to the depth of an inch. The weather for the past has been cold and disagreeable.

We have heard nothing lately of the chine of bells to be procured for the Presbyterian Church. 'Twould be a pity to have this matter drop. Let us have a chime in town, by all means.

STEVEN'S Theatre will open in Bush's Hall, on Monday the 26th inst. Crowded houses are expected and persons who desire to see and hear the performance should provide themselves with a reserved seat season ticket.

The Episcopalians are about awarding the contract for building their new church. They have a beautiful plan drawn by J. C. Sidney, Esq., and are going on at once to build. They will build of limestone with brown stone trimmings. We wish them great success.

The Transparencies which have graced the Watchmen office windows since their grand faze of Friday night, are certainly an ornament to that part of Allegheny street. Wonder why they don't light them up? The light is all out of their lamps since election day.

If there is no thorough ordinance requiring owners of houses to keep in repair the pavements in front of their property, there should be, and that soon. The pavements of this town, are in about as dilapidated condition as one could wish imagine. They are really dangerous to walk upon after night fall.

WILL our friends in town and throughout the county be kind enough to keep us posted on events transpiring in their midst. These should not be a limb broke, barn or dead tree place, that the news of which should not be so transmitted to this office. Give us news of any kind, so that it is reliable.

WHAT has become of the brass band which afforded such efficient aid to our Democratic brethren during the former part of the campaign? Have supplies ceased? Has the music fallen for the chase of the Bets? Come, gentlemen, let us have at least a whistle to keep your courage up.

ACCIDENT—OFFICIAL RETURNS.—The official returns, set in tabular form, were unaccountably pld a few moments before going to press. They will appear in our next. We give, in brief, the names of the different candidates majorities: Boyle, 277; Ent, 275; Mayer, 302; Mackey, 454; Meek, 312; Sittler, 302; Bing, 400; Rabel, 301; Mitchell, 425.

THE HAMP—Meek—Byrd—difficultly over the ground fencing Mr. Bush's Hotel building has been finally settled by Mr. Bush buying the whole plot, with the exception of that part taken by Mr. Meek. The last named gentleman will have his printing office ready for occupancy the end of January. Mr. Bush will have the Spring, erect another large brick building.

THIS season for surprise party is near at hand. This good old custom dates from the time of the republicans in other sections of this State. Why they have gone out of vogue in Centre county, is to us unaccountable. That they afford pleasure and amusement, no one will deny. At the same time, persons in moderate circumstances, by these parties, through the pleasure of entertaining their friends, at a cost within their means.

COL. Theodore Gregg will, by request, deliver an address to the citizens of Centre county, on Saturday, Oct. 31st, at the services of Gen. Grant during the Mexican war from personal recollections while serving in the 4th U. S. Infantry, under our gallant standard bearer. Commencing at the stage of Venetia, he will give a brief account of the marches to the conquest of the city of Mexico, also personal recollections of the late rebellion.

OUR STRAZZERS—We deem it our duty to request journalists to direct attention to whatever may be wrong in the conduct of our borough affairs, whenever we can suggest an improvement. Our people pay street tax in sufficient amount to insure good and clean streets, and yet the majority of our streets are in a condition of horror, and are a disgrace to a town which any municipal government whatever.

Allegheny street from High to Howard is littered with stones and rubbish, some of which has lain there for two full years, and which, from present appearances, will remain so much longer. One man with a horse and cart would, or could haul that part of Allegheny street thoroughly in two hours. Whose fault is it? We must look to the town council. The remedy is with them. Let them apply it.

WEIN FOSTER, Esq., editor of the Harrisburg State Guard paid our office a visit last Monday. As is the case with all visitors to Bellefonte, he was struck with the wonderful improvements we have made within the past few years. He says there will be no town or city in the State that will begin to compare with us in this respect. This should give our capitalists renewed energies to keep on in the good work of improving and adding to the already beautiful appearance of Bellefonte. At the same time, they labor earnestly to attract manufacturing interests and men of capital here. Without these we shall never reach our expectations; neither will the money now being invested in magnificent residences ever pay for the investment. We challenge any town in the State to offer the same inducements to men of capital, that we are now offering here.

THE NEW PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—If any one wants to see a difference between a good building and a poor one, let him examine the brick, or red sand stone of which the new Presbyterian church is being built. Enough of the water-tail and of the smaller tower has been laid to give some idea of the appearance the building will present when completed. The color is one of the softest, most delicate, and agreeable to the eye that we have ever seen. The grain of the stone admits of fine dressing, and under the direction of Mr. Yeager, who has taken the contract for the cutting, this part of the work will be well done.

It is not expected now to get the building under roof before winter. The door and window frames will not be set up this year. The walls will be carried up to the eaves and then covered over till spring. Between the cut stone and wood work will be thoroughly packed, so that the building can be run up without delay when the next building season opens. The contractors, the Messrs. Hughes, have shown great energy and skill in their work to this far, and mean to erect a building that will be credit both to themselves and to the borough.

THE JUBILEE.—The men who assisted on Tuesday last week in reducing the Democratic majority in Centre county, met to-day to consider the means of doing so in the future. The success of their efforts. Delegations from Zions and Milesburg were present to share in the glory.

The programme consisted of a torch-light procession, music, speeches, and a general singing. After the parade the several companies in attendance, were massed in front of the Republican headquarters and were there entertained by Messrs. Hutchison, Brown, Coym, Holohan and Love. Loud and frequent calls were made for Judge Linn, Gen. Beaver, Frank Stephens, and such other notable figures in the ability of the orators to entertain the audience, that they failed to respond. All present were encouraged by a review of the situation, and then and there renewed their determination to struggle for a complete triumph at the November election. Mr. Feltman, whom we have mentioned as one of the speakers on the occasion has been doing good service for the right in Bedford county, where he has succeeded in calling down upon himself the abuse in which Democratic journalism there as well as elsewhere so much indulges. He was enthusiastically engaged in the office of Mr. Coym, and his presence on Friday night last, to the political cause of that gentleman brought forth such rounds of applause as must convince Mr. Coym that the men of Centre are not ungrateful of those who labor for the principle they cherish.

The whole affair passed off pleasantly, and serves to mark another advance toward the speedy and complete demolition of the Democracy in this county.

We desire to correct a wrong impression that seems to have taken upon the minds of some of our citizens, by parties who always take a lively interest in the progress of the truth; in fostering local divisions and petty strife. We blush for our common humanity, when we acknowledge that in speaking of the late meeting, we have said that we have seen, have for some days past been laboring assiduously to persuade our Catholic fellow-citizens that a positive insult was intended them by the Tanners who paraded Bishop street on the occasion of the jubilee, which took place on Friday evening last. The facts and details are as follows: The Tanners organized for this place met on Friday evening last for parade, and as has been their custom during the campaign, marched down Allegheny street to Bishop, and will on the 29th inst. parade up to the academy building, and then acting as marshal on the occasion, received intelligence that the Zion delegation was up on Bishop street, near the Catholic church, and he immediately accompanied each of his men, and formed connection with them on Allegheny street, where a hall of the Zion delegation was being given for the Zion Tanners. Three cheers and a tiger then was proposed and given for the Zion Tanners. Now the tiger, which crowds usually follow cheers, was easily seized upon by the mischief-makers of the town, and instead of a cheering shout intended for Mr. McGovern, and the members of his church, Mr. McGovern, the Catholic priest living in our midst, is a gentleman universally respected by our people, and we can but regret that a wrong impression has been made upon his mind. We have conversed on the subject with some Democrats who may be said to be "the strictest of their sect," and who find it so difficult to overcome their party prejudice, that while they say they know no insult was either given or intended, yet they propose to make a public apology to the Zion delegation. We can only hope that our Catholic friends will have the magnanimity to do their own thinking on the matter.

THE ACADEMY.—The old Academy property is beginning to show signs of renewed youth. A new porch has been constructed in front of the middle section of the building, extending over the entire space between the two wings, a length of over sixty feet. The windows have all been renewed in the declining part of the material. The whole interior is being put on a new plan. When these improvements are completed, the middle section will form a very comfortable, and as truly a means of educating the pupils as the direct instructions of the school. Whatever tends to cultivate the taste has a refining influence on the heart. The design and execution of the porch is worthy of the manners, which is but a fitting preparation for morals.

mean affected and fashionable airs, but refinement joined with good common sense. It should be the aim in all schools to train boys and girls into gentlemen and ladies. And this branch of training has always been carried on by indirection; that is to say, by associations, rather than by direct precepts or rules. Pupils must have examples of gentleness and ladylike conduct in their teachers, and so far as possible in their fellow pupils. They should have neat, orderly, and healthy surroundings in the school room, and their ornamentation would be still better. But it should be tasteful, not crude, or senseless, or gaudy; not even such as the pupils themselves would choose, and which would merely express their own taste; but something that will lead their taste, and elevate it. If pictures are hung before their eyes, they should be genuine works of art, not shilling prints with venerated frames, which they may learn to appreciate the beautiful, and be able to see a difference between a good picture and a poor one. The furniture of the room should be of the character, of good pattern, of good material and workmanship. All such things have a salutary effect upon a school. Unconsciously the pupils are led into more discriminating taste, and orderly and manly habits. At the same time, the most decided difference between the boys and girls that have day by day been subjected to such associations, and those who get their training in schools where no attention is paid to such things.

A substantial building has been constructed from the end of Bishop street to the face of the hill, mounting the lower part by short flights of steps, and curving round the edge of the excavation in the hill. A good railing guards the side next the excavation against accidents from falling and forming a very slight improvement upon the grounds. The grounds are to be fenced in immediately, and when thus rendered more private, they can be improved to better advantage.

The full plan of ornamenting the front and rear of the building, including the dormer windows, new cupola, &c., will not be carried out this season, partly for want of money and partly because it is expected that a third story will have to be added one long to the building, and then the whole plan to be completely re-arranged.

We are happy to know that the new principal, the Rev. Mr. Hughes, is proving himself worthy of his high reputation as an instructor, and is giving the greatest satisfaction to both pupils and parents. Any one visiting the school during study hours, can readily see the confidence of the pupils in the Rev. Mr. Hughes, who is proving himself worthy of his high reputation as an instructor, and is giving the greatest satisfaction to both pupils and parents.

THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD.—We esteem to be the greatest industrial project of the age, and which the nation may well be proud. More than 15,000 men are engaged in its construction, and the work is progressing rapidly. It is expected that it will be completed in a few months, and will be a great benefit to the country.

THE BARLEY SHEAF.—It is beyond all doubt the best and most valuable article of food that we possess. It is a staple article of our diet, and is used in a great variety of ways. It is a healthy and nourishing food, and is well adapted to the climate of this country.

THE WEDNESDAY, Oct. 14th 1868.
