

THE NATIONAL

FRIDAY MORNING, DEC. 18, '68. On and after January 1st, 1869, no paper will be issued from this office, unless the subscription price ($3.00 per annum) be paid in advance.

ANY of our subscribers receiving a paper marked with an X will understand that the time of their subscription to this journal will expire in two weeks from the date of the receipt of the paper.

It is expected that parties ordering job work will be prepared to settle their bills on the delivery of work. At the prices being now with us, the profit is small, being only a few cents on each copy.

FOR GOVERNOR, JOHN W. GEARY.

EDITORIAL ATTENTION.—A convention of the editorial fraternity of Central Pennsylvania, will be held at Harrisburg, on Friday the 23d of January, 1869, for the purpose of celebrating the anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg.

The above call for a fraternal convention, is being widely circulated; and it is confidently expected, will elicit in such a gathering of the "knights of the quill," as will throw far into the shade any similar convention heretofore held in the State.

ON NEXT GOVERNOR. It may not be a little gratifying to Gov. Geary, and his numerous friends, to see the unanimity with which the Press of the State urge his re-election.

Below we give "aim" abstract of what occurs to A. J., the illustrious, as the appropriate thing to be done under existing circumstances. We refrain from giving it entire, as we are persuaded that it is entirely too much of it "such as it is."

CRIME. Never, so far as our knowledge goes, has there been a time in the history of our country, when offenses were more frequent or more heinous than at present.

Our relations with foreign nations are generally cordial. The government of Paraguay, it is alleged, has arbitrarily seized two American citizens, and offered inducements to our minister (Mr. Washburne) to surrender them.

ALASKA. Alaska was purchased with the view of extending natural jurisdiction and republican principles to the American hemisphere.

THE LAST SENSATION.

Every newspaper writer from Boston to St. Louis, has been engaged for the past week or ten days, in furnishing copy to his devil in the case of Hester Vaughan.

Our prompt action to us, filled with accounts of murders, committed under every variety of circumstances; indeed in some cases these accounts constitute almost all the reading matter. The following statement which appeared in the Press a few days ago, is calculated to direct the attention of those having in charge the law-making power, to the notorious fact, that crime is on the increase.

CONGRESSIONAL. We can at present give but a brief synopsis of the doings in the Senate and House up to Wednesday night. The time of the Senate was occupied almost all of Wednesday in the consideration of the financial interests of the country.

THE HOUSE INDULGED itself in what the "Commercial" deems a four-hour frolic, which consisted of a drawing forsooth by the members, and in which it seems there was considerable sport.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE. Below we give "aim" abstract of what occurs to A. J., the illustrious, as the appropriate thing to be done under existing circumstances.

Concerning our relations with Great Britain, he says, there are three questions remaining, yet unadjusted, but he hopes they will soon be settled.
