FOR GOVERNOR. JOHN W. GEARY.

Almost there has been as yet no time definitely fixed upon for the meeting of the State Convention for 1869.

We see that the Philadelphia Press, the North American, and in fact leading papers throughout the State are speaking of the Editorial Convention which is to assemble in Bellefonte on the 8th of January next.

COL. FRANK JOHNSON, the present Executive Secretary of State with whom we have formerly had very pleasant relations, has, it seems, leisure to attend to other interests than those immediately connected with the Commonwealth.

Mr. L. W. Hall, his partner, and former representative in the Senate from this District, is thoroughly versed in the politics of the State, and together they constitute a firm of no small ability.

The meeting held in the Court House, on Tuesday evening last, under the auspices of the Centre Hall Agricultural Company, will it is thought, result in an increase of manufacturing establishments in our midst.

The Pennsylvania Central Railroad has 532 locomotives—larger number than any other railroad in the country.

THE REAL ESTATE OF SCINNYHILL COUNTY is valued at $3,000,000. Of this sum not less than $400,000 lies in the coal region.

It is a noticeable fact that it mattered not what reform was proposed by Mr. Stevens, how extreme it was at first, or how utterly devoid of precedent it was, the people, commencing with its toleration, soon came to its adoption; and in time, to consider it as one of the essentials to good government.

OBITUARY.

Omaha claims a population of twenty thousand.

St. Louis, Chicago and Cincinnati are hog-packing for the championship.

The Dutchess de Morny's jewels were recently sold in Paris, for $10,000 in gold.

A party of Swedes purchased 20,000 acres of land in Kansas.

The whole territory of Maine, containing an area of 32,000 square miles, was purchased by Massachusetts, of Mason and Gorges, for the sum of $2,250,000.

A New York lady was married last week in a white velvet robe which cost $5,000 in Paris.

Three hundred women, graduates of medical colleges, are now practicing in this country.

A Vermont editor writes obituary notices of delinquent subscribers, and in this way brings them to life.

Grimes has no hope of being re-elected to the Senate from Iowa. "Old Grimes is dead," and cannot be resurrected.

A Virginia farmer has raised two crops of potatoes and one of turnips from the same piece of ground.
