Important to Gardeners and Horticulturalists .- A merchant finding one of the rooms of his warehouse suddenly deserted by the ants which had infested it, was thereby induced to believe it was owing to a barrel of fish oil being placed there, which opinion he confirmed by placing the oil with the like good effect around some of the plants in his garden. As all insects breathe by the pores of the surface, oil is certain death to them, and this may be the explanation in addition to the fact that the aroma of the fish may possess something repug-nant or detrimental to their entomolgical olfactories.

Mechanics .- The Sunday Morning News says, the most independent man, in these dark days, is the mechanic. He is his own bank, and has a safety fund in his craft, and his personal labor. Other banks may have the ague, and stop shaking only to die -the money-tables of the brokers may become "the evidence of things not seen"merchants may be guiltless of any act of "commission"-auctioneers may be "going, going, gone"-lawyers may have 'causes without effects'-doctors may find it difficult to gild their pills-but the mechanic can find employment and get his pay for it.

Frederick the Great, of Prussia, was fully sensible of the contagious nature of liberty; he knew that the spirit of freedom was epidemical, and he did not choose to employ his subjects in any way that would put them iu mind of the disorder. When Dr. Franklin applied to him to lend his assistance to Am-rica, "Pray, Doctor," said the crafty veteran, "pray Doctor, what is the object you mean to attain?" "Liberty, Sire," replied the American philosopher, "Liberty, that kingly answer:-"I was born a Prince, I am become a King, and I will not use the power which I possess to ruin my own trade."

NEW MONTHLY MAGRZINE.

On the first of July. 1837, will be published, beau-tifully printed, on good paper, and stitched in a wrapper, extra large royal octavo, THE FIRST WUMBER of a new Periodical Work, entitled

The Gentleman's Magazine.

THE announcement of a new periodical, in the present state of affairs, may create some feelof surprise; but having contemplated an alteration in the nature of a very popular monthly pub-lication, 'Every Body's Album,' the proprietors decm it best to proceed in the perfected arrangements, and produce a periodical embodying the most wholesome points of the old work, but conducted with sufficient energy and talent to ensure the success of their new arrangements. The respectable and extensive subscription list of the Album, to which this work is designed as a successor, will at once place THE GEN-TLEMAN'S MAGAZINE in a circulation equal to that of any other monthly work in the United States, and guarantee the continuance of its publication, with the certainty of payment to the enterprise of the proprictors. The contents of the Gentleman's Magazine will, in every respect, be answerable to the meaning of the title. We do not pretend, in our literary pursuits, to fly as "cagles soar, above the ken of ma in," nor shall we be content with merely skimming the surface of the ground; our pages will not be filled with abtruse predictions, nor shall we display the brilliancy of our critical acumen in matters "caviare to the million." In short, we do not mean to be profoundly learned, nor philosophically dull. We wish to produce a gentlemanly agreeable book-an epitome of life's adjunctives-a literary melange, possessing variety to suit all palates, and sufficient interest to command a place upon the parlour table of every gentleman in the United States, In the varied and ample page of contents attached to each number of the Gentleman's Magazine, originall articles will be found, from some of the mo ce ebrated writers of the day.-Essays, Humorous and Didactic-Graphic Delineations of Mcu and Manners.—Free and Spirited Translations of the lighter portions of the Literature of continental Europe.—A Series of Original Biographical Notices of the principal stars in the Dramatic hemisphere. The Current Literature will be reviewed in full, and liberal extracts made from rare and valuable works. An Original Copy Right Song, not otherwise to be obtained, will be given, with the music, in etcry num ber. 'The Gentleman's Magazine will contain seventytwo extra sized octavo pages, of two columns each, forming, at the clase of the year, two large hand-some vo,umes of One' Thousand Seven Hundred and Twenty-eight columns, each column containing one third more than an octave page of average propertions. Several engravings will be given in the course of the year; and the proprietors pledge themselves that the Gentleman's Magazine shall be the largest & the cheapest monthly work in the United States,

THE PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY CHRONICLE, A FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

PROSPECTUS OF SECOND VOLUME. Commencing May 20, 1837.

The SATURDAY CHRONICLE is a family wspaper, published on a sheet of the largest man moth size, and issued regularly from Philadelphia, every Saturday. It is entirely unconnected with party politics, and sectarianism, and is zealously devoted to the cause of Literature, Science and General Intelligence, as calculated to entertain and instruct every branch of the family circle. The design of the publishers is, to furnish a newspaper that shall instruct as well as amuse, and enlighten the middle-aged, as well as entertain, and direct to proper objects of study, the mind of youth. Their unprecedented success during the past year-(having obtained a very extensive circulation not only in Philadelphia and Pennsylvania, but in every State of the Union)-induces them to believe that their plan of publication is a good one, and during the succeeding year, they will continue to pursue it zealously, with such improvements and modifications as may from time to time be suggested.

General Contents of the Chronicle.

Tales and Essays on Literary, Scientific and Moral subjects-Sketches of History and Biography -Reviews of new publications-Stories from the Classic writers-Popular Statistics of the World-Ladies' Department-Original Communications from some of the best writers of Philadelphia and elsewhere-Medical Lectures-Science and Art-Agriculture and Rural Economy-Popular Superstitions-Curious Customs-and Manners-European and Domestic Correspondence-Articles on Music, the Drama, and other amusements-Varietics, amusing incidents, &c. and a carefully prepared synopsis of the Current News of the Day, both Fortign and Domestic.

Attractions of the first Volume.

A regular correspondence from Europe, furnished by an able and cloquent writer, now on a tour through Europe, and engaged expressly for the Chronicle. Of this correspondence more than forty letters have been furnished.

A series of articles on Medical subjects, embracing lectures on Anatomy, in familiar language, from the pen of a distinguished Physician of Philadelphin. The republication, in a supplementary sheet, of the choicest and best articles of the several London Annuals, for 1837, embracing articles from all the prominent English writers of the present day. The cost of these Annuals at retail is about $30-their principal contents have been furnished the readers of the Chronicle gratis. The republication of the inimitable Pickwick Papers, from the pen of the best comic writer of the ege, Charles Dickens, Esq. Original contributions on Literature, Science, Law, Education, Poetry, Political Economy, &c., from a number of the very best writers in America. Extra Attractions for the second Volume. The publication of the original articles, written for the Premiums of $250, embracing a great number of compositions of merit. The original tale, to which will be awarded the prize of $100, will proba-bly be published in the first number of the second The European Correspondence will be regularly ontinued, as will also the Stories from the Classics, and indeed all the attractive features of the first volume. The notes and observations of a literary gen-tleman, now on a tour through the Western and Southern States, are also promised for publication in the Chronicle. Choice literary selections will be furnished from the London Monthly, Bentley's Miscellany, Blackwood's, and other European Magazines, care being taken to select the very best articles, "winnowing the wheat from the chaff," from the great mass of English Literature, and not to allow their number to interfere with our usual variety .- Advantage will be taken of every circumstance calculated to add interest to the columns of the Chronicle. The pub-lishers being determined to allow none to outstrip them in the "March of Improvement," During the past year the publishers have paid, for original contributions, premiums, correspondence, &c., more than

This seemed to be a real puzzler for poor

Rec. Then you'll be discharged.

Wonderful preservation .- We learn that a lad, aged about nine years,-a son of Mr. Sailor, a tobacconist, in Sixth between Market and Arch sts. yesterday ascended to the roof of his father's house which is three stories high, to fly his kite. In send-ing his buoyant toy aloft, his feet slipped, and rolling over the perilous caves, he fell late, he suffered, as far as can be ascertained, little or no injury! It is supposed that he must have struck a shutter in his fall, which turned the direction of his body, and he struck the ground with the bend of one of his legs. A close examination had been made, and no serious hurt been found .---

ANECDOTE .- A small boy heard a preacher preaching a sermon, from these words, "Ye must be born again," which was frequently repeated during the discourse. The little hearer paid strict attention to all what was said and particularly to the text. After he returned home, he became melancholy, and was found weeping bitterly. His father tenderly enquired after the cause of his distress. The boy told him, that the preacher had said, "Ye must be born again." "Well my son," replied the fath-er, "why do you cry about it?" 'O, sir,' says the boy, "I'm so afraid that next time I'll be a gal."

It is stated that Richard P. Robinson, "the great unhung," was recently, and probably is yet, engaged as clerk in a merchant's store, at Alton, III.

Original Joke .- "Doctor," said Bto his medical adviser one day, "is'n't there a disease called shingles?" "Yes, to besure," replied Galen.

"Then I've got it, for certain," rejoined B____n, "for the roof of my mouth is broke out in a dozen places!"

An Expensive Constituency .- Two riwal candidates in the West opened the pub-The houses for their constituents during a Iste election. The following item appeared in the bills of the landlor ls: "To silver spoons, stolen by constituents, 840."

Promising Youth .- Mr. Coble of Brattleborough, Vt., advortises his runaway ap-prentice, R. Long, in the following style: "He can be identified by the fact, that he has not combed his hair since July 4, 1831, and cannot speak ten words at a time without attering twenty faisehoods."

Some men would as soon part with their blood as their money, and yet neither can be of any service without circulating.

High Prices .- It is stated in the Grand River (Michigan) Times, that flour is selling at that place at 15 dollars per barrel; pork, at 36 dollars, and potatoes at 2 dollars per bushel.

The Maid of Judah .- It is said that among the numerous female delinquents, tried at the sessions, in N. Y. there never appeared a Jewess. This argues well, for the fair, bright eyed daughters of Jerusalem.

Fatal Rashness .- We perceive that a Massachusetts editor has just got married! He is crazy, unless his wife has an appetite to live on old exchange papers.

"Ebony and Topaz."-Mr. Jonathan Tuppet, colored gentleman, and wiss Elizabeth Everett, a white abolition lady, of Boston, have been sent to jail, by the police of that city, until sufficient evidence can be procured against the magistrate John Willlams, for uniting the parties in this un-natural wedlock, and thus violating a fundamental law of the Commonwealth.

Young Louis Bonaparte, who has been residing in New York for some monihs past, took passage in the George Washington a few days since for Europe. His mother, the Ex-Queen of Holland, was dangerously ill at the last dates.

Sclitude Sweetened .- One of our exchange papers announces the marriage of Mr. James Sweet to Miss Julia Ann Solitude.

"Measures not Men.'-Married, at Washington, Mr. Joseph Peek, to Miss Amelia Bushel

The Providence Journal supposes that a part of the next generation will be half pecks and half bushels.
