

this assembly to-day finds a hearty response in the democracy of Luzerne: The triumph over dictation there as here, is hailed with joy and enthusiasm.

By Hugh McWilliams, Esq. The Voters of Columbia county: Fully capable to select and elect their public servants.

By C. B. Fisher. Columbia county: Her character is redeemed—she has thrown off the yoke of dictation, and has exhibited her independence, by electing a member of the Legislature "fresh from the ranks of the people," and free from political knavery.

By Eli Thornton. John McReynolds: The voice of the people demands his nomination and election to Congress.

By Samuel Shadman. Our Republican form of government: To be sustained by the virtue and intelligence of the people.

By Theodore Wells. Col. Joseph Patton: His name will be recorded for centuries as the successful and zealous friend of internal improvements, and Columbia county will yet appreciate his exertions in promoting the interests of her citizens.

By Maj. B. S. Wolverton. William Leavenworth, Esq.: The thanks of this Company rest with him for the skill which he this day displayed in roasting the Ox, and for his liberality in preparing the necessary materials for that purpose.

Mr. Leavenworth returned his thanks for the compliment, in a very pertinent speech, and gave the following toast.

By Wm Leavenworth, Esq. Columbia county: Inferior to no other in her mineral resources, or in the industry and intelligence of her citizens.

By C. B. Fisher. The People of Columbia county: May they soon enjoy the right which has so long been denied them, through the intrigue and management of the minority—the removal of the Seat of Justice to some central place in the county.

By C. Rawns. John McReynolds: Our next Congressional representative.

By Isaiah Conner. John Bowman: An intelligent farmer and an honest man—a majority of the freemen of Columbia county have exhibited their confidence in his integrity, and he will not deceive them.

By E. Stiles Trago. The late victory in Columbia county: Obtained by the united exertions of freemen.

By Dr. J. Pickering. The present political organization of Columbia county: "Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox, and hatred therewith."

By George Kelchner, Esq. Gen. Geo. Washington: Like Moses of Old, he struck the rock of the hard-hearted British Lion, and the waters of Liberty gushed forth, so that freemen can vote at their pleasure.

By P. Felanigan. The Citizens of Columbia county: They adhered to the old Pennsylvania motto, and virtuously supported liberty by voting independently.

By the Company. The Officers of the Day: Their able discharge of duty deserves our thanks.

By the Company. Our worthy Host and Hostess: Their liberality and zeal in preparing for this festival, merits our warmest thanks.

CHARLES B. PENROSE, ESQ.

When this gentleman was first elected to the Senate, it was by the votes of the democrats of Cumberland and Perry counties, who expected to find in him a representative faithful to their interests, and true to the principles of pure democracy. It is unnecessary for us now to say, how completely the conduct of Mr. Penrose disappointed his constituents, and falsified the pledges which were solemnly made by him during the canvass which preceded his election. Our object now, is merely to advert to the unequivocal condemnation which his former friends have passed upon his conduct, and show how effectually they would have exhibited their dissatisfaction, if Mr. Penrose had not very prudently shielded himself from its exercise by connecting his fortune with two of the most uniform federal and anti-masonic counties in the state.

At the election of last Tuesday, the county of Cumberland, in which Mr. Penrose resides, gave a majority of 420 votes against him, and the county of Perry—which, in conjunction with Cumberland, formed the district originally represented by him—cast a majority of more than 600 votes in favor of the democratic candidate.

It will thus be seen that had the new apportionment bill left the Senatorial district as it was in 1833, a majority of more than one thousand votes would have testified to the soundness of its democracy, and the abhorrence and disgust with which they regard the treachery and apostasy of the individual whom they had once honored with their confidence.

By the aid of the federal counties of Adams and Franklin, Mr. Penrose has succeeded in gaining a re-election to the Senate, but we envy not his feelings when he examines the result of the election in the counties which formed his old district, and marks the quiet but effectual seal of reprobation which his former friends have passed upon his conduct.—Penna. Reporter.

Good Advice.—A federal editor, in an appeal to his patrons, concludes with giving them this most excellent advice.

"Let us then assume the name that belongs to us (federalist) and no longer make fools of ourselves by trying to make fools of other people."

The honesty of this man is worthy of all commendation.

CHAMBERSBURG, Oct. 16.

Melancholy Affair.—We are pained to learn, that an occurrence took place in Peters township, on Wednesday last, which resulted in the death of Mr. Samuel Swigart, an industrious worthy mechanic, of Mercersburg. The particulars, so far as we could gather them from a hasty relation given by a gentleman of that neighborhood, are these:—Mr. S. had been induced to accompany three other men to the house of a free negro, for the purpose of arresting three runaway slaves—these negroes, aware of the approach of the party to take them, retired to the loft of the building, where they were discovered concealed under a bed. Upon one of them being dragged out by the heels, the other two sprang up and made furious battle, with a scythe and other weapons found in the loft. In a few moments Mr. Swigart had his bowels cut out—one of the Negroes was wounded, supposed to be mortally, and all the white men but one more or less injured. Mr. Swigart survived his wound about two hours. Two of the Negroes succeeded in making their escape—whether they were wounded or not, has not been ascertained.

Mrs. Swigart had been married but a few months, and our informant added, that the melancholy fate of her husband has driven his wife distracted.—Repos.

The ladies of Canada seem determined that the political excitement of the day shall not pass without a participation on their part. Convivial meetings have been held by the members of the fair sex, at which eloquent discourses are said to have been delivered and spirited toasts drunk. Whenever females mingle in discussions such as those which now engage the attention of the British provinces, there is good reason to believe that revolution is broad. The feeling must indeed be deep rooted and strong, that could induce females, whose tastes are usually averse to scenes of popular commotion, to come forward thus publicly to advocate the public cause. Mr. Papineau must feel flattered in seeing his countrywomen take sides with him so ardently, and his gallantry will at once put to rest any misgivings that he may possibly have had as to the wisdom of his course. Every thing indicates a collision between the British Colonies and the Mother Country, but how far the colonists will be able to sustain themselves against the arm of power can only be ascertained by the result. As for ourselves, whatever may be our hopes or expectations in the matter, we feel that it does not belong to us as citizens of this republic to do more than note the progress of events!—Balt. American.

The New York papers of Oct. 10, inform us that a dreadful fire took place at Rochester on the 4th inst. Damage estimated at $50,000. At Chillicothe, Ohio, on the 20th ult., 50 head Durham Cattle brought $36,443. One sold for $1700.

The effects of the derangement of the currency and the general depression of trade throughout the country have been felt in city of New-York in a degree proportionate to the extent of its business operations. The official assessment of the value of real and personal estate of this year, compared with those of 1836, show a decline in value of nearly forty-six millions of dollars! The Express, in publishing the details which prove this melancholy result, adds—"There is nothing that can possibly tell the story of a falling off in trade as well as this. In real estate the assessors always assess property much below the real value. In personal estate, one half, and probably three-quarters of all that really ought to pay taxes escape altogether. Taking, however, one year as fairly assessed as the other, we have no doubt the statement of the depreciation in both descriptions of property is fully equal to the above."

A Horse too good to sell.—Samuel Blake, of Warwick, Mass. relates in the Greenfield Gazette, the story of his horse's travels. By his account it appears that his horse in the course of ten years has visited Boston 200 times—travelling each time 170 miles, total amount 37,400. Besides these visits to Boston as a team horse, he has performed many other journeys and trips to different parts of the country; sometimes in a light carriage, and sometimes in a wagon; besides working on the farm; estimated to amount to about 4000 miles more. Total amount of travel in ten years, 41,400; a distance about equal the once and two thirds round the globe. During the ten years he has eaten 1140 bushels of corn—averaging 114 bushels a year, and nearly 10 quarts a day.

The great horse traveller says Mr. Blake, is now as sound in all his limbs and as smooth as any colt that can be produced.

A free Banking law was passed by the last legislature of Missouri, providing that any twelve or more resident freeholders in a county, on subscribing $50,000 and paying in 30 per cent, might commence banking and issue to the amount of twice and a half the sum paid in. The Louisville Journal states that several of these new fangled banks have already gone into operation, and others are springing up every month, and deluging the land with their shin-plasters.

Legislative Keystone.

During the ensuing session of the legislature, the Keystone will be published twice a week, and contain full reports of the proceedings in both houses. It will also contain an account of the proceedings of the reform convention, which, (judging from similar bodies in other states and the convention that formed our present constitution), will hardly close its session before spring.

The political complexion of the legislature and the important subject which will necessarily come before it, will render the next session peculiarly interesting. All eyes are turned this way for speedy reform in our present defective currency. Decided action relative to the improvement system is ardently desired in many quarters. These two matters of themselves, form subjects of intense interest to the people at large.

On the 4th of March, a democratic convention will assemble here and nominate a candidate for governor. An account of this, together with the preparatory movements of the party in all quarters, will be faithfully detailed. From these circumstances, there never was a time when a paper from the seat of government will be of such indispensable value to all the citizens of the commonwealth, as for the ensuing six months.

The terms of the Keystone are the same as heretofore.
 During the session semi weekly $2.00
 For the year 3.00
 Any person forwarding us $2.00 shall receive the Keystone from the time of subscribing to the close of the session—or six copies sent to any one office for $10.

The Gentleman's Magazine.

The proprietors have much pleasure in announcing to the reading public, the complete success which has attended the establishment of this Magazine—a success far beyond their utmost expectations, and considerably exceeding the prosperity of any publication in America. The daily increasing subscription list, and the numerous complimentary notices of THE PRESS, attest the merits and the popularity of the Gentleman's Magazine, each number of which contains more than any other monthly publication in the United States.

ORIGINAL MATTER

CONTENTS.

Original Tales of Powerful Interest.—Humorous and Graphic Delineations of Men and Manners.—Novel Sketches of Foreign Lands; Poetry; Characteristic Studies; Essays on Popular Subjects, and Biographical Notices of Celebrated or Eccentric Persons, with many Original Anecdotes.

The Lives of Paganini, with Likenesses; Prince Puckler Muskau; Dickens, [Box], the author of the Pickwick Papers, with a Likeness; Dr. John Faust, the Sorcerer; The Duchess of St. Albans, and Zingha, the Negro Queen, have already been given.

The new Publications are reviewed in full; liberal extracts made from rare and valuable work—presenting a complete account of the Popular Literature of the day. An Original Copy Right Song, not otherwise to be obtained, will be given, with the music, in every number.

The Gentleman's Magazine will contain seventy-two extra sized octavo pages, of two columns each, forming, at the close of the year, two large handsome volumes of One Thousand Seven Hundred and Twenty-eight columns, each column containing more than an octavo page of average proportion, and each monthly number has more reading matter than a volume of a novel. The work is neatly printed on good paper, and stitched in a neat colored cover. Several engravings will be given in the course of the year; and the proprietors pledge themselves to produce an agreeable book—an epitome of Life's adjunctives—a Literary Melange possessing variety to suit all palates, and sufficient interest to command a place upon the parlor table of every Gentleman in the United States.

AN ENGRAVED TITLE PAGE, of superior production, embracing every possible variety of PICTORIAL DISPLAY, and executed in first style of Art, by J. ADAMS, of New York, accompanies the OCTOBER NUMBER.

Terms—$3 per annum.

To induce subscribers to forward their names immediately, the publisher begs leave to offer the following extra inducements for Clubbing, the advantages of which proposition can only remain in force till Christmas next. The subscription to the Gentleman's Magazine will, for a single copy, be invariably Three Dollars per annum, payable in advance—but a five dollar bill will produce two copies to the same direction, or a club of Ten Dollars will command five copies.
