

"TRUTH WITHOUT FEAR"

BLOOMSBURG:

SATURDAY, APRIL 21, 1838.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION FOR GOVERNOR: GEN. DAVID R. PORTER. (OF HUNTINGDON COUNTY.)

NOTICE.

The partnership heretofore existing between the subscribers, as publishers of the "Columbia Democrat" was mutually dissolved on the 17th instant, and all debts due the office for subscription, advertising, &c. are payable to John S. Ingram, who purchased the entire interest of Mr. Mills in the establishment.

JOHN S. INGRAM.

FRANKLIN S. MILLS.

N. B. Payments to either of the hands in the office will be a sufficient discharge to delinquents. Bloomsburg, March 24, 1838.

NUMBER 521

The above number will close our connexion with this paper, and all the accounts will be placed in proper hands to enforce speedy collection.—Those who neglect settlement will pay $2 50 and costs, as we must pursue this course in accordance with our terms, and to answer our immediate necessities. Will our patrons, who are delinquent, oblige us by prompt settlement, and thus continue the reciprocal friendship manifested on both sides? Come, gentlemen—the laborer is worthy of his hire, and we want our wages.

To our Patrons.

The present number concludes the first year's publication of the "Columbia Democrat," and terminates the editorial control of the undersigned. Mr. HENRY WEBB, heretofore Senior editor of the "Wyoming Republican," has purchased the establishment, and will hereafter be editor and proprietor; and from his qualifications and political principles, I apprehend that no disadvantage will be sustained by subscribers through the change. I return my sincere acknowledgments to those through whose exertions and patronage I was so well sustained during my twelve months' editorship, and would solicit a continuance of such favors to my successor.

It is with the most kindly feelings of friendship and esteem that I now express my regard on leaving the patrons of the "Democrat," and the people who form the amiable social circle which renders a residence here so agreeable; and while editor of another paper in this Senatorial district I shall neither forget their personal friendship nor overlook their public interests.

JOHN S. INGRAM.

Bloomsburg, April 20, 1838.

The Books, &c. of this establishment are now in the hands of CHARLES KAHLEB, Esq., and delinquent customers will be promptly waited upon, through the threatened channel, after the 15th of May next, at $2 50 per annum. We sincerely hope the appointed day may find but few delinquents.

On Tuesday last, on motion of G. A. Frick Esq., B. Rush Petrikin, Esq. was admitted to practice as an Attorney in the several Courts of this County.

We are requested to say that the Methodist church in this place, will be open for service on next Sunday afternoon at four o'clock P. M.

The proceedings of the Democratic County meeting were received too late for publication this week on account of the early hour at which our present number was put to press.

HARD CURRENCY.

The following is said to be the funds with which a certain safety fund Bank in Michigan redeems its notes, to wit: All notes under $5 in whetstones. All over $5 and under $10 grindstones. " $10 " " $20 in millstones. " $20 and upwards, in checks on any quarry in the State.

If such is the case, we may shortly expect a general resumption of "hard stuff" payment.

From a statement published in one of the New Orleans papers, we learn that on the 21st of last month, the New Orleans Banks had 2,979,723 dollars in specie in their vaults. Their notes in circulation amounted to 4,734,730. The money placed with them on deposit, was eight millions of dollars. Their discounts and loans were equal to fifty-two millions of dollars, on an capital paid in of about forty millions. Their investment in real estate, &c. were valued at $7,827,546.

MR. VAN BUREN.

Some of the Federal papers affect the belief that because no resolution approving of the General Administration was adopted by the Democratic Convention recently held in this place, that therefore, the popularity of Mr. Van Buren with the democratic party is on the wane. These wisecracks entirely overlook the address adopted by the Convention. The expression of confidence in the President, contained in that paper, although brief, is but the echo of the sentiment of the democratic party throughout the Commonwealth. Notwithstanding all the clamor that has been created by the Federal Bankites about the bill before Congress to separate the Government from the Banks, notwithstanding the misapprehension which exists in a very small portion of the Democratic party as to the effects of that great and nationally important measure—Mr. Van Buren never stood higher in the confidence and esteem of the party in Pennsylvania than he does at the present moment. For proof of this fact, we need only refer to the proceedings of every Democratic meeting which has been recently held in the Commonwealth. At the unusually large assemblage of the Democrats of the city and county of Philadelphia, held on Friday last, called for the purpose of promoting the election of Gen. Porter to the Chief Magistracy of Pennsylvania, the following, among other resolutions, was unanimously adopted: "Resolved, That this meeting entertains the highest confidence in the abilities, firmness and patriotism of MARTIN VAN BUREN, President of the U. States; his previous career as well as his course since he was placed in the Presidential Chair, are such as in their opinion entitle him to the unabated confidence and support of the democratic party throughout the Union, and this meeting will at all times be ready to sustain an administration at once enlightened and patriotic."

We refer particularly to this resolution, because we observe among the names of the gentlemen who officiated as officers of the meeting, those of Gen. Patterson, T. D. Grover, Peter Hay, (editor of the American Sentinel) and other prominent individuals who were most active in getting up the meeting recently held in that city in opposition to the Treasury bill.—This fact is important, showing, as it does, that that portion of the democratic party, who disagree with the President as to the expediency of a particular measure, are not on that account prepared to abandon either the general principles for which they have heretofore honestly contended, or the Chief Magistrate whose whole life has been faithfully devoted to a defence of those principles. It is, therefore, idle for the Federal presses to attempt to create even a suspicion that the popularity of Mr. Van Buren is on the decline in Pennsylvania.—Harrisburg Reporter.

WILLIAMSPORT & TOWANDA.

We understand that the P. Master General has determined to restore the mail facilities, formerly existing between the north and West Branches of the Susquehanna, at those two important points, and has issued proposals for carrying the mail three times a week in coaches, from Canton to Mounton, which will complete the connexion from Williamsport to Towanda. This will be very gratifying intelligence to the inhabitants of that section of the state, who will not fail to perceive in this a new evidence of the disposition of the Post Master General to accommodate the public by increasing the mail facilities wherever the increasing improvements, population, and intercourse will justify the measure, as they unquestionably did in the present instance. The present incumbent, in reducing the mail facilities, and thereby curtailing the expenses of the department, when he first entered upon the duties of his office, we then thought, and still think, made unnecessary reductions of the force employed on mail routes in Pennsylvania. We are glad to find, however, as the resources of the department will warrant it, he is restoring the facilities granted by his predecessors.—Keystone.

The Harrisburg Chronicle says that Gen. David R. Porter "was one of the moving spirits in the loco faco meeting in Huntingdon, which, in 1836, denounced the charter of the United States Bank of Pennsylvania as having been obtained through fraud," &c. This is what we like to hear, and we do not doubt but it is a fact. It was on that ground we voted, with thousands of others, for him for Senator in 1836, and for the very same reason we shall again, with many more thousands, vote for him for Governor. If that is all the objection the Chronicle can find to General Porter, his election by 40,000 majority is certain. [Perry Co. Democrat.]

Money is becoming a slippery article as witness another instance.

Mysterious.—The late Mississippi Legislature discovered that the "literary fund" of the State, amounting to $170,000, could neither be found nor accounted for. The money had certainly disappeared, but to ascertain whether it had gone was a task that baffled the ingenuity of all the public authorities of the state.

Captain Edmund P. Kennedy, for the navy, was presented on Wednesday with a sword, voted to him by the Legislature of Maryland, his native State, for his conduct in the affair of Tripoly under Decatur.

ENCOURAGEMENT OF VOLUNTEERS.

Both houses of the Legislature have passed a bill, requiring the state treasurer to pay $100 to each Regiment of Volunteers in this state who shall encamp to drill for three successive days. The bill also provides for the payment of $50, to each Battalion. This act will have a most salutary effect in strengthening and inspiring our numerous volunteer corps.

A MONSTER.—We learn, that a few days since, the engineer on the Norristown railroad, fortunately perceived in time, when nearly opposite the falls, a bundle laying directly athwart one of the rails; and on stopping to remove it, discovered it to be a young child, rolled up in some clothes, and alive! where it doubtless had been placed by its inhuman mother. The little innocent was properly taken care of, but no clue has yet been discovered of the monster who thus sought to destroy her offspring.

Mr. Garretson offered an amendment, to make the salary of the Superintendent of Common Schools, 500 dollars per year.

Mr. Johnston moved to amend the amendment, to increase it to 1000 dollars a year.

In the course of the debate upon these propositions, several of the members spoke of the indefatigable and intelligent exertions of the present Superintendent, and believed his great labors should be much more generously remunerated.

The amendment of Mr. Johnston was not agreed to—Yeas 31, Nays 42.

The original amendment was agreed to—Yeas 51, Nays 26 and the bill passed final reading—Yeas 58, Nays 9.

COL. SAMUEL LOUNT.—The Pennsylvania Inquirer and Courier of Thursday last, on the authority of letters received, dated Toronto U. C. April 3d states, that General Sutherland had been found guilty of treason and would be executed forthwith. And that * * * Lount and Matthews, two prominent leaders in the late rebellion on being arraigned, plead guilty, and were sentenced to be hung on the 12th instant. Application was made in behalf of these prisoners for the royal clemency, which was promptly refused by the Governor.

Colonel Lount is well known in this vicinity, having been raised at Catswissa in this county, from whence he removed to Canada some years since with his father.
