

BLOOMSBURG:

SATURDAY, AUGUST 4, 1838.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION FOR GOVERNOR: GEN. DAVID R. PORTER. (OF HUNTINGDON COUNTY.)

Delegate Meeting.

The Democratic Electors of Columbia County, will meet at their respective places of holding the General Election, on SATURDAY, the first day of September ensuing, between the hours of 3 and 6 o'clock in the afternoon, and elect TWO DELEGATES, in each election district, to meet at the house of Daniel Gross, in Bloomsburg, on Monday, the 3d day of September, to form a Ticket to be supported by the Democratic party at the ensuing General Election.

HUGH McELRATH, WM. J. IKELER, SEBASTIAN HOWER, } Standing Committee. July 30, 1838.

NOMINATIONS.

Mr. Webb, You will gratify a wish expressed by many of your friends in this section, if you will publish the name of SEBASTIAN HOWER, of this township, as a candidate for Auditor of Columbia county. He is a democrat of the old school, and every way qualified for the station, and if nominated, will no doubt be elected.

ROARING CREEK.

Mr. Editor, I have been requested by many of the friends of WILLIAM J. IKELER, of Mount Pleasant, to bring his name before the public, as a candidate for Commissioner of this county. Mr. Ikeler is a decided and firm democrat, and if nominated and elected, will look well to the interests of the county.

The Danville Intelligencer mentions the name of JEREMIAH WELIVER, of Madison, as a candidate for the office of Treasurer of Columbia county, which makes the list of names already brought forward to be presented to the democratic county convention, stand thus:

- Assembly—ISAIAH SALMON, DANIEL GROSS, WM. COLT, EZRA S. HAYHURST, Commis'er—WM. COLE, WILLIAM J. IKELER, JOHN M'HENRY, Treasurer—WM. S. DAVIS, JEREMIAH WELIVER, Auditor—SEBASTIAN HOWER,

In the above list, we have omitted the names of the whig candidates, John Bowman, for Assembly, and John Laubauch, for Commissioner, not considering them to have any claim to a station on the list of candidates to be presented to a democratic convention for nomination. In doing so, we do not wish to cast any reflections on those who "do not publish both sides," nor upon the gentlemen named, but we cannot admit the right of the whig Register to enter the name of any gentleman, on our list of candidates for nomination from a democratic convention. They must come in at some other door to entitle them to a seat at our board.

The Approaching Election.

"Union and harmony," should be our watch-word, and if adhered to in good faith, there cannot be a doubt of the triumphant success of the Democratic party in this county, and Congressional district, at the coming election. The names of several gentlemen have already been brought forward for the consideration of the county convention, with strong claims for nomination to the various offices of the county, and from present appearances, the list will be swelled much larger, before the time for action shall arrive; so that every office to be voted for by the people, will have more than one democratic claimant for nomination by the convention. It is the duty then, of the democratic party to freely, frankly and kindly to discuss the claims of the various candidates for nomination, with a view of maintaining that harmony among the party in our local elections, which appears to prevail, to such an eminent degree, in relation to our candidate for Governor. One of the fundamental principles of our party is, that every individual has a right to have his claims for support to an office presented to the proper ordeal, and, therefore, no one member of the party has any right to claim that his name, and his only, shall be presented to the nominating convention, to the exclusion of all others. There is no man neither, without friends, and it certainly cannot advance the interest of one candidate to embitter the friends of the other, by using language towards them or him, that is calculated to irritate or wound the feelings. If this is done, and persisted in, it certainly cannot be expected that, that "union and harmony" will prevail in our nominations, which is so much desired by every true democrat at the present momentous period of our political affairs. We must begin right if we would end right.—We must maintain a reciprocity of good feeling before, as well as after, the nominations are made, if we would wish to preserve our ranks unbroken, and present a bold front to our enemies in the general battle-field. So far as we can learn, this is the determination of our democratic brethren throughout the county, and that every attempt, let it come from quarter it may, to disturb this good feeling—to distract or create dissensions in the party—to prevent a fair and unbiased expression of the people, either in their primary assemblies, or at the county convention, will be discountenanced and receive that rebuke which it will so justly merit. Should this determination be carried into effect, and we trust it will, we have no hesitation in saying, that whatever ticket is fairly formed by the nominating convention, will be elected by an overwhelming majority.

Beware of Shipplasters.

Several denominations of Shipplasters, which have heretofore circulated freely among us, are now refused on account of insolvency of the institutions. The "Harrisburg, Portsmouth and Lancaster Rail Road Company, are among the number.—It is said that the personal property of this institution has been seized upon to satisfy claims of creditors.

For fear that the people of Columbia county should not have the pleasure of reading the subjoined precious article, published in the last Register, we extract it into our paper. 'Tis seldom we have an opportunity of giving circulation to an article of such real excellence. Unfortunately the talents and tastes of some men are hidden under a bushel, and it is only under peculiar circumstances that they are brought to light. When they are, they should be prized the more highly. What a pity it is that the Register has not a more extensive circulation, as such articles, written with such a spirit, would have more effect to advance the election of David R. Porter, than all that could be said in his favor by his friends.—Who is there that can read this extract without having the nobler passions of the soul assume the ascendancy, and rejoice that we have one editor in Columbia county who is the paragon of refined taste and exquisite feeling? But to the extract:

"It is now ascertained and publicly stated, that a large portion of the 4th of July Loco Peco Convention, was composed of Black Legs—professed gamblers; and that for one of them, a reward of $500 is offered in one of the Western counties; a strong suspicion being entertained, that he had committed a murder. Pretty Governor makers for moral or religious people."

Mr. George W. Smith, of Blockley township, Philadelphia county, has this harvest cut the wheat standing in the field in the morning hauled it in, threshed and cleansed it, taken it to the mill, had it ground and brought home, had the flour made into bread, and eat part of it before night the same day!

The State Bank of Missouri is the only Banking Institution in that State. It has not issued notes under the denomination of $20, and has always redeemed them in specie when presented. We state this on the authority of a gentleman just from St. Louis.

It is stated in some of the papers, that the jewels on the robe of Prince Esterhazy, which he wore on the coronation of the little girl queen, Victoria, are valued at one hundred and thirty thousand pounds or $577,200.

An ingenious writer is finishing a romance entitled "Cain vindicated." He makes out that Abel was a banker, and that Cain killed him because he would not resume specie payments.

Detroit, with a population of nearly ten thousand, had but a single death during the week ending on the 7th.

A Good One.—The following toast was given by Albert G. Greene, Esq. at the municipal dinner in Providence, on the Fourth. "Freedom of conscience—wherever it is enjoyed—may every man have religion enough of his own, and be willing not to meddle with that of his neighbors."

Earl Durham has issued an order for the immediate release from the Montreal jail of the prisoners implicated in the late rebellion, and not mentioned in the late Amnesty. They are to give the necessary securities.

Specie.—It is estimated that there is $400,000,000 specie in France; $150,000,000 in England; and about $80,000,000 in the United States. The great abundance of specie in France accounts for the general stability of her currency.

The Crops.—The crops throughout East Tennessee and Western Virginia, so far as we have heard from them, bid fair to yield abundant harvest to the cultivator. The weather for the last ten or fifteen days has been highly favorable for vegetation, warm, with frequent showers. Our farmers have just commenced cutting their wheat, and the crops of oats promises to be the heaviest ever seen in the country. Jonesboro (Tenn.) Sentinel.

All the volunteers who have been serving in the Cherokee country have been discharged from service except two companies.

Amalgamation.—A steamboat arrived at Albany, N. Y., on Monday, 23d inst., containing an odd mixture of passengers, among whom were Gen. Felix Houston of Texas, the Irish Giant, an Albino Lady, an Eastern Juggler, an Arabian Stud, and four Leicester Sheep.—Ledger.

A Rare Varnish.—A new animal, not described by Cuvier, Buffon, or Berwick, is being exhibited in Boston, called the Catarringal Macaoco. He is a compound of the monkey, the squirrel, the skunk, and the fox; and is, it is said in all respects, a right curious "crittur."

The late law of Congress provides, that the widows of revolutionary soldiers, who were married prior to January 1794, and remain widows, shall receive a pension for five years from the 4th of March 1836, equal to the pension of their husbands would have been entitled to, if living under the act 7th June, 1832.

Sour Grapes from abroad.—The "New York Gazette," a Federal paper, has the following opinion in relation to Gov. Ritner's late Proclamation:—"That such language as is used in reference to the acts of the General Government, and certain other expressions on other matters, is shocking, unbecoming and out of place in an official paper from the Chief Magistrate of the State of Pennsylvania."

Gallantry.—While the Brady Guards were encamped at Buffalo a gentleman and two ladies approached one of the sentinels on duty.

I have not the countersign said he and presume I cannot pass. You have a countersign upon each arm was the gallant reply and the gentleman and ladies were permitted to pass.

Primitive Umbrellas.—In Michigan they carry small trees to keep off the sun, instead of umbrellas

G. W. Kyle, the Whig elected in Buckingham county, Virginia, to the legislature pledged himself at the hustings, if elected, to go against an United States Bank.
