

BLOOMSBURG: SATURDAY, AUGUST 18, 1838.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION FOR GOVERNOR: GEN. DAVID R. PORTER. (OF HUNTINGDON COUNTY.)

Delegate Meeting. The Democratic Electors of Columbia County, will meet at their respective places of holding the General Election, on SATURDAY, the first day of September ensuing, between the hours of 3 and 6 o'clock in the afternoon, and elect TWO DELEGATES, in each election district, to meet at the house of Daniel Gross, in Bloomsburg, on Monday, the 3d day of September, to form a Ticket to be supported by the Democratic party at the ensuing General Election.

HUGH McELRATH, WM. J. IKELER, SEBASTIAN HOWER, Standing Committee. July 30, 1838.

The Register man says, he "neither aided or abetted in the transaction," alluded to in our last. Now we are "well aware," for it is well known, that he did do both, and that he was skulking under the fence, for two hours previous, to see the honorable work go on, and that he chuckled heartily over the disgraceful transaction when completed. His charge of originating a falsehood to the contrary notwithstanding.

S. F. HEADLEY, B. S. WOOLVERTON and EZRA S. HAYHURST, Esqrs. have all declined nominations as candidates for any office this fall.

FOR THE DEMOCRAT. Mr. Editor, Please announce the name of ALEXANDER HUGHES, as a candidate for Commissioner for Columbia county, and you will confer a favor on his friends. ROARING CREEK.

Good News.—From every part of the State we receive the most cheering intelligence in reference to the coming election and the prospects of David R. Porter. In the North, South, East and West the democracy are awake to their duty. They are rising in their strength, and preparing for the conflict, animated by the prospect of certain victory. The vile and infamous slanders sent forth against Mr. Porter, instead of operating to his prejudice, have brought hundreds into his ranks who formerly supported Ritner. And some of the federal prints, aware of this, we now observe, are either silent on the subject, or entirely exclude the offensive article from their columns. But it won't do gentlemen. Like the Governor with his proclamation, you are to late. The people are acquainted with your designs. Your attempts to traduce and vilify the reputation of a good man have recoiled upon yourselves, and would alone cause your inevitable overthrow. We repeat, you are to late. The die is cast. Joseph Ritner and his corrupt administration must sink beneath the frown of an indignant people, for they have decreed.—Lewisburg Standard.

UNDENIABLE FACTS.

It is a fact, the appropriations made by Gov. Ritner's federal legislature of 1835 36 amounted to $5,461,236, which were mainly provided for by bank bonuses.

It is a fact, that the surplus revenue received in 1837, from the national government, amounted to $2,867,514 78.

It is a fact, that the revenues of the state in 1837, derived from the improvements dividends licenses, taxes, &c. amounted to $1,736,511 69. Taking this as a medium year, it would be fair to call the yearly revenues from the same sources, under Joseph Ritner's administration, $1,500,000 which in 3 years amounted to $4,500,000.

It is a fact, the appropriations of the last session overgo the amount of money in the treasury, by at least the sum of $1,000,000.

It is a fact, that by the addition of these several items it appears that the expenditures under the three years of Gov. Ritner's federal administration will amount to the enormous sum of $13,828,860 78.

It is a fact, that notwithstanding this vast and unparalleled expenditure, no new rail roads or canals have been brought into use, nor has any portion of the state debt been paid.

It is a fact, that under the six years of Gov. Wolf's democratic administration, $17,000,000 of dollars were expended and about eight hundred miles of rail road and canals completed, which are now yielding $1,600,000 annual revenue.

It is a fact that the yearly expenditure of Joseph Ritner's administration, have far exceeded those of any preceding Governor, whilst no commensurate benefit have been produced.

It is a fact, that the surplus revenue was received on deposit, and, the state, being bound to refund the same, that it forms an addition to the state debt which with bank bonuses, that must be repaid should the state resume Gov. Ritner's monopoly grants, amount to over eight millions, and swell the state debt to rising of $33,000,000.

All these facts are undeniable and can be proved by the records of the commonwealth. They afford a striking commentary upon the profligacy and extravagance of the federal party whenever they obtain power, and a convincing proof that the cry of "Ritner and reform" is a federal HUMBUG!

Democrats! Reflect upon these things, and if you would save the state from ruin, eject Governors Stevens, Penn and Ritner from office, and restore the reign of honest democracy, by electing David R. Porter the son of the revolutionary soldier, and the disciple of Jefferson, Snyder and Jackson.

Minds are, as Bacon says, but different tenses of the same verb. Truth wakes an echo through God's Universe. And they who place themselves with faith and fearlessness in a true position in regard to our American Institutions, find themselves in doing so, side by side with the master spirits, are leading van of civilization all over the world.

MORE HELP—ANOTHER SIGN.

The Eagle an anti-masonic paper, published at Lock Haven, Lycoming county, has thrown off the yoke of Ritnerism, and come out in support of DAVID R. PORTER. It is edited and published by William A. Kinsloe, formerly one of the editors of the "ANTI-MASONIC STATE DEMOCRAT," of Harrisburg, (now the "Pennsylvania Intelligencer and State Democrat.") Changes from Ritner to Porter among the voters of the country, by dozens, are an every day occurrence; but an active and talented editor, who has for several years ardently supported Ritner and Antimasonry, to change, and come over with his paper, is an event which shows the rottenness and corruption of Ritner's party to be great indeed. We give the address of Mr. Kinsloe, and ask for it a careful perusal.—Keystone.

A few weeks since, we supposed the Ritner party in Pennsylvania to be honest, high-minded and just, but since that time we have become acquainted with circumstances which forces us, reluctantly too, to withdraw our aid from that party, and give it to one which we have hitherto opposed with all the zeal and energy we were capable of bringing to bear against it. This change in our political course has not been the result of disappointment in obtaining a portion of the loaves and fishes, or a desire to be with the strong party. We weighed the matter coolly and dispassionately, and came to the conclusion that it is much better to be branded a 'traitor,' 'turn-coat,' and all other epithets which will be applied to us, than knowingly support a party whose officers are so base and corrupt as to declare that it is better to SPEND THE WHOLE OF THE APPROPRIATION MADE TO THE WEST BRANCH CANAL, IN SECURING THE ELECTION OF JOSEPH RITNER, THAN TO HAVE PORTER ELECTED.

Ever since we arrived at the age which entitles Pennsylvanians to a vote, our aim has been to have honest rulers elected, who will study the interests of the state alone, and disregard the low, petty schemes, too frequently resorted to by these in power to retain their offices. In 1835 we opposed Gov. Wolf, not so much because we disliked the great leading measures of his administration, but because we believed that every office holder under him was engaged in a warfare against the people in order to be able to glut themselves on office, and we now oppose Joseph Ritner for the same reason.

We have always believed, that a party long in power, becomes corrupt; but we had no idea, until the letting of the Siamahoning extension of the West Branch Canal, that the Ritner party, in 1838, would be found guilty of the very charges made against the Canal Commissioners in 1835. We honestly supposed the old Canal Commissioners to have wasted the people's money, and to have squandered large sums on favorites; now we know the present Commissioners to be pursuing this very same course, and sooner than support such men, we would suffer the great UNCHAINED to take us under his care.

Prior to the letting, we were frequently told by Porter men, that favoritism would be resorted to by Mr. Stevens, in securing to Ritner men the most profitable sections, without any regard to the price at which they bid. We at that time denied the truth of this assertion, but now we know they were correct.

In changing our support from one candidate to the other, we do not wish to be understood as changing our former political principles; we go for the same measures now that we ever went for—among which are, a sound currency—an enlarged and liberal system of Internal Improvements—a universal system of Education, and a wise, honest and economical administration of the affairs of Pennsylvania.

Luzerne Democratic County Meeting.

Never have we seen so potent a demonstration of zeal in a good cause, as was exhibited at the Meeting last evening. The people spoke in their majesty, and the disorganizers were rebuked. We have not one word to say about their course, other than that we are sorry to see men lose the confidence of their former friends, by acts of indiscretion and selfishness. When individuals who have received the countenance and support of the Democratic party lose all sense of gratitude for favors received, and abuse that friendship which had warmed them into life, they must expect to receive the just retribution which such conduct merits. We repeat it—the efforts and designs of the disorganizers are defeated. There will be no dissension; the people will do their own business in their own way; and PORTER and DEMOCRACY will bear the ascendancy in Old Luzerne. Wyoming Republican.

Cobbet once compared the interest excited by watching a certain politician's career, to that which is felt on witnessing a duck hunt; the principal curiosity being to guess, when the duck dives, where it will come up again.

Why dont you wear your ring my dear?" said a father in a ball-room to his daughter. "Because, papa, it hurts me when any one squeezes my hand." "What business have you to have your hand squeezed?" "Certainly none—but still you know, papa, one would like to have it in squeezable order."

SHINPLASTERS.—A general joy is felt at the prospect of being soon rid of this noisome currency.—Some losses will undoubtedly be sustained by fraudulent issues, though we believe that most of this currency will be made good to the holders. Those who have it in their possession should listen with distrust to discrediting reports, as speculators may take this course to buy up sound issues at a depreciated value. We observe that an attempt is made, amongst others, to discredit the notes issued by the Harrisburg, Portsmouth, Mount Joy and Lancaster rail road company, which is done without cause. This company is known to be perfectly solvent, and its stock must soon be equal to any in the state. There is not the least doubt but all its notes will be honorably redeemed, and as they bear an interest of five per cent, those who keep them a while will not be the losers. Keystone.

DEMOCRATIC REVIEW.

THE next, or ninth, number of the Democratic Review will be published on the first of September, commencing the third volume. The first number of the Democratic Review having been published in October, 1836, in advance of the regular monthly issue commencing in January, 1838, it becomes necessary to intermit one month's publication, so as to bring the usual series of twelve numbers within the present year. Advantage will be taken of this delay to complete in the next, or September, number the "History of the last session of Congress," executed in the same manner as the "History of the Extra session," which gave such general satisfaction in the January and February numbers of the Democratic Review.
