

"TRADE WITHOUT FEAR"

BLOOMSBURG:

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1838.

VICTORY—VICTORY.
NINE CHEERS FOR DEMOCRATIC COLUMBIA.

Last Tuesday was a glorious day for the democracy of Columbia County. Every man was at his post, and done his duty manfully. There were 3703 votes polled, being an increase of several hundred over the number at any former election. General Porter's majority far exceeds our expectations, it being:

1524,

the greatest democratic majority ever given in the county. The whole democratic ticket is elected. Make way for Columbia County.

PENNSYLVANIA

Is Safe.

The following are the reported majorities as far as received—we cannot of course, vouch for their correctness, but believe them nearly correct. In relation to the votes of Dauphin and Adams counties, the Key stone says:

In Halifax, Dauphin county, there were two elections held. There being no doubt of the illegality of that held by the federalists, we do not include it in our majority. They polled 293 votes as we understand.

In Adams county, we learn that upwards of 1000 of their majority was given in one township, where there are only 300 legal voters—the rest were made up of unaturalized foreigners and importations from Maryland. The real legal majority in Adams, does not probably exceed 600 voters.

The strong holds of the opposition are heard from. We think the majority will be such as will do credit to the democracy of the Keystone State.

PORTER'S MAJORITY 1524.

UNPRECEDENTED DEMOCRATIC TRIUMPH.

Maryland Redeemed.

Our correspondent in Baltimore, says the Philadelphia Times, has furnished us with complete returns from every county in Maryland, which gives GRAYSON, the Democratic candidate for Governor, the splendid majority of 409.

MARYLAND LEGISLATURE.

According to the Reformed Constitution there are 100 members of the legislature, 21 Senators and 79 Delegates—51 being a majority in joint ballot.

The Baltimore Democratic Herald says—We have elected 10 Senators, and 39 Delegates as far as heard from, and have fair prospects of a majority of 2 on joint ballot.

We claim the Senator from Montgomery, a sub-treasurer man, who ran as an independent candidate, and was elected by the democrats with the aid of a few federalists this will give us 11 Senators. In Kent county we have two Delegates and there is a tie for the third. We have no doubt the whole delegation from Kent will be ours. This will give us 40 Delegates, sufficient to elect a United States Senator.

Grayson's vote,	23,643
Steel's vote,	23,234

Grayson's majority, 409

The Count de Survilleirs, (Joseph Bonaparte,) with a suite consisting of M. M. L. Maillard, A. Maillard, M. Thebaud, Miss Thebaud, Dr. A. Clark and nine servants, arrived at New York on Sunday in the London packet ship Philadelphia, Capt. Morgan.

There are now eight hundred and forty six persons confined in Sing-Sing—forty-eight of whom are women.

Aid to Confession.—A Portuguese cobbler used to beat his wife most unmercifully a few days before his attendance on his confessor. A neighbour remonstrated on his cruelty and inquired into the cause of it.—"Why," said the cobbler, "I am a very great sinner, but have unfortunately a very short memory, so that I should forget many of my sins did I not beat my wife regularly before confession; and then I am sure that she will put me in mind of every one of them."

A Superb Steam Boat.—The largest steamboat on the Western waters is the Illinois, a new and superb vessel of 750 tons burthen, and which has just commenced running between Detroit and Buffalo. She belongs to O. Neilberry & Co. at Detroit, and is intended for the upper Lakes. She has 210 feet length on deck, and 29 beam—water wheels 25 feet diameter—engine built by Allaire, of New York—the saloon splendid—the state rooms spacious and lodging 300 persons—forward cabin for 300 persons—There is more timber in her hull than in any other vessel on the lakes. Mr. Goodell was the builder. Capt. Blake, a veteran, is to command this superb boat.

The Commissioners of Malta have reported the cause of the poverty of the inhabitants of that island, to be "the providence of the people in multiplying their numbers beyond the demand for their labor."

There were upwards of 400 passengers from Kennebec to Boston on the first inst.

Case of Crim Con.—Monday a cause was tried in the Court of Common Pleas, in which John L. Cooper, charged Washburn A. Kean, the defendant, with having had a criminal conversation with Margaret, the plaintiff's wife. The circumstantial testimony rendered the seductions and criminal intercourse plain and palpable—and as the result of the intimacy, Mrs. Cooper left her husband, and four small children, one of them a nursing infant, in February last, and went off with the defendant. The jury, in consequence of the aggravated character of the case, of service, comfort, &c. brought in a verdict of $3000 damages and 8 cents cost. The defendant is represented as worth nothing.—N. Y. Trans.

The Stockbridge and Brothertown Indians, on their reservation on the east side of Lake Winnebago, have this year raised, we are informed, enough bread stuff for their own consumption.

The Autocrat Nicholas has sent forth an ukase commanding all the Poles to adopt the Russian costume.

Trouzendorf, the celebrated German school master of the sixteenth century, encouraged his scholars to learn music by saying—"Learn to sing, my dear boys, and then, if you go to heaven, the angels will admit you into their choir."

Twenty military companies were to assemble at Hopkinton, Massachusetts, on the 10th inst. to celebrate the anniversary of the "surrender of Cornwallis."

Foul Murder.—A brute in human shape, named William Dunlap, jr. was arrested at Jaysburg, Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, charged with the murder of his own wife. The parties had separated, and in consequence of the wife's refusing to give up the infant child, the altercation took place which resulted in her death in about 24 hours.—She was wounded in several places, her arm nearly separated from her body, and her skull badly fractured. Dunlap attempted suicide.

The Keene N. H. Sentinel states that two girls were severely wounded in Gilsum, in that state, a few days since, by the discharge of a gun in the hands of another girl. She had found a percussion cap, and took the gun not knowing that it was loaded for the purpose of exploding it. About two thirds of the charge entered the left shoulder and breast of one, and the right shoulder of the other. It was hoped that the wounds might not prove fatal in either case.

Pennsylvania College.—By the annual catalogue recently published of the officers and students of Pennsylvania College, at Gettysburg, we observe that there are now 138 pupils in the several classes of the institution. The course of study in this institution is such as to commend it to the notice of those interested in the sound and safe education of youth—the discipline being as nearly as possible parental. The whole expense for board, tuition, &c. varies from 130 to 160 dollars per year.

A shrewd and lively young belle was introduced a few evenings since, says the Boston Express, to a bombastic little youth, about as diminutive in his personal appearance as a man might well be. After conversing with her for some minutes, he turned to leave the room, when as he was on the point of opening the door, the young lady innocently observed, "Pray don't trouble yourself, there is the key-hole."

Touching Dress.—There are some promotions in life which, independent of the more substantial rewards they offer, acquire peculiar value and dignity from the coats and waistcoats connected with them. A field marshal has his uniform, a bishop his silk apron, a councillor his silk gown, a beadle his cocked hat. Strip the bishop of his apron, or the beadle of his cocked hat & gold lace, what are they? Men—mere men. Promote them, raise them to higher and different offices in the state; and, divested of their black silk aprons and cocked hats, they shall still lack their own dignity and be somewhat shorn of their influence with the multitude. Dignity, and even holiness too, sometimes, are more questions of coat and waistcoat than some people imagine.—"Boz," in Bentley's Miscellany.

MARRIED.—By Rev. D. S. Tobias, on the 11th inst. Mr. George Smith, of Union county, to Miss Elizabeth Orl, of Columbia county.

By the same on the same day, Mr. Ulrich Hauser, of Northampton county, to Miss Mary Maurer of Danville, Columbia county.
