

Destructive Fire.—On the morning of the 19th inst. says the New Berlin Times, between the hours of 1 and 2 o'clock, the alarm of fire was given, and upon examination it was discovered to be in the public house occupied and owned by Mr. Samuel Aurand, which was entirely consumed with nearly all its contents. Before the citizens of the place and those in attendance at Court could arrive at the scene of conflagration, the whole building was wrapped in one flame, and presented a spectacle awfully sublime, which, for a moment, seemed to paralyze the efforts that were then being made to arrest the devouring element, by the inmates of the house. It was soon discovered that it was impossible to prevent its total destruction. The damage we are informed is estimated to be between 3 and 1000 dollars, of which Mr. Aurand was principal sufferer.

Several individuals who were regular boarders, and a large number that had taken lodgings during the week lost nearly all their clothing, and some of them barely escaped with their lives.

A few days since one of the burthen cars on the Chambersburg Rail Road, took fire about a distance from Newville, and before could be extinguished, the car and nearly all its contents were consumed. The loss is estimated at about $1500.
