

BLOOMSBURG:

SATURDAY, APRIL 13, 1839.

To our Patrons!

No. 52 will complete one year since the "Columbia Democrat" came into the hands of the present publisher; and to such as have complied with the terms of publication, his thanks are due, as they have assisted to lighten the burden of a printer's troubles, which are, at best, almost too heavy to be borne. Those who have not, will confer a favor, not only on the publisher, but on his creditors, by handing over the ready in due season.

REMOVAL.

The Office of the "COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT" is removed into the building opposite St. Paul's Church, Main-street.

MILITARY APPOINTMENTS.

The following list of Staff Officers have been appointed for the 71st Reg. 1st Brig. 8th Division of Pennsylvania Militia, and are to be obeyed and respected accordingly. ALEXANDER McCARTY, Adjutant. ALEXANDER EMMET, Ser. Major. MILTON KERR, Quarter Master. THOMAS H. SWABY, Surgeon. PETER VASTINE, Sur. Mates. D. W. MONTGOMERY, Charles Kahler, Drum Major. JONATHAN PORTNER, Fife Major.

Those persons heretofore holding these offices, will consider themselves as superseded by the above appointments.

MATHEW McDOWELL, Col.

Several banks in Georgia, Mississippi, and Michigan have again suspended specie payments. It is rumored that the New York Banks, in secret caucus, have also resolved to suspend. Notwithstanding this ruinous policy of deranging the business of the country to fill their own coffers with usurious interest, is pursued by the banks, yet we have men among us, and those too, who claim to belong to the democratic party, who are straining every nerve to locate one of these leeches within the bounds of Democratic Columbia. Will it be permitted? We think not.

Some four weeks since great excitement was created in Wilkesbarre, by the attempt of an abolitionist to promulgate his mischievous doctrines in that quiet community; and the excitement was greatly increased by the indictment of twenty four of the citizens of that Borough for participating, in what the abolitionists termed a riot, but what we should denominate an act of pure justice to any individual who will set at defiance the expressed will of a community, even to

"Riding on a Rail."

But it seems by the following article from the Advocate, that the gentleman prosecutor has thought that discretion was "the better part of valor," and therefore not appear before the court to support his charge "for riding by compulsion." Whether he came to this conclusion through a desire to avoid taxing the liberality of the citizens for another "gratuitous horse ride," we know not; but we think that the warm weather must have admonished him that an overcoat would not feel very comfortable.

"The Affair of the 11th and 12th ult."—A bill of indictment for riot was preferred and found on Thursday last, against 24 of our citizens as principal aiders and abettors of the transactions of the 11th and 12th of March in this Borough. On Saturday 19 went voluntarily before the court, and entered individually into recognizance to appear and stand trial. On Monday afternoon the prosecutor, at the solicitation of a number of respectable citizens, declined to appear, and the Prosecuting Attorney, with the approbation of the Court, entered a nolli prosequi, the defendants were discharged, and there the matter rests."

Upwards of two thousand barrels of flour was sold at Wheeling, on the 15th ult. at $5 50 per barrel.

The American Farmer states that a crop of the Morus Multicaulis trees, which was raised in North Carolina, and brought to Baltimore a few days since, was sold for thirty thousand dollars.

GENTLEMEN'S MAGAZINE.

We have just received the April number of this valuable-miscellaneous Monthly, and it far surpasses any of its predecessors in interest and variety. It is embellished with a fine steel engraving, representing an alligator defending the carcass of a dead elephant from the attacks of the vultures, besides containing two other plates. This is one of the most valuable and cheap miscellanies now published, some of our most able writers are contributors to its columns, and we cannot too often recommend it to the attention of the public.

The number of daily papers published in Philadelphia is fourteen—weekly seventeen—and monthly periodicals fourteen.

There are said to be no less than 150 patriots still remaining under sentence of death at Kingston, Upper Canada.

The Connecticut Election has terminated in favor of the whigs.

Governor Fairfield, of Maine, is up again for re-election—it is thought there will be no opposition to him.

The April Court for Columbia County, commences its session at Danville, on Monday next.

Presidents of the United States.—Ex-President Jackson completed his 72d year on the 15th of March, having been born on the 15th of March, 1767—General Washington died in his 68th year—John Adams in his 91st—Thomas Jefferson in his 84th—James Madison in his 80th—and James Monroe in his 73d. Ex-President John Q. Adams is now in his 75th, and Mr. Van Buren is 56, or thereabouts.

Important if true.—We learn by a gentleman direct from Brunswick, Maine, says the Boston News, who arrived in this city last evening, that an express passed through that place on the day our informant left, from the frontier, with a message to Gov. Fairfield. The report runs, that the document contained intelligence, that an invasion of the disputed territory by a large armed force of the English took place, and drove off our land agent with the civil force stationed there to protect our rights, took possession of all the timber belonging to us, and killed two of our men!

A new Fanny Wright has sprung up in New York. Mrs. Rose, a Polish woman, divorced from her husband, doubtless for sufficient reason, is lecturing on Sunday evenings at Tammany Hall. She is opposed to marriage, and all such monopolies, to their fullest extent.

The Columbus Democrat thus briefly sums up (under the head of "matrimony and its awful consequences") a few of the most important events in the life of a citizen of that place. He was married on Tuesday evening! on Wednesday evening his bride presented him with an heir! on Thursday he got drunk! and on Friday he was committed to Jail of Lowndes county for debt!! Facts—beat this who can!

It appears from the report of the Board of public works for Illinois, that the internal improvement system in that state embraces 1342 miles of rail road, estimated to cost $11,000,000. The canal from the Illinois river to Lake Michigan will cost several millions, and it has been in rapid progress for some time.

Spring Business.—It is said that a much larger amount of business was done, during the month of March, by some of the principle houses in Market street, than during the same month for several years past.

Poulson.

The New York Canals are to be opened on the 20th of this month; more than a month later than the Canals of Pennsylvania.

The first native born citizens of Ohio, John McIntosh, is now 49 years of age.—He was born in a fort, near the mouth of the Muskingum. Lo! There are now five thousand scholars in the schools, between the ages of 4 and 21.

Two Americans named Graham and Bailey, have been confined in jail at Niagara for enticing soldiers to desert.

Louis Philippe was described as in much difficulty at the last dates from Paris.

A few inches of snow fell at Montreal, on the evening of the 28th ult.

A mad dog was seen in the neighborhood of Germantown a day or two ago.

The Mayor of Detroit having moved into the suburbs out of the limits of the city, has thereby forfeited his office.

The Baltimore papers of yesterday announce the death of Heziah Niles, Esq., long known as the editor of Niles's Register.

It is said that five dollar notes of the Girard Bank, altered to tens, are in circulation in this city.

The prohibition law against liquor, limiting the sale of spirits to 15 gallons, went into force in Massachusetts on Monday.—The Boston Courier says it is too sumptuary and aristocratic to be enforced; allowing the rich wine, and debarring the poor from spirits.

Suicide.—A woman named Lydia Simpson Rundoot, committed suicide in New York a few days since by taking arsenic. She was induced to the fatal act, by the brutality of a drunken husband, who beat her until she escaped from him and concealed herself in the cellar where she remained all night, and next morning took a teaspoon full of the poison.

Horrible.—A female in Fairfax county, Va. is said to have been arrested last week, on charge of killing her two children by throwing them into a well.

Erekrine gave a very lively illustration of the text, "Union is strength," when he said of a place where he had slept very ill, that if the fleas had been unanimous they would have lifted him out of bed.

Islands of Ice.—Capt Pell, of the Havre packet Ulica, arrived this morning, reports that on the 21st March, in lat. 44.45, long. 48, he fell in with large quantities of ice, in fields and bergs, the former in great extent, and the latter of mountainous dimensions. He ran southward 90 miles and westward 100 miles through these fields and islands of ice, some of the latter being from one to two hundred feet in height.

N. Y. Com. Adv.

HYMENIAL.

MARRIED.—In Mount Pleasant, on Thursday afternoon last, by the Rev. Mr. Drake, Mr. Abraham W. A. Kline, to Miss Rebecca, daughter of Mr. Peter Omak, all of that township.

In Bloomsburg, on the same day, by the same, Mr. William Miller, of Mount Pleasant, to Miss Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. Peter Everett, of Madison.

At Farlow's Grove, Mercer county, Illinois, on the 7th ult. Doctor Joseph S. Maus of Mackinaw, Tazewell county, Illinois, to Miss Susan Boon, daughter of Mr. James Boon, of the former place, and all formerly of this county.

On the 11th instant, by the Rev. William J. Eyer, Mr. Daniel Lee, to Miss Rebecca Stambach, both of Cattawissa.

OBITUARY.

DIED.—On the 5th instant, at Wilkesbarre, after an illness of only half an hour, Mrs. Sarah Helme, wife of Oliver Helme, jr. of that place, and sister of Rev. G. C. Drake, of this town, aged 27.

COMMUNICATED.

DIED.—On Sabbath afternoon, March 31st, at the residence of his father in Bloom township, Mr. CHARLES MCCLURE, aged 26 years, after a protracted illness.—Having given evidence of an interest in the peace speaking blood of Jesus Christ, death was no doubt, a joyful release, to his long fettered soul; yet affection prompts the rising sigh, while tears of regret bedews his remains. This is the third time, within a few years, that his afflicted family have been called to follow a beloved child to an early grave; yet they sorrow not as those who have no hope. Let this be their consolation, the prospect of being reanimated, a redeemed family around the throne of love.
