

Our very modest, truth loving neighbors of the Harrisburg have been flung bottom upwards, this week, by our question as to their knowledge of the "Bloomsburg Rail Road Bill," introduced into the Legislature by Mr. Colt, and in consequence, their vision is so much more obscured than usual that they have exceeded their usual quandum of misrepresentation and abuse. Hence comes their term liar so freely used in their last paper, in regard to us, because we obtain more correct statements of the result of the Virginia election through our Democratic channels, than they do from their never to be relied on Federal sources. We stated last week, that it was believed their would be a Democratic majority on joint ballot in the legislature, and further advises strengthening that belief. The Globe claims a Democratic majority of TWO, and the Richmond Enquirer classes the members elected as follows:—81 Democrats, 83 Whigs and Conservatives, and 3 doubtful; but think that the 3 doubtful will go with the Democrats; and adds "Every thing satisfies us, that the people are up, and that the state is safe. The Whig presses will put forth their insidious and deceptive statements, to cheer their followers, and to deceive the ignorant—but as true as there is a sun in the firmament, the vessel will be righted in December next—and next year the Old Dominion will go for the little Magician." Last year the whig majority was 24. At the close of the last session of Congress, the delegation stood 11 Van Buren treasury men, to 10 of the pie-bald opposition—now the Enquirer says, that 12 Democrats, 1 sub-treasury Whig, and 8 Federalists and Conservatives are elected, and that a majority of the popular votes, both for Congress and Assembly, are Democratic. What a glorious Whig victory this is; a few such would row them up Salt river and land them in the mud. And what liars we must be to have made the statement in our last. Oh! shame, where is thy blush.

We publish to-day, the advertisement of Krownover, for the Letting of the Canal Bridges, gratis, for the good of the public, not having been authorised by him to do so. We suppose he considers it unnecessary that this section of the county should be informed upon the subject, thinking, perhaps, it is best that they should have as little knowledge of, as they have influence over, his official transactions.

We have received the first number of a new paper just started at Berwick, published by M. Davis, and J. F. Wilbor. It eschews politics. "Poor prospect ahead," as the squirrel said ven he entered a crowded field with a half-starved, snivelled nosed quadruped by his side.

Both houses of the legislature have passed the bill for the payment of the volunteers, and it has received the signature of the Governor.

We learn from the Tiffin, Ohio, Gazette, that the 23d and 26th days of May were distinguished throughout Ohio, by tremendous storms of wind, rain and hail, and that great damage was sustained by the crops and buildings. In Maumee city a block of buildings which cost $40,000 was levelled to the ground, and many others seriously injured. In Delaware, Delaware county, ten thousand panes of glass were broken by the hail. Many of the hail stones weighing from two to six ounces, and measured from five to eleven inches in circumference. Several houses and barns were struck by lightning, and some lives lost.

T. W. Dyott has been sentenced 7 years to the Penitentiary.

The Rising Generation.—The New York Gazette says:—"There is a gang of about 400 young thieves, male and female, in New York, who daily make a descent from the upper part of the city into the two lower wards, and who boldly break open and pillage packages of merchandize, and apparently with impunity."

A New Fashion.—It is said that the subscribers to a paper somewhere in Ohio, have adopted the fashion of paying for it six months in advance!! We hope the fashion will prevail in Pennsylvania.

Unprecedented Travelling.—The Baltimore Patriot says, "That two British Officers of the Royal Artillery, were on Parade with their battalion, on Friday two weeks at Woolwich, England, (some miles on the eastern side of London,) and dining yesterday with one of their countrymen at Belzhoover's Hotel, in Baltimore. They came by the Great Western."

Sir Walter Scott, for the whole of his writings, now comprised in eighty volumes received not less than £250,000.

We learn from the Providence Journal, that the butchers of that city are about entering into an agreement among themselves not to purchase any more meat from the drovers at the high price of $10 per hundred.

A Noble Tribute.—A celebrated British writer has said, "America is the Paradise of poor men." Our greatest statesmen have all risen from indigence and obscurity, by their own merits. Virtue is indeed its own reward.

It is estimated that New York city will contain, in the year 1900, 5,000,000 persons. In the year 2000, she will surpass London.

A Screw already Loose.—Joseph H. Spayd, Esq. of Berks county has requested his name to be withdrawn from the Harrison and Webster electoral ticket.

At a late election in New Hampshire, the Democrats have elected all their members of Congress.

Yesterday, Friday, was the day appointed for a new election in Adams county. The Democrats have nominated James M. Divitt, Esq. Thaddy Stevens runs on his own hook.

The arguments in the case of Oristus Collins are not to be made before the 20th inst.
