

The greatest liar always cries liar first, and our whig neighbor appears to act upon this adage to cover up his own iniquity and innate propensity to avoid the truth, which so strongly develops itself in almost every article which he pens. We do not know as we ought to blame him for a fault which has become so nearly allied to his very existence, but we do not think we are doing our duty as moral censors, not to point out occasionally, some of the most glaring falsehoods that he weekly disseminates through his paper. For instance, as a specimen of his tact in this way, we would mention a single article published in his last paper, of about twenty lines, in reference to us, in which there are not less than seven or eight gross derelictions from the truth, without the least particle of ground or evidence to justify himself in his assertions; in fact the whole article is a tissue of falsehoods from beginning to end, evidently the offspring of a distempered and depraved mind, and must have proceeded from his confirmed habit of avoiding the truth, and his determination never to publish it. From this the public may judge how much credit is to be attached to most of the articles that appear in that paper.

The Legislature is to adjourn next Tuesday, the 25th inst.

VIRGINIA ELECTION.

The Whigs will continue to boast of their great victory in Virginia, with the same tenacity that a drowning man clings to a straw, and with as much prospect of being saved from the tide that is now sitting against them. In the last legislature they had a clear majority of 24 on joint ballot; now, if any majority at all, it cannot exceed four or five, including conservatives, with a decided majority of the delegates in Congress against them, as well as over 3500 majority of the electors opposed to the Whigs and Conservatives united. Not only this, but the Richmond Enquirer asserts positively, that neither Wm. C. Rives nor any whig, can be elected to the United States Senate.

"STATE CAPITOL GAZETTE."

We have received the first number of the "State Capitol Gazette," a new Democratic paper just started at Harrisburg, published by Messrs. Holbrook, Hynlock & Hatton. We like much the tone and character of their address and leading editorials. Calm and dispassionate, yet, firm and decided—free from all that low scurrilous personally abusive matter which too frequently characterises the political presses of the present day. Such a paper has been long wanted at the capitol of the state, and we do believe that there is good sense enough in the community to sustain it, and we hope that the proprietors will receive such a reward for their labors as will enable them to "go ahead."

We have received the June number of "BURTON'S GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE," and we find it a charming number. This work increases in value as it progresses and we think the editor has fully redeemed all the pledges he has heretofore given in regard to it. On its first page is a splendid steel engraving of "The Rhinoceros in its native wilds," and in the sporting department there are several first rate wood cuts of dogs.—The literary contents are superior.

A series of articles, entitled "Sketches from the 'Log Book of Old Ironsides,' the Congress Frigate," by one of her officers, will be commenced in the July number.—A Tale from the pen of Edgar K. Poe, Esq. who will hereafter be a fellow laborer in the editorial field—the life of a distinguished American writer—Romance of American History—Tales of the late War—Eternal Fire on the Capian Sea, &c.—with a treatise on Gymnastic Exercises, illustrated by engravings, with the usual miscellany, will form the contents of the July number, which will be ornamented with a splendid steel engraving, representing Shakspeare performing before Queen Elizabeth.

The venerable editor of the Easton Sentinel, Mr. Hutton, has transferred his interest in that establishment to A. H. SENS-MAN, and it comes to us this week in a new dress and enlarged form.

Splendid preparations are being made for celebrating the coming 4th of July at Harrisburg, by the Democratic party. It is expected that President Van Buren will be present.

Gov. Porter's Message—The Public Improvements.

We invite the earnest attention of every man and woman in this commonwealth, to the very able, pointed, and patriotic message of Gov. Porter, in our columns to day. Plain, simple and comprehensive, like the message of Jefferson, it exhibits in a few words the ruinous and disgraceful consequences of the course which the federal members of the legislature seem resolved to pursue. If anything can recall the legislators to a sense of duty and awaken the people to the madness of their measures, this message will do it. It puts the responsibility on the right shoulders, and leaves to those who are disposed to see the public improvements go to destruction, no pretext for the act. The people will see, that the executive has done all in his power, to rescue the state from impending ruin; and if he does not prevail, on their heads be the responsibility, who do the deed.

If the work on the unfinished lines be allowed to stop, and the business on the completed lines be arrested for the want of timely repairs, the Governor and his friends can boldly appeal to the people on the rectitude of his course, and fearlessly demand a favourable judgement. Will the federal legislators dare to do the same?

Keystone.

Adams County Election.—Thaddeus Stevens has been returned to the Legislature by a majority of from three to four hundred! about thirteen hundred less than he obtained at his election—a strong evidence of the change of opinion which has taken place in Adams county against the "great agitator." The election of Mr. Stevens was not unexpected; yet with the small majority he has obtained—much less than even his opponents anticipated—the Whig and antimasonic editors are crowing as though they had gained "Another Glorious Victory. It won't do, gentlemen, you can't render Mr. Stevens popular again, any how you can fix it.—State Capital Gazette.

Pardon of a young man, of Shippensburg, Pa. by the British Queen.

The Washington Globe publishes the annexed account of an occurrence which reflects great lustre on the benignity of the British Queen and the active benevolence of Mr. Stevenson. The circumstances show the high personal estimation in which Mr. Stevenson is held by the young and popular sovereign of England.

The particulars as furnished to the Globe are, that some time during the last year, Reynolds, alias David Deal, of Shippensburg, Cumberland county, Pa., a promising youth of 19, visited Buffalo, in the state of New York, where he was persuaded to enlist with a company of volunteers to join the Patriots in the invasion of Canada.—Young Deal, with several others was soon captured by a company of British Lancers, was tried, and sentenced to death. His situation was made known to his friends, by whose entreaty Sir George Arthur was induced to suspend the execution of the sentence for a time, and the young man was sent to England and committed to prison, there to await the approval of the sentence passed upon him in Canada, and its final execution. The Rev. Mr. Cookman, Judge McLean and Dr. Sewall, who were informed of the situation of young Deal, and of the distress of the family, addressed letters to Mr. Stevenson, setting forth the circumstances of the case, and requesting his influence with the authorities of the British Government to save, if possible, the young man's life. Mr. Stevenson made every effort in his official capacity, but in vain; when he applied to the Queen, and requested his release as a personal favor, upon which she promptly granted a free pardon, and the young man is now on his passage home. And thus an aged father and mother, and a large circle of other family connexions, are made to rejoice in the restoration of a favorite boy; who, we hope, will learn a salutary lesson from the consequence of his indiscretion, and long live to thank Mr. Stevenson for his disinterested exertions, and bless Queen Victoria for the exercise of her clemency.
