

"TRUTH WITHOUT FEAR"

BLOOMSBURG :

SATURDAY, JUNE 29, 1839.

LADIES' FAIR.

The Ladies of Bloomsburg will hold a Fair, in the Store Room in the house of Mr. Daniel Gross, in Bloomsburg, to commence on the 4th day of July next, and continue three days. A large assortment of valuable, and ornamental articles, prepared with judgment and taste, through the industry of the Ladies of this place, will be offered for sale, for the benefit of the Pres. Church.

Bloomsburg, June 22, 1839.

Appointment by the Governor.

Dr. Seth Salisbury, of Bradford county, to be Aid-de-camp to the Governor, with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel.

THE LETTING.

As we expected, a large number of citizens of this and the adjoining counties, assembled at Danville, on Tuesday last, and deposited proposals with the Supervisor, for the rebuilding of Bridges on the Canal between Northumberland and Berwick, but up to the last accounts, nothing officially was known as to whom the contracts were given, nor, of course, of the prices to be paid. We learn, however, from some of the proposers, that bids were offered by good and responsible mechanics, for both the stone and wood work, at much lower prices than were to have been paid under the private contracts, notwithstanding the work is to be of a superior quality.

SURGICAL.

We have the pleasure of noticing, that the delicate, and, in this part of the country, the operation of couching, for the removal of Cataract from the eye, was recently performed by Dr. J. Ramsey, of this place, with, as we learn, the most perfect success. The subject was a woman of about middle age, who had been entirely blind for several months. Since the operation she can see distinctly, and says she is perfectly restored. The habit of sending persons afflicted in this way to the most celebrated Oculist in our large cities, renders this operation one of uncommon occurrence in a country practice, therefore we notice this case, that those similarly afflicted may profit.

Eighteen States have elected their representatives to the twenty-sixth Congress, and so far the Democrats have a majority. The following eight States have yet to vote, and their elections take place in the following order:—

The newspapers throughout the United States speak cheerily of the prospect of the coming harvest; in this neighborhood it promises far more than a usual quantity.

The New York American asserts that Mr. Webster will not be a candidate for the Vice Presidency at the ensuing election.

The Hon. Calvin Blythe, President Judge of the Judicial District composed of the counties of Dauphin, Lebanon, and Schuylkill, has resigned his Judgeship.

It is rumored that the Pennsylvania Telegraph and Pennsylvania Intelligencer, two Antimasonic papers at Harrisburg, are to be united.

The President of the United States arrived at Harrisburg on Saturday last, where he remained until Monday morning, when he left for New York. He was at Lebanon on Monday, and at Reading on Tuesday.

The Legislature adjourned on Tuesday last. An appropriation bill was passed, the particulars of which we have not learned.

We have received from Mr. Colt, a list of the acts passed at the adjourned session of the Legislature. In this list we find the following:—"An act to incorporate the BLOOMSBURG RAIL ROAD AND IRON COMPANY." What say you neighbor, is this true?

FOR THE COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT.

Friend Webb,

I have noticed in your neighbor's Register of the 11th, a pretended communication, signed "J," the object of which seems to be, to throw the authorship of a communication of the Berwick Sentinel, of some weeks past, signed "Jumart," upon a respectable, and more intelligent citizen, than "Jumart" can be, even when years shall have brought a beard upon his chin. "Jumart" and "J" are doubtless the same person, though some individuals, better versed in lexicographic reading than Tyro is, may have pointed out to him the disgusting meaning of his first signature, "Jumart," and as a convenient way of covering his ignorance, he has, as "J," attempted to throw his foundling brat before the door of an individual who could never be made to notice either "Jumart" or "J," or the ignoramus who has sent them forth to the public. If the writer of these communications should not attach a caution to his pen, some of his unmeaning language, as well as that portion of his language of which he knows not the meaning, may be noticed after the FOURTH OF JULY.

P. S. If your neighbor editor, or his correspondent, meant any allusion to "insolvent laws," he may rest assured that in the neighborhood named, there is no one to whom such allusion could either prospectively or prospectively apply. Can

Let them remember that glass houses, are but brittle fabrics.

Note by ourselves.—The writer must excuse us for inserting stars in lieu of his personal allusions.

IMPROVEMENT BILL.

After throwing every possible obstacle in the way of the passage of the Improvement Bill the Senate has passed it by a vote of 17 to 12. Messrs. Pearson, Sterrett, Fraley, (city,) and Miller, of the opposition, finding the measures of their party too obnoxious to be supported by honorable men, left them and supported the views of the House. Mr. Pearson declared in a speech on agreeing to the amendments of the House, that if the senate insisted on their course, they would disgrace their party, he would resign his seat in that body, and recommend to his constituents the election of a Democratic successor.

If, the Legislature were to remain in session three weeks longer, with Thaddeus Stevens to direct the movements of the opposition, the whigs would be in a contemptible minority in both Houses. The open, frank, even tenor of Gov. Porter's administration, is thus every day commanding the increased confidence of the public.
