

Nearly 800 emigrants arrived in New York on Saturday last.

It appears from Mrs. Jarvis's confession to a friend, that she ascribes their domestic infelicity to "marrying a man whom she had three times rejected."

William Pierce, aged 96, one of the last relics of the "Tea Party," was present at the Faneuil Hall celebration of the Fourth, at Boston. He was helped into his carriage by another revolutionary lad, aged eighty six.

Fires are said to be necessary, even at this season of the year, on the top of the Catskill mountain.

Fifteen or twenty soldiers of the Revolution participated in the 4th of July celebration at Hartford.

Mrs. Chapman, the accomplice of the murderer Mina, was recently in Wilkes county, Georgia, reciting passages from Shakspeare.

A New York paper states that there are 479 legal practitioners of medicine and surgery in that city, and 173 undertakers.

Benjamin B. Phillips has been sentenced to two years' imprisonment in New York, for bigamy.

The recent frightful accident at Ithaca was, it is said, the result of gross carelessness. In addition to Morse, who was literally torn to pieces, a man named Young was injured very severely, while several other persons were shockingly mutilated.

The Village Recorder states that on the 10th inst. a storm passed over the north side of that borough about midnight, attended with thunder, lightning and hail, which caused considerable damage to crops, buildings and fences within its track.

The Grand Jury of Boston, have found 21 indictments for violation of the License Law. This law is likely to give the courts abundant employment.

There was a heavy fall of snow in England as early as the 13th of October, and another on the 13th of May, making an actual winter of seven months.

A Fortunate Misfortune.—Last week, on Friday, Mrs. Colton, of Spring street, in passing down Maiden Lane, found a pocket book containing $3600 in bank bills, and other valuable papers. On returning, Mrs. C. who was making search for the lost treasure, to whom she restored it. The party was a stranger in this city, a Leather merchant, who had just disposed of his goods, and received the proceeds thereof from the Bank. The lady did not think of inquiring the stranger's name, and he was probably too overjoyed to think of mentioning it himself. This is the most fortunate misfortune we have lately heard of.

Beautiful Coincidence.—During the morning of the 4th inst. at Christ Church, Salem street, an incident occurred which would have been interpreted by the ancients as a signal of Divine approbation. The Rev. Mr. Marcus, of Nantucket, gave out to be sung the 85th Psalm, in which is the following stanza:

The birds more happy far than I,
Around thy temple throng;
Securely there they build, and there
Securely hatch their young.

While he was reading this Psalm, a dove flew in at one of the windows, and alighted on the capital of one of the pilasters, near the altar, and nearly over the head of the reader. A note of the Psalm and Hymn to be sung had been previously given, as is customary, to the choir; otherwise it might have been supposed that there was design in the selection, for the minister announced, for the second singing, the 7th Hymn, commencing—

Come holy spirit, heavenly dove,
With all thy quickning powers;
Kindle a flame of sacred love,
In these cold hearts of ours.

The preacher was unconscious of the presence of the bird, until the close of the service; and the innocent visitor was suffered to "depart in peace."

Yesterday, July 15th 1839, the marriage of a son of Eugene Beauharnois, was to be celebrated in the Kremlin, the Asiatic palace of the Czars, at Moscow, the ancient capital of all the Russias, with the eldest daughter of the reigning Emperor. Thus a son of the step-son of Bonaparte, is united with the greatest imperial family of Europe. It is not yet twenty-seven years since the Emperor Napoleon, attended by his son Eugene, captured Moscow and burnt the Kremlin; and was soon after with every sort of malediction, proscribed and dethroned, mainly by the Emperor of Russia, and chiefly because he was not the inheritor, but only the conqueror of Empires. Yet already is the stem of his stock united by marriage to the daughter of the imperial head of absolute legitimacy, which expelled him from power. While the remains of Napoleon lie, as it were unsepulchred, in a distant island, and those of his mother are not permitted to repose in any part of France, not even in their native Corsica, the grand-son of the mighty monarch, and great grand-son of his noble mother, is sought in marriage by the chief of the Empire, which controls Europe and covets Asia.

Valuable Medicine.—We do not wish to commend one good medicine at the expense of another, but we cannot forbear to notice the valuable properties possessed by the "Carminalive Balsam," and the "Expectorant," prepared by Dr. Jayne, of South Third street in this city. We have forborne to give evidence, until after a thorough trial in our own family. They are invaluable in a family of children.—Saturday Courier.

A lady who has found the following remedy for the prevention of bed-bugs, wishes to make it public:—After cleansing the bed thoroughly, rub it over with hog's lard.—The lard should be rubbed on with a woolen cloth. Bugs will not infest such a bedstead for a whole season.

A man was suddenly killed sometime since at Ellsville, Vt. He was in one of the stores of the village, talking about moving his family to another house on that day, though the rain poured down in torrents.—A bystander observed to him, "Surely you will not move your family in such a rain? He swore by the 'Lord Jesus Christ, that if it rained pitchforks, with the prongs downwards, and if it rained hell-fire, he would go!" So saying, he sprang from the door, walked about ten steps, and was struck in the mouth by lightning—his head awfully mangled and his lips still quivering with oaths—burned and swelled till it was distressing to see him. Nothing else was injured—the blasphemer only was killed.

CERTIFICATES.

JOHN SMITH, Mount Pleasant Township, Columbia County, Pa.

I consider it my duty to the afflicted, to come before the public and to make it known, that I was afflicted for a long time, with a very bad and dangerous complaint. I was unable to do any work. Doct. —, a well learned, and for a long time, an experienced physician, thought it not worth while to give me any more medicine. He thought I had to change the present for the future in quite a short time. I sent for medicine out of Tobias' Health Emporium, and under his direction, I took them, and astonishing is it to say, that I mended so fast, that I was able in a short time to hire myself out to work. I would recommend all those who are in a sickly situation, to go in time, to D. S. Tobias' Health Emporium to get relief from their sickness, &c.

Mrs. DERR, wife of John Derr, in Rohring creek Vally, Col. Co.

I wish to injure no man in his profession; neither do I wish to exalt any one beyond his merits; but duty requires that I should state the great benefits I have derived from the medicine and advice I have received from D. S. Tobias, or out of the highly praised Health Emporium, Bloomsburg. I was for a long time afflicted with the following symptoms:—great languor, flatulency, disturbed rest, nervous sick head ache, difficulty of breathing, tightness and stricture across the breast, dizziness, nervous irritability and restlessness, palpitation of the heart, costiveness, pain of the stomach, drowsiness, great debility, deficiency of the nervous energy, delirious fits, &c. I gave up every thought and hope of recovery; dire despair sat on the countenance of every person interested in my existence or happiness, and my physician, an old, learned and experienced man, Doct. R. said it was impossible for me to recover my health again, which I am ready to prove; but by persuasion, I sent for medicine out of D. S. Tobias' Health Emporium, and I have now recovered my health, and I must say, that I have never felt better in my life time, than I have done since I recovered from my last sickness. I am willing to give any person who may call, full satisfaction respecting my dangerous and painful disease, and would solemnly advise all those who are in any kind of sickness, to go to the highly praised Health Emporium, Bloomsburg, of D. S. Tobias.

LYDIA ACHENBAUCH, wife of Peter Achenbauch, Orangeville, Columbia County.

I would adopt this method of recommending your Health Emporium to the notice of the afflicted. I speak from a thorough experience of the medicine which I got of you, and of their value.—My complaint was as follows:—Continued and obstinate costiveness, violent pains, frequent nausea sickness and burning pains of the stomach, rejecting the food, appetite bad, much troubled with heartburn and flatulency, and a great many other symptoms which are too tedious to mention. My condition became alarming. Medical attendance was procured, and I was declared to be incurable by more than one physician. I took refuge to D. S. Tobias' Health Emporium, and thank my God in a very short time I felt better, and came to my natural strength again. I would recommend all and every one who are in a sickly situation, to wait no longer, but get medicine out of the Health Emporium, Bloomsburg.

Mrs. FOUST, wife of John Foust, Mahoning township, Col. Co.

I have the pleasure of informing the public, of my perfect recovery from that dreadful malady called "Flour Albus," which came so near causing my death that it appeared inevitable. I underwent a course of treatment prescribed by a celebrated physician, who visited me often, but still I got worse and worse, till I sent my husband to D. S. Tobias' Health Emporium, and the very first time I took his medicine the complaint stopped, and in a few days I was able to do my work again. I would therefore advise every one who is in an unhealthy situation to go to Tobias' Health Emporium, and suffer no more. I wish every one who reads this would keep it in his memory.

MARICHA LEIBY, wife of Jacob Leiby, Mahoning township, Columbia County.

Knowing by experience, the effect of every reference the afflicted receive of the beneficial results of medicine, I cheerfully offer mine to the public, in behalf of D. S. Tobias' medicine. I have been afflicted for a long time with the following symptoms of general debility:—Sores of the body, scurvy, diseases of the liver and skin, rash over the whole body, or a breaking out, sometimes called prickle heat, pain over the region of the heart, breast and stomach, swelling of the feet and legs, so that it was impossible for me to get on my shoes. I have used a good deal of medicine from Doct. M., but without receiving any benefit from them at all. I therefore took refuge to that much and highly praised & celebrated Health Emporium, by D. S. Tobias. In conclusion, I recommend to every one who is in an unhealthy state, to get medicine out of the Health Emporium, as I believe them to have been the means of saving my life and restoring me health and strength. I am willing to give any person who may call full satisfaction respecting my case.

SOLOMON NEWHARD, Esq. Bloom township, Col. Co.

I hereby certify, that I had a child who was afflicted with that bad complaint, called Phthisic and Choking Rheum. We had tried several experienced physicians, but nothing would relieve the child, until I went to D. S. Tobias' Health Emporium, and got some medicine, and astonishing as it is to say, the child got better the first dose we had given him.

LOOK HERE! LOOK HERE!

A certain cure for frost bitten limbs. To prove that it is a certain remedy, I would refer the public to the following.

EMANUEL LAZARUS, Merchant, Orangeville, Col. Co.

I hereby certify, that I had a boy in my store, a son of my sisters, who had both feet frozen, and they were so bad, that it was impossible to wear shoes. I had tried medicine prescribed by a physician, but without any use or benefit, when I went to D. S. Tobias' Apothecary or Health Emporium, in Bloomsburg, and got medicine out of it, and astonishing is it to say, that in quite a short time, the boys feet were well and sound. I would pray every person with frozen limbs, to go to this highly praised Health Emporium, and get medicine for that painful complaint which is a certain remedy.

Is it possible! YES INDEED!!
