

United States and Texas.—The Hon. John Forsyth, on the part of the United States Government, and General Memucan Hunt on the part of the Texan Government have been appointed commissioners to run and mark the boundary line between the two countries, as established by the treaty of 1838, between the United States and Mexico. The ratifications of the convention to this effect have been exchanged, and the Commissioners must enter upon their duties on or before the 12th of October next.

Take Notice.—The Postmaster General, in a letter to the postmaster of Newport, (R. I.) says:

"Postmasters may enclose the money in a letter to the publisher of a newspaper, to pay the subscription of a third person, and frank the letter if written by himself, but if the letter be written by any other person, the postmaster cannot frank it."

By this it will be seen that distant subscribers to newspapers can remit the amount of subscription without expence to either themselves or the publishers.—Baltimore Sun.

Bigamy.—William Daughten, formerly of Philadelphia, a paper stainer by trade, "young and handsome" of course, has been committed to prison in Boston to await trial charged with bigamy. He has married three women, who are all living.

A Fine bundle of Fellows.—The following is a copy of a toast given at a celebration of the 4th of July, at Madison Ia.

"The Independent Order of Odd Fellows: We know them to be good fellows; we see they are happy fellows; we hope they may live to be old fellows; that their sweethearts may prove them to be gallant fellows; their wives faithful fellows; and may all their sons be patriotic fellows."

The qualified electors of said county are also required to vote for or against the erection of a Poor House in the said county of Columbia in pursuance of an act of assembly, passed at the last session of the legislature.

The general election and election for inspectors and judges to be opened between the hours of 8 and 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and shall continue without interruption or adjournment until 7 o'clock in the evening, when the polls shall be closed.

The qualified citizens of the several districts and townships shall meet on the Friday next preceding the second Tuesday of October next, to wit: on Friday the 4th of October, 1839, at the several places now prescribed by law for holding the district and township elections and each of said qualified citizens shall vote by ballot for one person as Judge, and also for one person as Inspector of election, and the person having the greatest number of votes for Judge shall be publicly declared to be Judge of elections, and the two persons having the greatest number of votes for Inspector shall be publicly declared to be Inspectors of elections. But when any township has been or shall be divided in forming an election district, Judge and Inspectors of the election shall be chosen in the manner prescribed in the seventh section, as follows: "Where any township has been or shall be divided in forming an election district, the qualified citizens of each part of such divided township shall severally elect in the manner and at the time and place aforesaid, TWO inspectors for each of the said election districts, and shall also elect one person to serve as Judge of the elections in each district.

In pursuance of an Act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "An act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth," passed the 2d day of July A. D. 1839, —Notice is hereby given,

"That every person, except justices of the peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the government of the United States, or of this State, or of any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subordinate officer or agent, who is, or shall be employed under the legislative, executive or judiciary department of this State, or of the United States, or of any city or incorporated district, and also, that every member of Congress, and of the State Legislature, and of the select or common council of any city, or commissioners of any incorporated District, is by law, incapable of holding or exercising at the same time the office or appointment of Judge, Inspector, or Clerk, of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no Inspector, Judge, or other officer of any such election, shall be eligible to any office to be then voted for."

And the said Act of Assembly, entitled "An act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth," passed July 2d, 1839, further provides as follows, to wit:

"That the Inspectors and Judges chosen as aforesaid, shall meet at the respective places appointed for holding the Election in the District to which they respectively belong, before nine o'clock in the morning of the Second Tuesday of October in each and every year, and each of said inspectors shall appoint one clerk, who shall be a qualified voter of such district.

"In case the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend on the day of any election, then the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge at the next preceding election, shall act as an inspector in his place, and in case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend, the person elected a Judge shall appoint an inspector in his place; and in case the person elected a Judge shall not attend, then the inspector who received the highest number of votes, shall appoint a judge in his place; and if any vacancy shall continue in the board for the space of one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the election, the qualified voters of the township, ward or district, for which such officer shall have been elected, present at the place of election, shall elect one of their number to fill such vacancy.

"It shall be the duty of said assessors respectively, to attend at the place of holding every general, special, or township election, during the whole time said election is kept open, for the purpose of giving information to the inspectors and judge, when called on, in relation to the right of any person assessed by them to vote at such election, of such other matters in relation to the assessment of voters as the said inspectors or judge, or either of them, shall from time to time require.

"No person shall be permitted to vote at any election as aforesaid, other than a white freeman of the age of twenty-one years or more, who shall have resided in this state at least one year, and in election district where he offers to vote at least ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a state or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election.— But a citizen of the United States, who had previously been a qualified voter of this state, and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district, and paid taxes as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in this state six months. Provided, That the white freemen, citizens of the United States, between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two and having resided in this state one year and in the election district ten days as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote, although they shall not have paid taxes.

No persons shall be admitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants furnished by the commissioners as aforesaid, unless, First: He produce a receipt for the payment, within two years, of a state or county tax assessed agreeably to the constitution, and give satisfactory evidence either on his own oath or affirmation of another, that he has paid such a tax, or on failure to produce a receipt, shall make oath to the payment thereof, or Second: If he claim a right to vote by being an elector between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years, he shall depose on oath or affirmation, that he has resided in the state at least one year next before his application, and make such proof of residence in the district as is required by this act; and that he does verily believe from the accounts given him that he is of the age aforesaid and gives such other evidence as is required by this act, whereupon the name of the person so admitted to vote shall be inserted in the alphabetical list by the inspectors and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word "tax," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of having paid a tax, or the word "age," if he shall be admitted to vote on account of his age, and in either case the reason of such vote shall be called out to the clerks, who shall make the like notes in the list of voters kept by them.

In all cases where the name of the person claiming to vote is not found on the list furnished by the commissioners and assessors, or his right to vote whether found thereon or not, is objected to by any qualified citizen, it shall be the duty of the inspectors to examine such person on oath as to his qualifications, and if he claims to have resided within the state for one year or more, his oath shall be sufficient proof thereof, but he shall make proof by at least one competent witness, who shall be a qualified elector, that he has resided within the district for more than ten days next immediately preceding said election, and shall also himself swear that his bona fide residence, in pursuance of his lawful calling, is within the district, and that he did not remove into said district for the purpose of voting therein.

Every person qualified as aforesaid, and who shall make due proof, if required of his residence and payment of taxes, as aforesaid, shall be admitted to vote in the township, ward or district in which he shall reside.

If any person shall prevent or attempt to prevent any officers of an election under this act from holding such election, or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, or shall interrupt or improperly interfere with him in the execution of his duty, or shall block up, or attempt to block up the window or avenue to any window where the same may be held, or shall riotously disturb the peace at such election, or shall use or practice any intimidation, threats, force, or violence, with design to influence unduly or overawe any elector, or to prevent him from voting, or to restrain the freedom of choice,—such person on conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for any time not less than one or more than twelve months. And if it shall be shown to the court where the trial of such offence shall be had, that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward, district, or township where the said offence was committed, and not entitled to vote therein, then, on conviction, he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years.

If any person or persons shall make any bet or wager upon the result of any election within its commonwealth, or shall offer to make any such bet or wager, either by verbal proclamation thereof, or by any written or printed advertisements, challenges or invite any person or persons to make such bet or wager, upon conviction thereof he or they shall forfeit and pay three times the amount so bet, or offered to be bet.

If any person, not by law qualified, shall fraudulently vote at any election within this commonwealth, or being otherwise qualified, shall vote out of his proper district, or if any person knowing the want of such qualification shall aid or procure such person to vote, the persons so offending, shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not exceeding two hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three months.

"If any person shall vote at more than one election district, or otherwise fraudulently vote more than once on the same day or shall fraudulently fold and deliver to the inspector two tickets together with the intent to illegally vote, or shall procure another so to do, he or they so offending, shall on conviction be fined in any sum not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for any term not less than three nor more than twelve months.

"If any person not qualified to vote in this commonwealth agreeable to law, (except the sons of qualified citizens) shall appear at any place of election for the purpose of issuing tickets, or of influencing the citizens qualified to vote, he shall, on conviction, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for every such offence, and be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three months."

The Judges are to make their returns for the county of Columbia, at the Court House in Danville on Friday the 11th day of October, A. D. 1839.
