

THE COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT.

"TRUTH WITHOUT FEAR"

BLOOMSBURG:

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1839.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION—1840.

FOR PRESIDENT,

MARTIN VAN BUREN.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

RICHARD M. JOHNSON.

AND THE

CONSTITUTIONAL TREASURY.

CONFERENCE.

The 6th Conference District of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Pennsylvania, will meet in Catawissa, on the 1st day of January next.

WILLIAM J. EYER.

Dec. 14, 1839.

CONGRESS

For the first two weeks of its Session, has been wholly engaged upon the subject of the admission of the New Jersey members.

Table with 6 columns (1st-6th) and 13 rows of names and numbers.

After the 6th vote, there being no election the house adjourned to Monday.

Upon the meeting of the house on Monday, the chair announced that the first business in order was on proceeding to the seventh ballot for Speaker.

THE MESSAGE. We have not yet received the President's Message, but, as a Speaker was chosen on Monday, we may expect it in time for our next.

ALLOTMENTS

- By the Canal Commissioners on the North Branch. SECTIONS. No. 65 P. P. & P. Flood. " 67 E. L. Fuller, & Co.

"What does he mean?"—Why, Tommy we mean that to keep the amalgamated mass of which the Whig party is composed, together until after the election their leaders will have to bind such of their members, as are broken down politicians and office hunters, bankrupt in principle and property, and who have abandoned the democratic party, because they could not get all the "loaves and fishes" to sustain them in their "extravagance and folly."

Important Statistics.—The annual salaries of the British Executive, or chief officers of the Government, amount to £449,888. The annual revenue of the Church of England is 9,459,565.

A Profitable Business.—A Genoese editor computes that the man who shows Voltaire's place at Ferney, makes 87,000 francs a year. It is visited by 10,000 persons, on an average. In this amount are included 1200 veritable autographs of the philosopher at 29 francs, 500 of his walking-canes, 300 wigs, and 8000 busts at a franc each—made of Ferney larch.

A Mule died of hydrophobia, at Major Hinton's plantation in its vicinity, a few days since. He was bitten by a mad dog last August, but exhibited no symptoms of disease, until the day before his death, when he became quite frantic and ungovernable, biting at every thing within his reach and showing marked indication of extreme suffering and distress.—Releigh Register.

The Abolitionists of Rochester, N. Y. have nominated James G. Birney, of New York, and Francis S. Lemoine, of Pennsylvania, to the Presidency of the U. S. We should say they will not be elected, as the people declare to Harrison and Tyler.

A Whimsical Old Lady.—A lady who resides in the Rue St. Lazare, says the Journal du Notarial, has made a will, bequeathing at her death 10,000fr. viz: 3000fr. to her grocer, 3000fr. to her steward and 4000fr. to two of her oldest servants, during the life-time of her dog, on condition of her pet being clothed, fed, and attended upon like a human being.

Horsehair Justice.—I once knew a boy in the olden days of Webster's Grammar, who found this definition in his book: "a noun is the name of a thing, as horse, hair, justice." He was of a reflecting turn, and long he pondered over the wonderful mysteries of a noun. But in vain; he could not make it out. His father was a justice of the peace; and one day, when the boy went home, the old gentleman was holding a justice's court. There he sat in state among a crowd of people, on an old-fashioned horse hair settee. A new light now broke upon our young hero's mind. "My father," said he, mentally, "is a horsehair justice, and a noun."—Peter Parley.

WHY WILL YOU DIE. IF YOU CAN GET CURED?

Rev. D. S. Tobias.—Importer and composer of Health in Bloomsburg, Columbia county at the lower end of the town, on Main street. Please read the following, and keep it in your mind. "I certify hereby, that I have had two sick children, with a very painful complaint, one exactly like the other. We tried medicines prescribed by a very good physician, but without any use or benefit at all, and the two children died. The third child took sick with the very same complaint, and then we took refuge to D. S. Tobias' Health Emporium, in Bloomsburg, and astonishing it is to say, in a few days the child was better. All and every one who see the child, thought it was out of the question for the child's recovering, but by getting medicines out of this highly praised and with that suitable name, Health Emporium, the child got well, and as well as ever before. I would advise all and every one, who is in need of medicines, to go to this Health Emporium and not suffer any longer. Witness my hand DAVID HERRING. Orangeville, Columbia co. Pa." 17
