

TO THE CITIZENS OF COLUMBIA COUNTY,
Fellow Citizens,

On the day of the late General Election, a hand-bill was published and circulated by Valentine Best, containing reflections on my conduct relative to the Congressional election founded on a letter from Mr. M. Pearce. As the charges were entirely destitute of truth, I thought proper to address the following letter to Mr. Pearce, and received his reply. I also obtained from Mr. Jacob Evans, to whom Mr. Pearce refers, a statement of the conversation that was held between them. The public will perceive by the perusal of these papers, that the charges made against me, are entirely unfounded, and originated in a misunderstanding between Mr. Pearce and Mr. Evans, and I now publish the whole, with the sole view of showing the "true state of things" and not with any intention of wounding the feelings of either Mr. Pearce or Mr. Evans. Had the slander rested on the authority of Best alone, I should have deemed this publication unnecessary.

WM. DONALDSON

Danville Oct. 31, 1840.

DANVILLE Oct. 20, 1840.

Mr. M. Pearce,

DEAR SIR I have seen a hand-bill published by Valentine Best, and circulated on the day of the late election, in which he gives an extract from a letter in the words following:

Greenwood, Saturday Morning.

"Sir—I arrived here last evening. Donaldson has been here, and made the people believe that Sturdevant is the true Democratic candidate. According to the best information I can obtain, he has represented Bidlack as a person gotten up * * in opposition to the democratic party. Some good men were amazed when I gave them a true state of things. I expect the same game is being played in * * other places * * I give you notice that the mischief may be counteracted * * I shall do all I can * * * *"

M. PEARCE.

As the statement in the letter, so far as they concern me are untrue, I will thank you to state whether you wrote the letter, and if so, from whom you obtained your information. My high estimation of you, precludes my supposing that the slander originated with you, and your high standing in society—compels me to notice the matter. Please send a written answer by the bearer.

I am very respectfully
Yours &c.,

WM. DONALDSON.

McDOWELLS MILLS, Oct. 23, 1840.

Hon. Wm. Donaldson,

SIR—Yours of the 19th, would have been answered sooner had I been at home and favored with better health.

With respect to the letter which makes a part of the hand bill you allude to, the following is a correct history of it. On the Friday preceding the election, I had occasion to go to Greenwood, and in conversation with Mr. Jacob Evans, he stated that you had been in the neighborhood some time before and that you had to some persons, represented Mr. S. as the democratic & Mr. Bidlack as the volunteer candidate, or words to that effect. He seemed surprised when I assured him that Mr. Bidlack was the true democratic candidate and Mr. Sturdevant the volunteer. As I well knew Mr. B. was the regularly nominated candidate of the Administration party, and being my relation and intimate friend, I thought it just and proper for me to remove, as far as I could, the wrong impression by whomsoever it might be made, and accordingly I wrote the note in the hand-bill and sent it to Mr. V. Best. It was, however, far from my design, to have such use made of it, and I cannot express the surprise and mortification I felt, when I saw it. Neither Mr. Best, nor any other person, had authority from me to make such use of it. If I cannot assist one friend without injuring another I shall do nothing.

It has however taught me a lesson which I trust I shall not soon forget.

Yours truly,

M. PEARCE.

GREENWOOD, Oct. 19, 1840.

By the request of Judge Donaldson I here give a true statement of what passed between Mr. M. Pearce and myself respecting Mr. Sturdevant's and Bidlack's election. I told Mr. Pearce I had been informed that Mr. Bidlack was friendly to Petrikin and Best's interest, and for that reason I could not support him for congress. He said he did not believe it. I also told Mr. Pearce I had been informed that Judge Donaldson was to be in Greenwood this day 9th Oct. for the purpose of doing all he could for Sturdevant, Mr. Pearce said he thought that was wrong of Donaldson, for Mr. Bidlack was the true democratic candidate and Mr. Sturdevant was a federal.

I did not say I heard Judge Donaldson say any thing upon the subject, nor do I know that Donaldson said or done any thing to make the people believe that Sturdevant was the true democratic candidate.

JACOB EVANS.

Melancholy Coincidence.—A Mr. Briggs died in New York on Monday, and intelligence was sent to his brother in Westchester county in that State. That messenger on his way passed another, who was coming from Westchester to bring the news of the death of the other brother who had died in that place. Both messengers reached their destinations at nearly the same time, and both brothers were consigned to the tomb in Westchester together.

REARING HOGS.

Mr. Editor.—I wish to add my testimony to that of "Siam," at 32 of the Cabinet for August; I have never been able to rear the first litter of pigs from a young sow with credit to myself, or profit to any one, and it is now my practice to kill them for roasters, rather than make another attempt. I have, however, seen some who have been more fortunate, but, as a general rule, I believe the thing, as I have stated it, is well established; and in a paper, which I have now before me, "The Carolina Planter," I find the following observation:

"It is a fact of common observation, with even our old servants who have long been hog-minders, that the first litter of pigs from a young sow, or as they call them, gilt pigs, are naturally of a feeble constitution and unthrifty, and difficult to raise, and even if raised, never perhaps acquire the size and weight that litters of the same sow do afterwards." And, in addition to this, I would say, I have raised more than twenty calves from young cows—their first calves—and have never failed in obtaining them fine, strong and healthy; nay, if I were to double the number, I should not be beyond the truth. Can any of your readers account for a phenomenon that is so generally accredited, as to have grown into a proverb—"the calf of a young cow, the pig of an old sow."

CURE YOUR COUGH BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE.—REMEMBER, delays are dangerous. Thousands die annually from that dreadful disease CONSUMPTION, which might have been checked at the commencement, and disappointed of its prey, if proper means had been resorted to. The very many who have thus been snatched from that fatal ravager, by the timely use of Dr. SWAYNES' COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY, bear testimony to this day, announcing the cures, the wonderful cures, performed by the use of this invaluable medicine. For sale at Tobias' Health Emporium Bloomsburg. Nov. 7, 1840.

Dyspepsia! Dyspepsia!

THAT troublesome and peace-destroying disease. Thousands and tens of thousands suffer from that common and distressing complaint—Dyspepsia is frequently caused by overloading or distending the stomach by excessive eating or drinking—indigestible and acid substances taken into the stomach, or from long continued constipation of the bowels, a sedentary life, fear, grief, anxiety, a copious draft of cold water, drastic purgative medicines, dysentery, miscarriages, intermittent and spasmodic affections of the stomach and bowels, irregular meals, late hours, and too frequent use of spirituous liquors.

The symptoms of Dyspepsia may be described as a want of appetite, or an unnatural or voracious one, nausea and sometimes bilious vomiting, sudden and transient distensions of the stomach after eating, acid and putrescent eructations, water brash, pain in the region of the stomach, costiveness, palpitation of the heart, dizziness and dimness of the sight, disturbed rest, tremors, mental despondency, flatulency, spasms, nervous irritability, chilliness, sallowness of complexion, great oppression after eating, languor and general debility, sick head-ache, &c.

CURE—At the head of all remedies stands Dr. Harlich's Compound Strengthening Tonic and German Aperient Pills, which act greatly upon the peristaltic motion of the intestines, thereby producing regularity of the bowels, at the same time improving the functions of the debilitated organs, thus invigorating and restoring the digestive organs to a healthy action. This medicine seldom fails in producing relief.

Full and explicit directions accompany the above medicine. Likewise a pamphlet which describes diseases, the manner of treating, &c. For sale at Tobias' Health Emporium Bloomsburg. Nov. 7 1840.

MORE POSITIVE PROOFS, Of the efficacy of Dr. Harlich's Compound Strengthening and German Aperient Pills.

ALLEGHANY, JAN. 8, 1840.

To Dr. Harlich's Agent—Sir: I wish to state for the benefit of those who may be afflicted, that Dr. HARLICH'S PILLS have entirely cured me of Dyspepsia, of which I have been afflicted for many years. I used both kinds, the Aperient and Strengthening, and I am constrained to say, that they are a valuable discovery, and act upon the system mildly, but very effectually. I found the Tonic Pills to quicken the circulation and cause a determination to the surface, and to strengthen the weak stomach and increase its powers. The Aperient Pills are the best cathartic I ever used. I am confident that all Dyspepsias would do well to make immediate trial and be relieved. Any one can call at my house and be satisfied of the above at pleasure.

DAVID R. POPE.

RHEUMATISM

Entirely cured by the use of Dr. O. P. Harlich's Compound Strengthening and German Aperient Pills.

Mr. Solomon Wilson, of Chester County Pa., afflicted for two years with the above distressing disease of which he had to use his crutches for eighteen months, his symptoms were excruciating pain in all his joints, especially in his hips, shoulders and ankles, pain increasing towards evening, attended with heat. Mr. Wilson, was at one time not able to move his limbs on account of the pain being so great; he being advised by a friend of his to procure Dr. Harlich's Pills for which he sent to the agent in West Chester, and procure some; on using the medicine the third day, the pain disappeared and his strength increasing fast, and in three weeks was able to attend to his business, which he had not done for eighteen months; for the benefit of others afflicted, he wishes these lines published that they may be relieved, and again enjoy the pleasures of healthy life.
