The Disenthralled,

BY T. O. WHITTIER.

He had bowed down to drunkenness,
An abject worshipper;
The pride of manhood pulse had grown
Too faint and cold to stir;
And he had given the spirit up
To the unblest thrall,
And bowing to the poison cup,
Had gloried in his fall.

There came a change, the cloud rolled off,
And light fell on his brain—
And like the passing of a dream,
That cometh not again,
The shadow of the spirit fled,
He saw the gulf before,
He shuddered at the waste behind,
And was a man—once more.

He shook the serpent folds away,
That gathered round his heart,
As shakes the awaying forest oak,
Its poison vines apart;
He stood erect—returning pride
Grew terribly within,
And conscience sat in judgment on
His most familiar sin.

The light of intellect again
Along his pathway shone,
And Reason like a monarch set
Upon his golden throne.
The honored and the wise once more
Within his presence came—
And lingered long on lovely lips
His once forbidden name.

There may be glory in the night
That treadeth nations down;
Wreathes for the princely conqueror;
Pride for the kingly crown;
But nobler is the triumph hour,
The disenthralled shall find,
When evil passions boweth down
Unto the God-like mind.

Phasma, of the New Orleans Picayune, gives in a recent number of that paper, the following exquisite Sonnet:

MOTHER.

Of all the words in language there's no other
Equal in gentle influence to Mother!
It is the first name that we learn to love—
It is the first star shining from above—
It is a light that has a softer ray
Than aught we find in evening or day!
Mother!—It back to childhood brings the man,
And forth to womanhood it leads the maiden.
Mother!—'tis with the name all things began
That are with sympathy fully laden.
O! 'tis the fairest thing in Nature's plan,
That all life's cares may not affection smother;
While lives within the yearning heart of man,
Melting remembrance of a gentle mother.

SCRAPS

GENTLENESS.—Years may pass over our heads without affording an opportunity for acts of beneficence or extensive utility; whereas, not a day passes, but in common transactions of life, and especially in the intercourse of domestic society, gentleness finds place for promoting the happiness of others, and for strengthening in ourselves, the habit of virtue. There are situations, now a few, in human life, when the encouraging reception, the condescending behavior, and the look of sympathy, bring greater relief to the heart than the most bountiful gifts.

Forgiveness is the finding again of a long-lost self.

In whatever manner you conduct with wise men, be discreet with fools; for wisdom there is much dependence—weakness is inseparable of trust.

Is it not true that the young not only appear to be, but really are, most beautiful in the presence they love? It calls forth all their beauty.

He who imagines that he can do without the world is much deceived; but he who fancies that the world cannot do without him is still more deceived.

All persons who can defer their laughter until a convenient time, should be taken to the Humane Society, as extraordinary cases of 'suspended animation.'

The ever action and restless power of thought, if not employed about what is good, still naturally and unavoidably engender evil.

I would apply to metaphysicians what Saenger said of the Basque people. 'It is asserted that they understood one another, but I do not believe it!'

Two things fill my mind with ever new and increasing admiration and veneration, the oftener and more constantly they occupy my thoughts, the sterner heavens above me, and moral law within me.

To buy books as some do, who make no use of them, only because they were published by an eminent printer, is much as if a man should buy clothes that did not fit him, only because they were made by some famous tailor.

Very Fair.—'Are you fond of novels, Mr. Jones?'

'Very,' responded the interrogated gentlemen, who wished to be thought by the lady questioner, fond of literature.

'Have you,' continued the inquisitive lady 'ever read, "Ten Thousand a Year"?'

'No Madam—I never read that many novels in all my life!'

The lady hung her head for a moment and stopped.

Mr. Prewitt, of the Mississippi Greole, said that. Good for you, Mr. Prewitt.

'Is that bell ringing for fire?' enquired a man of one of the firemen, as the State House bell tolled out the fearful alarm.

'No,' replied the other, 'heaven knows we have too much of it already—it's ringing for water.'

WELLERISMS.

'None of your slack,' as the sailor said to the rope.

'I'm into you a foot,' as the man said to the boot.

'Deeper and still,' as the man said when he fell into the quagmire.

'Rocked in the cradle of the deep,' as the man said in the diving bell.

'You belong to the rising generation,' as the flour said to the yeast.

'A cheil's among ye, taking notes!' as the absconding teller said to the bank directors.

'I'm a bust-er,' as the sculptor said when he was asked his business.

Evil of Snuff Taking.—A Lowell paper says that at an evening party in that town a few weeks since at which there was a goodly number of old maids, a young man intending to be polite, passed around his snuff box. The old maids as usual, wishing to patronize the beau, took freely of the conclusive dust, and said to relate; when the room was swept the next morning, no less than forty-four false teeth were found on the floor. The poor creatures had actually sneezed them out. They are preserved and the owners can have them by proving property and paying for this notice. Old maids are not 'up to snuff?'

WOOD, WOOD.

WANTED BY THE PRINTER.

JEW DAVID'S

HEBREW PLASTER.

THIS Recipe, obtained of an old Jew by a traveller in the Eastern countries, bids fair to be of immense value to the Western world. Since this plaster has been introduced into America, every other plaster, salve, ointment or liniment has been discontinued by all who have had an opportunity of testing the superior medical virtues of the Jew David's or Hebrew Plaster. Truth, though simple, is powerful, and will prevail with an enlightened community, over all the puffings and fictitious affidavits with which the world is flooded. The sterling worth of this plaster, is recognized, appreciated, and its use sanctioned by the highest classes of society. One simultaneous burst of approbation arises from the thousands who have used it, which shows, that when a remedy possesses highly intrinsic merits like this, it does not fail of receiving the patronage of our intelligent public.

To be had at the stores of John R. Moyer, Bloomsburg, Grim, Deer & Derr, Washington, A. Miller, Berwick, P. E. Vastine, Danville, and J. & J. R. Sharpless, Caltawissa.

BLOOD

Be purified in your blood,
And Health will attend you.

"The life of the Flesh is in the Blood."

LEVITICUS, C. XVII. XI.

HOW IS THE BLOOD TO BE PURIFIED!!

Thousands can answer this question who know from actual experience that
DR. LEIDY'S BLOOD PILLS,
A COMPONENT PART OF WHICH IS
SARSAPARILLA,
Are the safest, best, and most effectual Pills now in existence.

BE CAUTIOUS

LEST YOU MAY BE DECEIVED!

THE ONLY ORIGINAL, TRUE & GENUINE

BLOOD PILLS,

ARE

DR. LEIDY'S BLOOD PILLS,

A COMPONENT PART OF WHICH

SARSAPARILLA.

It is attempted by Quacks and Impositors to introduce their vile and dangerous nostrums by assuming for their name that of "BLOOD PILLS," knowing that the Blood Pills manufactured by Dr. Leidy have obtained the greatest reputation of any Pills in existence, and think by such trickery to impose upon the public by selling theirs upon the popularity of Dr. Leidy's Blood Pills.

The public are therefore particularly requested to be cautious when purchasing, to ask for DR. LEIDY'S BLOOD PILLS.

The public are assured that Dr. Leidy's Blood Pills are the safest, best, and most effectual of any now in use, containing neither Mercury or the Minerals, and may be employed by young and old, male and female at all times and under all circumstances without fear from taking cold, restraint from diet in living or occupation.

In all cases where a purgative may be necessary these Pills are found both effectual and easy in their operation, producing no nausea, or sickness of the Stomach, griping or any other unpleasant sensations.

Further comment is deemed unnecessary the numerous certificates published from time to time from Physicians and other individuals must have convinced the incredulous, and for the further information of all others, Dr. Leidy refers them to the directions which accompany each Box.

They are prepared and sold wholesale and retail, at DR. LEIDY'S HEALTH EMPORIUM, No. 191 NORTH SECOND STREET, below Vine street, (sign of the Golden Eagle and Serpents.) Also sold at Lutz's Health Emporium, Bloomsburg, Nov. 20, 1841.

TETTER! TETTER!

ITCH! ITCH!

DR. LEIDY'S TETTER AND ITCH OINTMENT.—An infallible remedy for various affections of the SKIN, removing Pimples, Pastules, and Eruption of the SKIN, and particularly adapted to the cure of TETTER and ITCH.

This ointment has been used in numerous schools throughout the city and county; as well as Factories, employing numerous girls and boys, and among whom Tetters and Itch, as well as other Affections of the Skin, prevailed, with the most unexampled Success. Names of School Teachers, as well as superintendants and Proprietors of Factories, could be given, confirming the above, but for the delicacy they feel in having their names published in connection with such loathsome and disagreeable affections.

Prepared and sold at Dr. Leidy's Health Emporium, (Sign of the Golden Eagle and Serpents.) No. 191 north second street, below Vine; also sold at Lutz's Health Emporium, Bloomsburg, Nov. 20, 1841.

A GREAT PRIZE!

PERSIAN PILLS.

IT is now a settled point with all those who have used the Vegetable Persian Pills, that they are pre-eminently the best and most efficacious Family Medicine that has been used in America. If every family could become acquainted with their sovereign power over disease, they would keep them and be prepared with a sure remedy to apply on the first appearance of disease, and then how much distress would be avoided and money saved, as well as lives of thousands who are hurried out of time by neglecting disease in its first stages, or by not being in possession of a remedy which they can place dependence on. All who wish to guard against sickness, should use the Persian Pills freely, when needed: no injury can ensue, if used from youth to old age, when taken according to the directions.

Sold by J. R. Moyer, Bloomsburg, Grim, Deer & Derr, Washington, J. & J. R. Sharpless, Caltawissa, A. Miller, Berwick, and P. E. Vastine, Danville. 1845—16

BRIGADE INSPECTOR.

To the Militia and Volunteers of the First Brigade, Eighth Division, Pennsylvania Militia.

Fellow Soldiers!—Induced by a favorable expression of a large number of friends in different portions of the Brigade, I offer myself for your support for the office of Brigade Inspector at the ensuing June election. I do not wish to "puff" myself in notice, believing that my real military qualifications, will be a sufficient recommendation to ensure me a generous support among my fellow soldiers. I shall, therefore content myself with assuring you, that if I should be so fortunate as to be elected, my best abilities shall be exerted to perform the duties of the office, with honor to myself, and to your satisfaction.
