23d Volume

While scores of papers which have been started in the last twenty-three years, have passed away forever, the Post still maintains its proud position in point of circulation and profit, at the head of the family newspapers of the day.

The great size of the paper enables the proprie-tors to give a greater variety of original and selected matter than can be found in cotemporary sh cets. The paper has been greatly

Edlarged and Improved,

And now appears in handsome new type, and has received the praise of many editors of teste, as the handsomest family sheet in the Union. Our offorts have been directed to the combining of beauty and simplicity, with utility and taste. The Post is printed on stout white paper, rendering it neat and durable for filing; while in size it surpasses every other weekly newspapea in Philadelpuis, and has received from its cotemporaries the tile of

HEBREW PLASTER. HIS Recipe, obtained of an old Jew by a trav-eller in the Eastern countries, bids fair to be of immense value to the Western world. Since this plaster has been introduced into America, every other plaster, salve, ointment or linament has been discontinued by all who have had an opportunity of testing the superior medical virtues of the Jew David's or Hebrew Plaster. Truth, apply on the first appearance of disease, and then though simple, is powerful, and will prevail with an enlightened community, over all the puffings and fictitious affidavits with which the world is flooded. The sterling worth of this plaster, is re ognised, appreciated, and its use sanctioned by the highest classes of society. One simultaneous burst of approbation arises from the thousands who have used it, which shows, that when a remedy possesses high-ly intrinsic merits like this, it does not fail of receiving the patronage of our intelligent public. To be had at the stores of John R. Moyer, Bloomsdurg, Grim, Deer & Derr, Washington, A. Miller, Berwick, P. E. Vastine, Danville, and J. & J. R. Sharpless, Cattawissa.
