

who had fallen in defence of the country. It was so applied, as I have reason to believe; but Major Davezac can tell you more particularly what was done with it.

'Connected with the history of this cause I would give you some interesting facts, showing the motives and feelings of Judge Hall; but I am too feeble to write, and I have no disposition now to revive charges which can have no effect upon the judgment which posterity will form from the records; Although the Judge violated orders and fled from the defence of the city, and, in his proceedings against me for attempt, committed blunders which were extraordinary, if not criminal, it was not in my nature to brook over them after the brilliant close of the campaign, and, hearing afterwards that he manifested contrition and repentance; I cheerfully forgave him.

'The Judge's character, however, should be out of the question in this case; or at least I have no desire to assail it. The great point is this. Ought not Congress to interpose and return a fine imposed; as mine was; for the performance of an act which was indispensable to the safety of the country? And if not, will not the precedent prejudice the public interest in a similar emergency, should one arise?—Can it be expected that a general will take a high and necessary responsibility for the safety of his country, if he is insulted, fined, or imprisoned by a mistaken or vindictive judge, whose fiat, under an erroneous view of what is due to forms of law, cannot be changed by legislative power?

Thanking you again, for your generous sympathies,

I remain your friend

ANDREW JACKSON.

HON. L. F. LINN.'

DEMOCRAT.

"TRUTH WITHOUT FEAR"

BLOOMSBURG:

SATURDAY, JUNE 11, 1842.

FOR PRESIDENT,

JAMES BUCHANAN.

(Subject to the decision of the National Convention.)

MILITARY ELECTIONS.

On Monday last the elections throughout this Brigade took place.

Robert H. Hammond, of Milton, was re-elected Brigadier General and Colonel Jackson McFadden, of Lewisburg, Brigade Inspector.

Hiram R. Kline was elected Colonel, and Michael R. Hower re-elected Lieutenant Colonel, of the 71st Regiment. Michael C. Vance, Major of the 1st, and Abraham Troxell, of the 2d, Battalion.

We have received the first number of the 'WASHINGTONIAN,' a Temperance paper published at Harrisburg, by John S. Ingram, at two dollars per year. It is needless to say to those acquainted with him that it is well got up, and ably conducted. Ingram must certainly be classed among the thorough go-ahead boys. He has driven STEAM POWER until he burst his boiler, and is now advocating WATER POWER. You are right, John. WATER POWER is far preferable to STEAM, and much CHEAPER while it is less liable to explosion. We shall now expect a puff from our friend Ingram for the Fishing creek water power. May be that he will include the TROUT FISHERY, if he has discarded TANZA.

The Louisville Advertiser says.

'A few days ago in Hardin county, a cow belonging to respectable citizen was seized by the constable for debt, and advertised for sale. The people of that neighborhood had pledged themselves not to bid off property sold on execution.—On that account; when the day of sale arrived, none of them attended. A minister of the Gospel who belongs to another settlement a man who professes to teach the precepts of the christian religion, came to the place of sale. He was the only bidder. He bid just ONE-BIT, and the cow, a very valuable one, was struck off to him at that price. He drove the cow home, paying for her just twelve and a half cents.'

FROM PROVIDENCE.

The Providence Journal of Monday says.—'The General Assembly will meet at Newport three weeks from this day. From the disposition of both houses we entertain no doubt that if things remain quiet the General Assembly will pass an act calling another Convention to frame a written Constitution for the State, and that the basis of the suffrage, in voting for delegates to such Convention, will be enlarged to the limits proposed in Mr. Jackson's bill offered at the extra session last held in this year.'

Ex-PRESIDENT VAN BUREN.—His reception at Louisville, Ky, was very flattering indeed. He was met about six miles out of town by a body of citizens estimated at a hundred to one hundred and fifty some in carriages and some on horseback. Here he took a seat in a private carriage drawn by four elegant bays, a conveyance provided for him by the citizens, and conducted to the city. On arriving at the boundary line he was received by a large concourse of people who had long waited his arrival. G. Duncan, Esq., distinguished lawyer and a whig, addressed the Ex-president in a eloquence, welcoming him, in the name of the people, to Louisville. To this Mr. Van Buren replied in his usual appropriate and happy style.

A procession of the Military and citizens then formed, more than a mile long, and proceeded through the principal streets to the Gait House, where apartments were provided for Mr. Van Buren and Mr. Paulding, by the Young Men's Democratic Association.

Mr. Van Buren arrived at Lexington, Ky on the 20th of May. He was met at the city limits by the military companies and citizens. On his arrival at the point designated for his reception, R. N. Wickliffe, addressed him 'in behalf of the Democratic citizens of Lexington and Fayette;' and Mr. V. B. made a brief response. He rode in an open barouche, Col. R. M. Johnson sitting upon the same seat with him. Mr. Van Buren subsequently visited Mr. Clay; at Ashland.

A meeting in favor of General Cass for the Presidency, is about to be held in New York.

Three hundred and six of the U. States troops, lately attached to the forces in Florida, have left for New York. The 7th infantry was still in active pursuit of Ocochee and his band of Creeks. Nothing more has yet been heard of the Creeks engaged in the late attack on Lieut. Baker's party. Their number was from ten to fifteen. The most authentic accounts agree that there are now not more than 25 warriors north of the Withlacoochee; and about the same number south of it. The number of Semioles, Tallahassee; and Mickasuckies, (warriors) or the original inhabitants of the territory at the beginning of the war, is now reduced to twelve. The war now prosecuted is against the Creeks.

Thrilling Incident.—The New York Era of Saturday says:—'On Thursday evening, as the celebrated wild beasts performing with his animals at the Bowery Theatre, the Leopard and the Tiger volunteered an extra incident to the performance by a regular set too while Driesbach was in the cage with them, which came near costing the latter his life. Driesbach had succeeded in seating the combats, one of which, the Leopard, he caused to leap upon his shoulder, when the Tiger made a spring upon him also, and buried his teeth and claws into the the unfortunate tanner's face and head, tearing off a portion of his face in a most shocking manner, and dowering him with blood. The indomitable courage and address of the heroic German, however, was never more conspicuously displayed than upon this occasion; and so effectly did he subdue the enraged animals, even while in the most imminent peril, that some part of the audience were not aware of the extent of the accident.'

Enormous profits from some of the Mines in England.—The increased consumption of gas in all metropolitan cities, the vast number of steam ship of war, sailing to and from the ports of the old world, and upon the sea in every clime, has caused an immense and permanent demand for soft coals. An extra number of hands have been employed in all the principal collieries and the proprietors of the best coal-fields in the territory of Great Britain are heaping up princely fortunes, from the profits of their business. We have heard of one individual, who has made between four and five millions, during a few years past from his mines owned by himself alone.—(Boston Traveller.)

The Lancaster Bank, the Farmers' Bank the Berks County Bank, and Columbia Bank and Bridge Company, have resolved unanimously to resume specie payments on all their liabilities on the first of September next. Very good.

Sale of good bacon were made at Cincinnati last week, at 1 1-2 a 1 1-4 cent per pound. Pork is down sure enough.

Catholicism.—The Corner stone of a new German Catholic church was laid at Pittsburgh, a few days since. The church is to be one hundred and fifty feet in length, and seventy-one wide, is to have a steeple one hundred and seventy-four feet high. Pittsburgh is a great place for churches. There are about fifty in the two adjoining cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, about one church to every 700 inhabitants. That speaks well for the public morals.

Chicago.—Eight year ago Chicago was a wilderness, with only a military garrison, kept up by the United States to serve as a check to aborigines. The following extract from a memorial addressed to Congress by the Common Council of Chicago shows what it is now:—'The last census rates the inhabitants of this city between 5 and 6000. The average import trade is over $1,500,000 annually, while that of our exports has reached, within the present year, $343,362.'

Love and Suicide.—The Philadelphia Ledger states that on last Saturday afternoon, a young woman but a few weeks married, the daughter of a rich farmer in the vicinity of Quakertown, in Bucks county committed suicide by hanging herself to a limb of an apple tree, near the dwellinghouse. It appears that a short time since she was married, through the influence of her father to a young man, while at the same time she was affectionately devoted to another. Disappointed love is assigned as the cause of the rash act. Preparations were being made by her husband to take her in a few weeks to his own domicile. This act no doubt hurried on the melancholy vent which has unquestionably caused no small degree of grief and sorrows among the relatives and friends of the deceased.

One of the iron steamboats intended for the coal trade on the Delaware and Raritan canal, was launched at New York, on Wednesday week. She is furnished with Ericsson propellers, and is of two hundred and thirty tons. Three more of the same size are on the stocks for the same purpose.

The steamer 'Troy' left New York on Tuesday morning at seven o'clock, and reached Albany, one hundred and sixty miles, at ten minutes before four o'clock in the afternoon. She made eight landings, and the Albany papers estimate her speed at nineteen miles an hour.

The selectmen of Len, Massachusetts, have issued a card, declaring that 'that there is not one word of truth in the report' that a scholar in school in the town was tied up by his heels and whip to death.

KINGSTON, June 1

INDICTMENTS FOR TREASON.

The Supreme Court of this State met at Kingston on the 31st ult. Nathan F. Dixon Esq. was appointed attorney general pro tem in the absence of Gen. Keene. Bills of indictment for treason were found against Joseph Gavitt, of Charlestown, and Sylvester Himes, of North Kingston, members of the General Assembly under the People's Constitution; Captives, returnable forthwith were issued immediately against both.

Dutec J. Pearce, Esq., of Newport elected to the Legislature, under the People's Constitution, resigne his seat a few days since.

James Smith alias John Bann, indicted for placing obstructions on the Stonington rail road, pleaded guilty. This man stated in his examination, previous to his commitment, that home on from New York with Thomas, Dorr, and said that he was a butteder, he was convicted, and sentenced to three years imprisonment.

The Fayetteville (C.) Observer says:—Col. William Hark, of Monroe county, has sent us a sack of new flour the first we have heard this year. The wheat was sown on 18th of October, 1842, threshed on 1st, ground on the 23d, and in market on 23d.

The chartist petition lately presented to the British Parliament, is said to have been signed by three millions of persons.

The whole number who enjoy the right of suffrage in Great Britain is probably considerably less than one million. And for those, the representation is so unequal that probably three hundred thousand overrule the three millions; or ten times their number, and deny them all participation in the government.

The whigs and Tories combine in England, as in this country in reference to Rhode Island, in viewing the mass of mankind as made only to toil, to be taxed, and to fight for their masters.

The standing army there, being much larger than here, they are able to enforce their despotism more permanent than their co-workers are like to do in the United States.—Pennsylvanian.

Steam Boat Bear Hunt; The Steam boat Corsair, arrived on Thursday night from Galena, relates a curious incident. In the Ohio River below, they espied a large Bear swimming the river. The mate and his companions put off in a skiff with a determination to capture Bruin. The gentleman however made a very sturdy resistance. At length they fixed a rope around his head and carried the other end to the Sternboat. Then began a pretty little scene. The Steamboat proceeded on, and Mr. Bruin followed exnecessitate. He was soon hauled in, when his first proceeding was to climb the upper deck, and put to fight all the loungers in those regions. The end was, he was killed, and proved to be quite a magnificent fellow.—Cin. Chronicle.
