AMERICA.

My country 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of Liberty—
Of thee I sing:
Land, where my fathers died;
Land of the pilgrim's pride;
Let freedom ring.

My native country! thee—
Land of the noble free—
Thy name I love:
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills,
Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake—
Let all that breathes partake—
Let rocks their silence break—
The sound prolong.

Our father's God! to thee—
Author of Liberty!
To thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light—
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King!—S. F. Smith

MORE SWEET THAN FLATTERY IS TRUTH.

BY MAJOR CALDER CAMPBELL
I do not flatter, when I say
I love thee better day by day;
For like that dainty Summer flower,
That opens a bud for ever hour,
Thou dost each day to me impart
Some fairer feature of the heart.
Then fear not falsehood; for, in sooth,
More sweet than Flattery is Truth.

I do not flatter thee mine own,
When I compare the blushes thrown
Across thy cheek, as thus I tell
Thy charms; to tints within the cell
Of some fresh rosebuds, ere its breath
Inhales from life the taint of death.
Oh, no! I feign not for, in sooth,
More sweet than Flattery is Truth.

I do not flatter, when I swear,
I live but in thy presence fair;
For absent from thee, still I have
A shroud around me, and a grave
Beside me dug by cruel fear,
Least thou shouldst never more appear
In all the fondness of thy youth
More sweet such Flattery than Truth.

Nor do I flatter thee dear heart,
When I aver (as new) thou art
The one thing needful to my bliss.
The all I want in scenes, like this—
Were, but for thee it were labor vain
To breathe life's heavy breath of pain.
Oh, no! I flatter not in sooth,
More sweet than Flattery is Truth.

A NEW VOLUME. MAY 1st, 1842. THE SATURDAY POST. A FAMILY SHEET.

OF THE MAMMOTH CLASS.

A new volume of the popular family newspaper Saturday Evening Post, will be commenced on the first of May, 1842, beautifully printed on the finest white linen paper. The Post is the oldest and best established paper in the Union, having already got to the commencement of the 23d Volume.

While scores of papers which have been started in the last twenty-three years, have passed away forever, the Post still maintains its proud position in point of circulation and profit, at the head of the family newspapers of the day.

The great size of the paper enables the proprietors to give a greater variety of original and selected matter than can be found in cotemporary sheets. The paper has been greatly

Enlarged and Improved.

And now appears in handsome new type, and has received the praise of many editors of taste, as the 'handsomest family sheet in the Union.' Our efforts have been directed to the combining of beauty and simplicity, with utility and taste. The Post is printed on stout white paper, rendering it neat and durable for filing; while in size it surpasses every other weekly newspaper in Philadelphia, and has received from its cotemporaries the title of

The Philadelphia Mammoth.

The great size of the paper enables us to give all important Congressional proceedings at length, and all reports and other important public documents in full, together with occasional Congressional Speeches in full.

JEW DAVID'S PERSIAN PILLS.

OR HEBREW PLASTER.
THIS Recipe, obtained of an old Jew by a traveler in the Eastern countries, bids fair to be of immense value to the Western world. Since this plaster has been introduced into America, every other plaster, salve, ointment or liniment has been discontinued by all who have had an opportunity of testing the superior medical virtues of the Jew David's or Hebrew Plaster. Truth, though simple is powerful, and will prevail with an enlightened community, over all the puffings and fictitious affidavits with which the world is flooded. The sterling worth of this plaster, is recognized, appreciated, and its use sanctioned by the highest classes of society. One simultaneous burst of approbation arises from the thousands who have used it, which shows that when a remedy possesses highly intrinsic merits like this, it does not fail of receiving the patronage of our intelligent public.
To be had at the stores of John R. Moyer, Bloomsburg, Grim, Dees & Derr, Washington, A. Miller, Berwick, P. E. Vastine, Danville, and J. & J. R. Sharpless, Catawissa.

BE CAUTIONED!
LEST YOU MAY BE DECEIVED!
THE ONLY ORIGINAL, TRUE & GENUINE
GOOD PILLS,
DR. LEIDY'S BLOOD PILLS,
A COMPONENT PART OF WHICH IS SARSAPARILLA.
IT is attempted by Quacks and Impostors to introduce their vile and dangerous nostrums by assuming for their name that of "BLOOD PILLS," knowing that the Blood Pills manufactured by Dr. Leidy have obtained the greatest reputation of any Pills in existence, and that by such trickery to impose upon the public by selling theirs upon the popularity of Dr. Leidy's Blood Pills.
The public are therefore particularly requested to be cautious when purchasing, to ask for Dr. LEIDY'S BLOOD PILLS.
The public are asked that Dr. Leidy's Blood Pills are the safest, best, and most effectual of any now in use containing neither Mercury or the Minerals, and may be employed by young and old, male and female at all times and under all circumstances without fear from taking cold, restraint from diet in fast or occupation.
In all cases where purgation may be necessary these Pills will be found both effectual and easy in their operation, producing no nausea, or Sickness of the Stomach, griping or any other unpleasant sensations.
Further comments deemed unnecessary the numerous certificates published from time to time from Physicians at other individuals must have convinced the incredulous, and for the further information of all others, Dr. Leidy refers them to the directions which accompany each Box.
They are prepared and sold wholesale and retail, at Dr. LEIDY'S HEALTH EMPORIUM, No. 191 NORTH SECOND Street, below Vine street, (sign of the Golden Eagle and Serpents). Also sold at Lutz's Health Emporium, Bloomsburg, Nov 20, 1841. 30

DR. LEIDY'S TETTER AND ITCH OINTMENT.—An admirable remedy for various affections of the SKIN, removing Pimples, Pastules, an Eruption of the SKIN, and particularly adapted to the cure of TETTER and ITCH.
This ointment has been used in numerous schools throughout city and county; as well as factories, clothing numerous girls and boys, and among whom Tetter and Itch, as well as other affections of the Skin, prevailed, with the unexampled Success. Names of School teachers, as well as superintendants and proprietors of Factories, could be given affirming the above, but for the delicacy thereof in having their names published in connection with such loathsome and disagreeable affections.
Prepared and sold at Leidy's Health Emporium, (Sign of Golden Eagle and Serpents,) No. 191 a second street, below Vine; also sold at Lutz's Health Emporium, Bloomsburg, Nov. 20, 1841. 30
