

FOR PRESIDENT.

JAMES BUCHANAN.

(Subject to the decision of the National Convention.)

We are requested to mention that the Rev. WILLIAM J. EYER will deliver the Address at the Orangeville Celebration.

We are under renewed obligations to the Hon. B. A. Bidlack for valuable public documents.

4th JULY.

ORANGEVILLE CELEBRATION.

At a large and respectable meeting of the citizens of Orangeville and vicinity, convened at the house of Isaac C. Johnson, June 22, 1842, Dr. G. W. Lott was called to the chair, Isaac Welch and Daniel Fornwald appointed Vice Presidents, E. G. Ricketts and Jesse Coleman Secretaries.

Resolved.—That this meeting justly appreciate the merit of our forefathers in casting off the British yoke, and believe the day ought to be commemorated by their posterity.

Resolved.—That we will use all reasonable exertions to celebrate our birth of liberty at Orangeville on the approaching Anniversary.

Resolved.—That a committee of three be appointed to select an orator for the day, as also a suitable person to read the declaration of independence, when the following persons were appointed said committee—Isaac Welch, Emanuel Lazarus and Daniel Fornwald.

Resolved.—That a committee of Twelve be selected to make arrangements for the entertainment on said day, and the following were appointed said committee.—Alfred Howell, John B. Edgar, Jesse Coleman, Andrew Crawford, Iram Derr, Charles Doebler, Henry Auten, Henry Webb, E. G. Ricketts, G. W. Betts, John Staley, and Dr. G. W. Lott.

Resolved.—That three of the above committee be appointed to invite the Bloomsburg Band, Bloomsburg Artillery, and Orangeville and Rohersburgh Rifle Company, as also citizens generally, to attend, the following persons were appointed said committee.—Alfred Howell, John B. Edgar and Jesse Coleman.

Also Resolved That the foregoing be published in the Democrat and Register of Bloomsburg, Intelligence, Danville, Sentinel, Newark, and signed by the officers:

G. W. LOTT, Pres.
ISAAC WELCH, V. Pres.
DANIEL FORNWALD, Sec.
E. G. RICKETTS, Sec.
JESSE COLEMAN, Sec.

It will be recollected, that at the county meeting held at Danville, in April last, a resolution was passed, recommending a Convention to be held at Harrisburg, on the 8th of January next to give expression of the voice of Pennsylvania, in relation to a candidate for the next Presidency. Since then other times have been mentioned, by county meetings and Democratic papers in various parts of the State, but none from the following notice, which is a copy from the Harrisburg Reporter, of the eighth of January has been finally adopted upon:

8th OF JANUARY CONVENTION.

Pennsylvania and Buchanan.—We are requested to state, that, after a interchange of sentiment, it is considered expedient that a convention of our patriotic fellow citizens who are friendly to the assertion of the claims of Pennsylvania and the election of JAMES BUCHANAN to the presidency, should be held at Harrisburg.

ON THE EIGHTH OF JANUARY, 1843.

The purpose of expressing their sentiments on this interesting subject. It is therefore respectfully recommended that measures be taken, in the several counties, to assemble the commonwealth, to elect delegates, corresponding with the number of Senators and Representatives to which they are entitled to represent the same in the proposed convention.

Condition of the State Treasury.—The following document was submitted to the Legislature on Saturday last, in reply to the resolution of the 16th inst. by the Secretary of the Treasury; in which he says the whole amount of revenue in the Treasury; on the first of June inst. was $664,627 15. Of this sum there was handed to him by his predecessor, unavailable at that time, and still so the following sums:

Table with 2 columns: Description and Amount. Includes Harrisburg Bank ($50,000), Bank of the U. S. (280,000), and Girard Bank (6,000).

Leaving a balance of available funds of $228,628 15. Of this sum there is in the Bank of Pennsylvania, and branches; applicable to interest, the sum of $224,654.85. Amount of Available funds in the Treasury $104,072 40.

Table with 2 columns: Description and Amount. Includes Relief notes of suspended banks ($39,673 00), Demand notes on sundry country banks (14,563 00), and Specie in the Treasury (274 41).

The amount applicable to the payment of interest, including the amount in the Bank of Pennsylvania, $356,532 73.

The Amount of notes in the Treasury; issued under the act of 4th May, 1841! is only $86,928. The amount likely to be received into the Treasury from the first of June to the first of August, is estimated at $177,000. This, in the opinion of the Treasurer, will be fully realized, and should the collection of taxes be favorable will be exceeded. The payment into the Treasury; from the 1st inst. have rather exceeded the expenditures, but the funds have not materially changed since that time either in a character or amount.—There are several shorter loans still unpaid; which, paid, will be applicable to the payment of interest.

A most melancholy catastrophe occurred at Johnstown county of Xikenny, Ireland, recently.—A Mr. George Healy, a gentleman possessed of about £5,000 a year, was burned to death in his own residence, and a great portion of the house, which was a very fine one, was consumed. The fire was believed to be the result of accident.

Apportionment Bill Passed.—On the 17th inst., the apportionment bill was taken up in the House of Congress, and the Senate's ratio of representation finally adopted. The vote on concurring with the first amendment, fixing the ratio at 70,680, was, yeas 113, nays 104; The vote on the second amendment, providing for the representation of fractions, was, yeas 110, nays 102. A motion to lay the amendment on the table was negatived by vote of 112 nays to 98 yeas. So the bill awaits only the signature of the President to become a law.

DOMESTIC CREDITORS.

The bill for the payment of the domestic creditors out of the relief notes which may come into the Treasury, passed the house on Tuesday, by a vote of 60 to 36. We are glad to see that at last this meritorious but suffering class of our citizens are about to receive that which is due them.

TAYLORSVILLE NOTES.

It will be seen that the President and Directors of the Taylorsville Delaware Bridge Company have pledged to the public their private Estates for the redemption of the notes of the Institutions. As the amount in circulation is less than $10,000, and as the Estates thus pledged must exceed $150,000, the security to the public must prove entirely satisfactory; and put the notes in the best of credit. The pledge will be seen in another column.—Buck's Co. Intelligencer.

The Episcopal church in this county is prosperous in the highest degree. There are now 20 bishops, 1,200 clergymen, 1,000 churches, and over 700,000 members. It is a singular fact, that the first Episcopal minister ordained in this country still survives. He was in New York the other day, and, according to Journal of Commerce, is ninety-one years of age.

THE APPORTIONMENT BILL.

This important Bill has at length passed both Houses of Congress and has been sent to the President for his signature, but whether it will receive his sanction or not is yet problematical inasmuch as it constitutionality, tending strongly towards consolidation and the right of the general government to prescribe to the State in a mandatory manner.

In the bill as it passed both House, the ratio for each Representative, is 70,670, which will give Pennsylvania 24 members instead of 28.

TIMES OUT WEST.

A correspondent of the Philadelphia Gazette says.—I heard a gentleman from Ohio say last evening, that money was so scarce in the west that may of the boatmen on the canals could not get enough to pay their toll. He thought Wheat would soon be down to 25 cents a bushel, specie; and Pork 1a2 cents per lb. do. More than a half of the whiskey distilleries had suspended operations. Indeed there was no sale for produce or merchandise of any kind, on account of there being no specie or currency. Merchants in New Orleans positively decline consignments of western produce, being unwilling to pay even the freight.

The Legislature of Connecticut has postponed indefinitely the bill abolishing imprisonment for debt, and passed a resolution settling finally and forever, the somewhat celebrated Jarvis case. Mr. Jarvis is discovered from her husband, within an annual allowance of six hundred dollars and without any right of dower on the death of Dr. Jarvis.

The British Navy employs in time of peace 33,000 able-bodied seamen, 2000 boys and 13,000 Marines—making an aggregate Naval force of 46,000 men, and 2000 boys.

The receipts on the Reading and Philadelphia Rail road, during the month, for passengers, and freight on merchandise, are stated to have been but little less than $20,000.

State Standing Army.—It will hardly be credited that we have at the present time, a 'standing army' of commissioned officers numbering more men than General Washington had to fight the most brilliant battles of the Revolution! According to statement just submitted to the Legislature, by the Secretary of the Commonwealth it appears that there will be nine thousand one hundred and thirty seven military commissioner issued this year! This would employ one Clerk about eight months in making them out were he to fill up fifty commission a day.

The Observer, of Trieste, states that there is at present living at Hil dgausa, in Silesia a man named Hans Heaz, in his 142d year. He has not gone out of doors for the last twenty-seven years, but still takes two or three turns in his chamber every day. When the weather is fine he opens his window and smokes three pipes. He has not been able to speak distinctly for six years, but utters a few inarticulate sounds, which his grandchildren who attended him: (all his son are dead) understand. 'This man,' adds the Observer, 'has lived in three different centuries a thing never witnessed, perhaps, since the times of the patriarchs.'

Three large beef cattle have been fed for several years by Mr. Hagarty of Lancaster, Pa., the largest of which is estimated to weigh, nett weight, about twenty-five hundred pounds, the other two are much inferior.

SUPREME COURT.

A bill has been introduced in the Senate, to annex Schuylkill county to the Eastern District of the Supreme court of Pennsylvania.

MAINE BOUNDARY.—Congress has passed an act to reimburse the expenses incurred by the State of Maine, in 1839, for the protection of the frontier, at the same rate as if the militia called out had been in the actual service of the United States.

Forty-three men, women and children, from the mines of Pietou, N. S., arrived at New Port, R. I., on Thursday last, on their way to Pennsylvania, to seek employment in the coal mines.

COOL—VERY.

King, the acting Governor of Rhode Island, has issued a proclamation, offering $1,000 for the apprehension of Gov. Dorr at any time within one year. If the chartist party in Rhode Island do not meet with sure and awful vengeance from the people, it will not be because their tyranny and impudence do not deserve it.

At Stratford, Eng. Shakspeare's birth place, upwards of 1,000 persons are employed in staymaking. After laboring twelve hours per day, their earnings do not amount to 1 2 3d. each.

A young Physician of Rome; says a letter from that city, has succeeded in discovering the means of petrifying all substances of organic formation, without their being changed materially in color. A few days are sufficient to operate this transformation. He has already exhibited flowers, birds, fishes, and even human heads, beautifully petrified.

Smuggling has been carried on pretty extensively, of late over the Canada lines. Entire packages of printed goods may be obtained at Troy at 20 per cent. less than cost of regular importation.

Emigrants.—About 6000 foreigners, mostly emigrants, arrived in New York during last week.

The late Benjamin Broughton, Esq. of Fredericksburg, Va. has bequeathed $20,000 to the Tract Society, and other legacies for the benefit of the Sundry School.
