

FOR PRESIDENT,

JAMES BUCHANAN.

(Subject to the decision of the National Convention.)

ORANGEVILLE CELEBRATION.

In our last we published the proceedings of a meeting held at Orangeville, making arrangements for the celebration of the 65th Anniversary of our Independence.

The Apportionment Bill has been signed by the President, and has become a law. There will be considerable difficulty in the Legislature in the arrangement of the districts of the state, and we should not be surprised if the Legislature was compelled to sit for weeks, before it will be enabled to agree upon the subject.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Since the commencement of the Extra Session it has done but little business, other than that of a private nature. A bill has passed the house, authorizing the settlement of the removal question by a vote of the people of Columbia county.

John W. Baer, the buckeye blacksmith, has given up coon skins and hard cider, and turned temperance lecturer. He had found that two dollars a day and roast beef did not come from the election of the whig ticket; hence he concludes to try another string, and see whether it will not discourse more profitable music.

Tyranny.—A portion of the working-men of St. Etienne in France, recently formed associations with a common capital, giving the opportunity for the wealthy to subscribe a portion, the object of which was mutual employment and mutual relief in case of distress.

For this they were prosecuted before the Criminal court, and convicted. The founder of the establishment was sentenced to pay a fine of fifty francs and undergo two months imprisonment; three of the principal members were sentenced to pay the same fine each, without imprisonment.

Morrison.—It would appear from the following that Joe Smith, the Mormon chief is wiser at least on one point than many other Legislators;

Tolerance.—The Mayor of Nauvoo, the Mormon head quarters, has published an ordinance granting equal toleration and equal privileges to Catholic, Presbyterians, Methodists, Baptists, Latter Day Saint, Quakers, Universalists, Episcopalians, Unitarians, Mahometans, and all other religious sects and denomination whatever—any person who ridicules or disturbs the religious meetings of these, is fined a sum not exceeding $500 and imprisonment for not more than six months.

It is stated that during the earthquake at Santiago, the inhabitants rushed into the Roman Catholic Church to implore mercy from the most high God, and filled it to overflowing, and when it fell, rivers of blood were seen to pour through the ruins, proceeding from the bodies of the poor unfortunate souls crushed within.

The Grand Jury in New Orleans, in a late presentment, state that in one of the prisons there was found a woman, who said she had been there four years, without any crime, and without having been brought up for trial.

The Cotton crop in Mississippi promises not only to be greater, but to reach perfection much earlier than usual.

Twenty-seven families have within a few years, removed from West Stockbridge, Mass. to Nauvoo, the Mormon city, and it is stated that converts to Mormonism are quite numerous in some other towns in the State.

The Detroit Advertiser states that recent rains have removed the apprehensions felt for the wheat crops in Michigan, and that the surplus this season will probably be over 8,000,000 bushels.

The seeds of plants are their eggs. A sunflower produces 4,000; a poppy, 30,000; a tobacco plant 3 or 400,000; and spleenwort 1,000,000.

A schoolmaster in the country advertises that he will keep a Sunday school twice a week Tuesdays and Saturdays.

A splendid war steamer, to be named the Chippewa, is now upon the stocks at Kingston, Canada. Her burden is 700 tons, and she will carry two long 82s and four 32 pounders.

It costs as much to build and equip a single frigate for sea as it would to erect seventy large three story brick dwelling houses. The New York Herald asks, which is best? The houses would be best in time of peace, the frigate in war. They are either of them indispensable.

Mad Dogs.—The city of Philadelphia is still infested with these dangerous animals. Another was killed in market street on Monday last, when just in the act of attacking a young man.

Another Steamship.—The Royal Mail Company between England and Boston, have purchased another steamship and intend to use her to carry the mails between Boston to Halifax.

Accident to President Van Buren.—The mail stage in which this gentleman was travelling, upset near Hainfield, Indiana, by which accident he was considerably injured in one of his shoulders.

Miraculous Escape.—Two men fell a distance of forty feet from a scaffolding of a building they were repairing, in New York, on Tuesday, and singular enough, neither were much injured, although they struck upon a mass of rubbish in the shape of boards, &c. the points of which were sticking up in all directions.

Singular Suicide.—At New Orleans, a Frenchman named Decilles, on the 13th instant, blew his brains out on his wife's grave, whom he buried last summer during the yellow fever season. From a naturally gay and vivacious man, he became moody; low spirited, and "refused to be comforted."

Love and attempt to Murder.—A man named Edward Cummil, of Brooklyn, a butcher, was arrested at Brooklyn, New York, charged with conspiring with a young girl to cause the death of his wife. The accuser is a black man, who asserts that the girl offered him $200 to murder Mrs. Cummil.

Iron Coffins.—They have begun to make them at Pittsburgh. They are said to be very beautiful, and much better than any other kind, and at a much less price.

Wheat in Cincinnati is sixty-five cents a bushel. Anticipated crop in Ohio 25,000,000 bushels!

Twenty-four acres of ground has been purchased by the General Government; near Detroit, Michigan, as a site for the erection of a fortification.

Dean Swift proposed to tax female beauty, and leave every lady to rate her own charms. He said the tax would be cheerfully paid; and very productive.

The common Council of Boston have resolved not to give their usual city dinner on the Fourth of July; The members get no pay for their service, and now even a dinner is denied them—the dinner being considered a equivalent for the trouble of the office.

Military Election.—We present below a list of persons elected to the office of Brigadier General, at the late election. The result for Brigade Inspectors is attached.

Duel between Col. Webb and Mr Marshall.—On Saturday morning, at 4 o'clock a duel was fought between Col. Webb of the Courier and Enquirer of New York, and Hon. Thomas F Marshall member of Congress from Kentucky. The difficulty between these individuals has grown out of an attack upon Marshall in the Enquirer, and a rejoinder in the Court room, at the trial of Edwards in New York, by Marshall.

The challenge was given and accepted on Friday at two P. M. in Wilmington, to which place Col. W. had repaired for the purpose of receiving any communication which Mr W might have to make, and the duel took place at Farman's creek on the dividing line between Pennsylvania and Delaware, near Chester, in presence of several gentlemen from this city and a number of laborers in the vicinity.

Mr Marshall was attended by Dr Carr, of Baltimore, as his second, and Mr Gibson of the same place, as his surgeon. Col. Webb, was attended by Morrell of Missouri and Dr Tucker, formerly of Virginia, now of this city as surgeon.

It is said that the parties had arranged to meet on Friday afternoon, but that in consequence of an excitement among the citizens of Wilmington, it was deferred, the parties remaining in the vicinity all night. Col. Webb and his friends in his carriage near the ground, and Mr Marshall and his friends putting up at a hotel at Marcus Hook and by arrangement, proceeded to the ground before daylight on Saturday morning. The distance was ten paces.

On the first fire Mr Marshall's pistol went off before he had raised it, and Mr Webb's pistol exploded almost at the same moment, both balls striking the ground. At the second fire Mr Marshall's ball struck Col Webb in the left leg, entering and passing out immediately behind the knee, severing no artery. Col Webb immediately fell to the ground (his pistol having been previously discharged) and the matter here ended.

Marshall proposed a third shot, but Webb's surgeon and second declined. No reconciliation took place, and the whole dispute is still open between the parties. Col Webb arrived at the U. S. Hotel in this city at six o'clock on Saturday morning, with his friends. Mr Marshall left ground with his friends and proceeded to Washington. The wound of Colonel Webb is not considered dangerous.

Coote, the man who beat and burned the child to death at Kingston, Canada West has been sentenced to imprisonment for life. Thus the Judge has repaired the fault of the jury for if ever a verdict of murder was clearly just, it would have been in this atrocious case. The sufferings of the poor infant must have been horrible.

There is said to be among the Chinese an abridgement of an Encyclopedia in four hundred and sixty volumes, while the Encyclopedia itself consists of six thousand volumes.

An editor in Illinois, mentioning the fact that ladies have discarded corsets, winds up with the following strain:— 'Sound the loud timbel o'er hill, valley and sea. The tape-strings are broken and women are free!

The perilous undertaking of removing the ball and vane from the steeple of the Lutheran Church, in Lancaster, Pa., some 204 feet high, was performed on thursday of last week by a Mr. Jones of Philadelphia.
