Poetry.

WOMAN. True is woman, true and trusting, Much-forgiving, patient, kind ; On man's plighted honor resting, To its worthless nature blind.

Woman fell by arts deceitful, Nought suspecting, nought she feared; And onwitting, she the apple Gave to him whom love endear'd,

O ! when clouds of sorrow o'er us Darkly hang, how soon to bliss Dearest woman's smiles restore us, Seal'd with her true-hearted kiss.

What deep founts of kindly feeling Swell up in her snowy breast, In each word and look revealing How man's in her presence blest.

Love, and trathfullest affection, Have their shrine within her heart,

'Till betrayed, nor these, nor virtue Ever from that home depart.

She's a spring, that pure as crystal, O'er earth's green moss'd carpet flows, But by man's vile power disturbed, Stains of guilty wrong she shows.

With strong vows of truth we tell her, That our love is all her own, She believes, and we may blame not Sins, despair has caused alone.

How, when grief and sickness 'round us Hang their heavy curtained pall, Doth her sweet and winsome beauty, Like a heav'nly radiance fall.

She makes youth a bright May morning, Glad ning with her smiles our skies, And like ivy, 'round the oak tree, Clings unto us, as it dies.

Time may rob her of her beauty,

Man betray her trusting truth, Yet, the vows are still unbroken Once she made in virgin youth.

Weaken'd by severe affliction, Heart-seared by another's crime Like some sweet exotic droeping, Far-borne from its native clime.

She may lose the fair enchantment, All her own in girlhood's days, But the power that gave it, with her Like the plant's life, changeless stays.

Ever since was man created, He has worshipped at her shrine, Off'ring nature's choicest itreasures, Golden honey, ruby wine.*

Off'ring as a simple semblance, Of his single-hearted love, And the truth and strength that ever Should his adoration prove.

"Honey and wine were the usual offerings to Venus, styled Urania or Celestis the goddess of chaste and virtuous love.

HEBREW PLASTER THIS Recipe, obtained of an old Jew by a trav-eller in the Eastern countries, bids fair to be eller in the Eastern countries, bias fair to be of immense value to the Western world. Since this plaster has been introduced into America every other plaster, salve, ointment or lina ment has been discontinued by all who have had an linaopportunity of testing the superior medical virtues of the Jew David's or Hebrew Plaster. Truth, though simple, is powerful, and will prevail with an enlightened community, over all the puffings and fictitious affidavits with which the world is flooded. The sterling worth of this plaster, is recognised, ap-preciated, and its use sanctioned by the highest classes of society. One simultaneous burst of ap-probation arises from the thousands who have used it, which shows, that when a remedy possesses highly intrinsic merits like this, it does not fail of re ceiving the patronage of our intelligent public. PERSIAN FILLS. T is now a settled point with all those who have used the Vegetable Persian Pills, that they are pre-eminently the best and most efficacious Family. Medicine that has been yet used in America. If every family could become acquainted with their sovereign power over disease, they would keep them and be prepared with a sure remedy to apply on the first appearance of disease, and then how much distress would be avoided and money saved, as well as lives of thousands who are hurried out of time by neglecting disease in its first stages or by not being in possession of a remedy which they can place dependance on. TAll who wish to guard against sickness, should use the Persian pills freely, when needed : no injury can ensue, i used from youth to old age, when taken according to the directions,
