

DEMOCRAT.

"TRUTH WITHOUT FEAR"

BLOOMSBURG:

SATURDAY, AUGUST 13, 1842.

FOR PRESIDENT.

JAMES BUCHANAN.

(Subject to the decision of the National Convention.)

Our remarks of last week recommending the sustaining of no man for the Legislature who would not unreservedly pledge himself opposed to division and in favor of removal, are favorably received by all opposed to division with whom we have conversed, or from whom we have heard. They have however struck terror & consternation into the ranks of the division men. Although they boasted last winter at Harrisburg, of their ability to elect a man in the county opposed to removal and in favor of division, yet knowing their weakness, if there can be a fair test in the county, they have sent their runners out through the removal districts, with anxious hearts and hypocritical faces, advocating the abandonment of the local question, and to place the election upon political grounds only. This is an old game of the Danville junto, it was tried, and that too, successively at the election of Frailey and Jackson in 1836. All will remember how anxious the Danville democrats were for the success of what they called the democratic ticket, and how opposed they were to the local question being agitated. All will remember, too, their oft repeated declarations, during that election, that it was a political question wholly, and that the result would not, or could not have any bearing upon the removal question.—Under that impression Frailey and Jackson received a large vote from the removal districts and were elected. But mark the sincerity of their profession. They now declare in an appeal to the Legislature in opposition to the removal, that that election was a test vote in the county, and that it was a direct and unequivocal expression of the citizens against removal and in favor of the Courts remaining in Danville. They are now attempting to play the same game over again. If they can succeed by this rery against agitating the question, in defeating the removal candidate, the state will ring with "Victory, Victory," over the anti division and removal party, and the removal question will be settled by a division of the county. But we have no fears of the result—"a burnt child dreads the fire"—and the people having been once deceived will not be again cheated and duped into the support of a ticket that has for its object the division of the county. The friends of removal will be united upon a man in whom they have confidence, in despite of all the intrigue and deception that may be used, and they are so united, victory is as sure as the day of election arrives.

Gentlemen both in Danville and Berwick have declared, within the past week that they would sustain no man for the Legislature who was not opposed to removal even if he was nominated, and yet within that time they have had their emissaries in several removal townships trying to persuade the people not to agitate the local question. This is the same game they have played in years past. Divide the friends of removal, and unite to a man among themselves, and thus secure their object: They are greater cowards at home than they were at Harrisburg last winter, when they boldly proclaimed to members of the Legislature, when urging them not to pass the removal bill, but to put it off to another session, that they might have a chance to defeat it in the county, that they would make it a question of the polls this fall, and elect a man opposed to removal. But that was at Harrisburg, and it was more easy to make the removal party if there is a fair test vote, therefore attempt to gain by deception, intrigue and misrepresentation what they cannot effect by fair play. But the opponents of division knowing their game will not be deceived by them.

An iron war steamer has been sent from England, in detached pieces, for service on the Ontario.

The Danville party are now industriously denying that they were in favor of the passage of Mr. Headley's bill for a new county, in their electioneering excursions through the county, and deny, too, that David B. Montgomery, the representative from Northumberland county, brother of John G. Montgomery, of Danville, voted for the new county of Madison. That he did so vote, the following yeas and nays will be sufficient evidence.

Extract from the minutes of the house journal.

The House resumed the second reading of the Bill from the Senate, No. 368, entitled 'An Act erecting parts of Columbia and Luzerne counties, into a new county, to be called 'Madison.'

And on the question.
Will the House agree to the Bill?
The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Bonsall and Mr. Cortright, and are as follow, viz:

Yeas.—Messrs. Andrews, Banks, Barr, Beeler, Beers, Brodhead, Cook, Cortright, Felton, Futhy, Garretson, Holdertau, Lee, Lightner, Lowry, M'Clure, M'Crum, Marchand, Martin, MONTGOMERY, Moore of Huntingdon, Murray, Picking, Ross, Stevens, Vanvalzah, Weston and Wilson—29.

Nays.—Messrs. Apple, Barret, Bauchman, Bean, Brawley, Brunner, Bugher, Cummins, Dunham, Dunlap, Ebaugh, Elton, Elwell, Ferguson, Gamble, Griffiths, Haas, Hahn, Hanna, Heckman, Johnston, Kennedy, Lane, Lavery, Leet, M'Farren, M'Williams, Moore of Berks, Morris, Musser, Pennell, Pollock, Pontieger, Roumfort, Rash, Scott, Shenk, Sherwood, Snively, Snyder, Straub, Thomas, Trego, Von Neida, Weisel, Wright and Snowden, Speaker—46.

Will any one believe that Mr. Montgomery voted contrary to the wishes of his brother in this matter? Or is it not fair to presume that he voted by order?—or in plain language, does it not prove conclusively, that the Danville party are in favor of a division? None can doubt it.

The Harrisburg papers say that the apportionment bill will not be signed by the governor, therefore, there will be no election of member of Congress this fall.—In this county, we elect a member of Assembly, Commissioner, Auditor, Prothonotary, and Register and Recorder. As there is no political question to excite the feelings of the community at the election, there never was a better time than this, to test the strength of the two local parties in the county, upon a representative. There will be but two candidates in the field. One in favor of division, and opposed to removal, and the other opposed to division, and in favor of Removal. This should be the test, and the only test, and if made, there cannot be any doubt of the result.

NORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY.

The democrats of Northumberland county have formed their ticket, WILLIAM FORSYTH Esq. is nominated for the Senate, and JACOB GEARHEART for the House of Representatives. From what we know of the gentlemen above named, we are enabled to say that they are both "good men & true," whose democracy has never been questioned, and whose characters as men are unimpeachable. We are pleased to learn that the ticket gives general satisfaction, and the entire party will unite, heart and hand, in electing it. Mr. Forsyth will be elected, if the other counties in the district concur in his nomination, in the place of Mr. Fleming, whose term has expired. Mr. Gearheart takes the place of David B. Montgomery who so kindly volunteered not only to vote against the removal question in this county, but bartered his own vote to obtain others to vote with him, and who so nobly followed the dictates of his Danville friends to procure a division of the county by his vote and influence. Mr. Gearheart is an honorable high minded, firm and consistent democrat, and if elected, which he will be, will do honor to the county which he represents.

GREENE COUNTY.

The delegates representing the democracy of Greene county; met in county Convention, at Waynesburg, on the 18th ult. and placed in nomination

For Senator—CHAS. A. BLACK.
For House—Maj. M. M'CASLIN.

A man, supposed to be insane, has recently been seen wandering about naked, on the skirts of the forest, near Albion, Maine. The inhabitants are making efforts to secure him.

A correspondent of the Albany Evening Journal asserts, that during a shower in that city on Sunday afternoon, several clams fell to the earth.

SCHUYLKILL COUNTY.

A large meeting of the Democracy of Schuylkill was held in Orwigsburg, on the 28th ult. Hon. STRANGE N. PALMER, presiding. A Committee of twenty-two was appointed to draft Resolutions &c.; and reported a preamble and a series of resolutions which speak the sentiments of the democrats of that region in plain and forcible terms. We are glad to see by the following Resolution that the course of our talented and firm democratic friend, Col. Straub, is duly appreciated by his constituents.

Resolved—That the course pursued by our Representative in Congress, PETER NEWHARD, Esq. and by our Representative in the State Legislature, Col. C. M. STRAUB, merits our entire approbation.

A Great Gun.—Captain Stockton has had constructed a wrought iron cannon, that will throw a ball weighing one hundred twelve pounds. It was tested a few days ago at the Philadelphia Navy Yard. The largest charge of powder used was forty-five pounds.

A friend who is found poring over the records of 'olden times,' informs us that twenty ships arrived at Cork, Ireland in one day; in 1739; from the port of Philadelphia; all laden with flour. So says an Exchange paper.

WAR IN TEXAS.

The Texians have had a fight with the Mexicans and flogged them. The Congress of the one starred Republic is making provisions for carrying on a war against Mexico, and the probability is that Houston will yet be seated upon the seat of the Moutezumas.

RESIGNATION OF JUDGE BARTON.

The Philadelphia Times of Monday, states that Judge Barton, President of the Court of General Sessions, of Philadelphia, has tendered his resignation to the Governor—to take effect on the 1st of January next.

About two thousand steamboats arrived and departed from St. Louis, from the 1st of January to the 1st of July.

Lieut. General Baron Marulry one of the most distinguished officers under Napoleon, died a short time since. In the course of his campaigns he was wounded nineteen times, and had twenty-six horses shot under him.

The corner stone of the Bunker Hill Monument, just now completed, was laid seventeen years ago, in the presence of Lafayette.

The men discharged from the New York navy Yard, have not been paid, and some of them are in great distress.

CRANBERRIES.

The Lowell Courier states that a man in that vicinity once sent a barrel of cranberries to a friend in foreign parts, who had never seen any fruit of the kind. In a few months he received a letter, in which his friend expressed great regret that on account of the length of the voyage, the fruit were sour when they arrived and he was consequently obliged to throw them away.

THE NEXT GOVERNOR

A writer in the Bedford Gazette, who in 1835 was a warm supporter of Governor Wolf, recommends in strong terms the nomination of HENRY A. MUHLENBERG; the favorite son of 'Old Berks,' as the Democratic candidate for Governor in 1844.

The Lancaster Intelligencer remarks: Gen. FREDERICK HAMBRIGHT, of this city, one of Nature's noblemen as the Democratic candidate for Governor, at the election, in 1844, in the Democratic papers of Cumberland and Franklin. The Intelligencer adds: 'He is a man beloved by all who know him, and we could fight for him with a warm heart and a ready arm.'

A correspondent of the Carlisle Volunteer zealously, urges Gen. THOMAS C. MILLER, late Senator from that district for the same station.

Hon. ARNOLD PLUMER; of Venango, and Hon. JOHN CALBRAITH, of Erie, are among the 'Richmonds' heretofore named in connection with this office.

A meeting of German citizens of the county of Luzerne, recently held in Wilkesbarre, have nominated JACOB SALLADE, present Surveyor General, and the Democrats of Clinton county have some time since declared in favor of WILLIAM F. PALKER, present Auditor General.

Some of the Democratic papers, we perceive recommend Judge THOMAS S. BELL, of Chester county.

From these early indications, it is manifest, that there will be no lack of aspirants, who will be worthy to "tread in the footsteps of their illustrious predecessor."
