Aug. 9, 1842.

At a meeting held at the house of G. W. Abbott, August 17, 1842, on motion, John Staley was called to the chair, and A. F. Moore, John Hayman, Nicholas Kindt, Isaac R. Kline, were chosen Vice Presidents, and James Dewitt, Henry Eyer, Secretaries.

After the object of the meeting was stated by the President, on motion, a committee of ten were appointed by the chair to draught resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting, viz: J. E. Sands, Joseph Long, George Pealer, John Black, John McCowen, Isaac Evans, Elijah Lemon, Joshua Reece, Aaron Clayton, G. W. Abbott and Frederick Poke, the committee returned & after due consideration & reported the following preamble and resolutions which were unanimously adopted.

Whereas, by our liberal institutions, the people have the privilege to assemble together, to express their opinion upon any public matter concerning their rights and liberties, and whereas, the pending election of this county is about to be invaded with a mercenary foe which has been repeated time and again with Wolves in Sheep's clothing, and deception of every kind, that could have any influence, without regard to honor or pledged faith, have been practiced—and Whereas, the delegate meetings have been the mere tool of aspirants of the Danville faction, whereby they have, by pre-concerted commotion among a few political weaver's, fell upon those that take no part in their secret doings, and tell them we will go for the removal if the majority say so, or against a division if the majority say so, or any thing that will answer their purpose, and after they are elected go direct to the reverse, and when we chastise them they deny it, although the country is flooded with such promises under their signature. Such treatment is disgusting beneath the dignity of a gentleman or even the savage—and Whereas, the plea made by the Danville faction at Harrisburg to the members, that the removal question of Columbia county was not a question of the people, but a mere speculation of a few individuals of Bloomsburg, and to rebut our majority of petitioners, said Bloomsburg could purchase as many names as they wanted at two cents a head; is an attack upon our character and morals almost beyond human forbearance, but we will teach them (if we are not brought up in boarding schools and colleges) that we have a hard fist, and a strong arm, and a heart of benevolence (which we have extended so far to the Danville clique we admit) and a spirit of revenge which we feel anxious to put in action through the ballot box, based upon a local question next October.—Therefore

Resolved—That we earnestly impress upon the removal men of each township to hold meetings and call upon the County Committee to advertise for a county meeting friendly to the removal, to form a ticket friendly to our cause, and when such a ticket is formed we shall all join together regardless of party politics, and we will give a long pull, and a strong pull, and we'll all pull together, and we'll show them who the petitioners are.

Resolved—That we will not support any man for Assembly who is not known to be favorable to our cause, viz: for the removal and against a division. Pledging wout answer this case.

Resolved—That we view the course of our worthy Representative, Daniel Snyder, of the noblest stamp independent for Equal Rights, and no baffling and pledging, which meets our entire approbation.

Resolved—That we believe that Daniel Snyder should receive the entire votes of all parties of the removal men, and send him back to Harrisburg to watch over our rights and liberties and S. F. Headley.

Resolved—That we view the conduct of Senator Headley as contemptible, after pledging as he has done, which shows a weak head, a dishonest heart, and a traitor that deserves to be rebuked as Arnold was by friend and foe.

Resolved—That this meeting being composed of men enjoying different political sentiments, mutually join in supporting one candidate who is to contend for a removal, and solicit the same of all friendly.

Resolved—That as there is no political question to agitate the minds of the people in the county, we heartily recommend the combined organization of all those who justly see their present unequal opportunities of correspondence to the seat of justice—and give the long pull, the strong pull and the pull altogether for the removal candidate.

Resolved—That these proceedings be signed by the officers, and published in all the papers in the county friendly to the cause.

JOHN STALEY, President. A. F. MOORE, JOHN HEYMAN, NICHOLAS KINDT, ISAAC S. KLINE, Vice Presidents. James Dewitt, Henry Eyer, Secretaries.

The House of Representatives has again passed the Tariff bill, by a vote of 105, to 103, leaving out the distribution clause, and admitting tea and coffee duty free.

The Vermont papers are going into 'convulsion fits' because their State is in debt $150,000. By the time it gets in debt like Pennsylvania, forty millions, they'll be able to whistle Yankee Doodle with as much nonchalance as ourselves.

Governor King has made a requisition upon Gov. Hubbard, of New Hampshire, for the arrest of Dorr, as a fugitive from justice, charged with treason! Ex-Governor Arnold is bearer of the requisition, We wonder if they will take him now, or wait till they get him?

Hemlock, July 2, 1842.

PROSPECTUS TO THE NEW VOLUME OF THE UNITED STATES MAGAZINE. AND DEMOCRATIC REVIEW.

VOLUME XI, COMMENCING JULY, 1842. JOHN L. O'SULLIVAN, Editor.

By an increase in the number of pages, and by an alteration in its typographical arrangements, the quantity of matter heretofore furnished to the readers of the Democratic Review, will be increased in its future numbers about SEVENTY-FIVE PER CENT.

The Editor expects valuable aid to his own efforts during the course of the coming year, from a number of the most able pens of the great Democratic Party—together with that of others, in its purely literary department, to which the same political designation is not to be applied. Among them may be particularly named;

- Bancroft, Parke Godwin, J. L. Stephens, J. L. Cooper, Hawthorne, Tilden, A. Kendall, Daucez, Tassiro, Whittier, Paulding, Eames, Sedwick, A. H. Everett, Bryant, Gilpin, Brownson, Cass, Butler, Cambreleng, C. J. Ingersoll.

The Monthly Financial and Commercial articles, which have frequently been pronounced by the most intelligent criticisms during the past year in themselves alone worth the subscription to the work will be continued from the same able-hand.

An arrangement has been made, by which the Boston Quarterly Review, edited by Mr. Brownson, will be merged in the Democratic Review, the latter being a frequent and regular contributor to its pages. It is proper to state, that Mr. Brownson's articles will be marked by his name—though to most readers they would doubtless reveal themselves by their internal evidence; and that it has been agreed, under the circumstance, that these contributions shall be independent of the usual liability to editorial revision and control—the author alone having a similar responsibility for whatever peculiarity of views they may contain, as though appearing in the original work which has been heretofore edited with such distinguished ability by himself.

Among other attractive papers in preparation for the forthcoming volume, will be found some personal sketches, reminiscences, and anecdotes of the private life of General Jackson, from the pen of an intimate friend and member of his Cabinet.

The Portraits of which it is intended to illustrate the numbers of the ensuing year, and which will be executed in a fine style of engraving, by J. L. Dick, of this city, are those of—

- Col. R. M. JOHNSON, of Kentucky. Hon. SILAS WRIGHT, of New-York. " JAMES BUCHANAN, of Pennsylvania. " JOHN C. CALHOUN, of South Carolina. " T. H. BENTON, of Missouri. " R. J. WALKER, of Mississippi. " THEODORE SEDGWICK, of Massachusetts. " C. C. CAMBRELENG, of New-York. " Gov. DORR, of Rhode Island. " PORTER, of Pennsylvania.

With two or three of the most eminent members of the great Liberal Party of Europe, from the different countries; or else of others of "house production," according to the facility of procuring portraits from abroad.

TERMS OF PUBLICATION.

The subscribers having assumed the publication of the above Magazine, pledge themselves that it shall be promptly issued on the first of each month in the cities of New-York, Philadelphia, Boston, Baltimore and Washington. It will also be sent by the most rapid conveyances to the different towns in the interior where subscribers may reside. The facilities afforded by the extensive Publishing business of the undersigned enable them to make this promise, which shall be punctually fulfilled.

To promote the proper objections in view, and relying upon the united support of the Democratic party, as well as others, the price of subscription is fixed at the low rate of Five Dollars per annum, in all cases in advance, white in mechanical arrangement, and in size, quantity of matter, &c. the United States Magazine will be placed on a par, at least with the leading monthlies of England. Each number will contain one hundred and twelve pages closely printed in double columns, from bourgeois type, cast expressly for the purpose, and upon fine white paper; thus giving to the work an increase in the amount of matter of over seventy-five per cent. The Portraits for the coming year, one of which will be given to each number, will be executed on steel in an effective and finished style; by J. L. Dick, which will be accompanied with an original biography; a feature in the plan, which it would be impossible to give in a work of this kind, without the most liberal and extensive support—as they could not be furnished without an outlay of at least $2,500, per annum.

Any persons taking four copies, or becoming responsible for four subscribers, will be entitled to a fifth Copy Gratis.

Committees or Societies (premitting to the Publishers $50 in current New-York funds, can receive thirteen copies of the work.

Persons residing in the country who may wish to receive the work by mail, can have it punctually forwarded, strongly enveloped, by remitting the amount of subscription to the publishers.

Remittances may be made by enclosing the money and mailing the same in the presence of a Postmaster. Bank notes that pass current in business generally in the State of New-York will be received.

PLAN OF PUBLICATION.

The Democratic Review will be punctually delivered free of expense to subscribers in the principal cities of the Union, on the first of the month, and forwarded to mail subscribers and agents on the 35th of the month preceding publication.

All communications for the Editor to be addressed (post paid) to J. & H. G. LANGLEY, Publishers, 57 Chatham-street, New York.

To the Friends of the Democratic Party.

The United States Magazine and Democratic Review will require the energetic and cordial co-operation of every individual who wishes to see the pure and sound doctrines of American Republicanism advocated in such a manner as to exhibit the best possible examples of American principles and American Literature. The risk and expense attending the publication is so great, that without a support co-extensive with the Union, it cannot be sustained. The literary and mechanical cost of pro-paring the work on a liberal scale proposed for the coming year, will exceed that of any other Periodical in the country; it therefore presents imperative claims upon the support and patronage of the party whose political tenets it is designed to advocate and to those who are friendly to the advance of our Periodical Literature, it will be considered no less meritorious.

There is no section of the country where there could not be found one or more who would desire to be supporters of such a work; and to bring it to the knowledge of such, your friendly assistance is respectfully solicited.

The following means have been adopted to promote the great object of this great undertaking: It has been put at the lowest possible rate. Five Dollars a year for such a work,—comprising nearly 1500 pages of closely printed matter, in double columns, and including twelve finely engraved Portraits of the leading members of the Democratic party,—it must be evident, is much cheaper than the same amount of such matter was ever before furnished at in the United States; were not the system of advance payments insisted on, and were it not expected that every Republican in the country, able to afford it, will deem it a duty to take the work, and thus create a very large subscription list, it could not be published for less than double the sum.

The very first pens in the country are engaged in its assistance and furtherance of the project, as will be seen by our Prospectus.

Its literary matter shall be the best of its kind that can be produced, and it is the determination of the Proprietors to make this work unsurpassed by any other periodical extant.

Its typographical execution shall be, in all respects, the best that the present state of the art will enable the publishers to produce.

The Democratic Review is got up on truly national principles, and with a disregard of expense never heretofore attempted in periodical literature; this has been predicated upon the firm reliance of obtaining a very large list of paying subscribers, and until this shall be accomplished, the enterprise will entail a certain loss to the proprietors.

Every cent of the profit of the expected circulation, will be required to sustain the work at its present improved standard, and enable it to fulfill the destiny which is assumed for it—that of being a truly national periodical—the organ and a worthy representative of the literature of American Democracy.

The publishers fearlessly throw themselves on the Democracy of the Union for support. Upon them will depend to a great extent the success of so great an undertaking. The Publishers and Editor can, and indeed wish, to do more than bring the plan and the work fairly before the public. This they have done—the numbers already published are admitted on all sides to be worthy of the cause.

INDUCEMENTS TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS. Persons remitting to the publishers a Ten Dollar Note in current N. Y. funds, will receive a copy of the Democratic Review for the ensuing two years.
